BORN.

STEPHAN—To Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Stephan at their home on South Fourth street, a son, Mr. Stephan was the Socialist candidate for county clerk at the last election.

Gets Team—E. L. Roberts of Catching Inlet, wired friends today that he would return from Portland on the Breakwater tomorrow with a large span of horses for his ranch.

Will Start School Soon—The new school house at Eastside is being wired for electric lights. It is planned that school will be resumed in the new building after the Christmas holidays.

Take Body Away—The body of Captain H. Jacobson, who was lost on the Osprey, will be taken to San Francisco on the next Redondo for burial. His children requested Coroner Wilson to send the remains there.

Ladies Aid to Meet—The Ladies Aid of the Norwegian-Lutheran church will meet tomorrow afternoon at 2 o'clock in the church hall, with Mrs. J. Hansen and Mrs. E. Larson in charge of the entertainment. All are cordially invited to attend.

on time this morning from Roseburg time this morning from Roseburg although it was hardly expected. The rains have put the stage road in very bad condition but so far the mail has gotten through. The roads in all parts of the country are in bad condition.

Takes Clock—A guest at the Lloyd Hotel borrowed an alarm clock from Mrs. Sullivan, the proprietor, to insure his awakening early in the morning. He left the Lloyd yesterday and the alarm clock also disappeared. Marshal Carter is looking for the man and the clock today.

Honored in Utah—Word has been received here that M. H. Kriebel of Salt Lake City has been elected representative on the Republican ticket in Utah. This will be good news to the many friends here of Mr. Kriebel, who was at one time bookkeeper for the Simpson Lumber Co. of North Bend, and enjoyed a large circle of acquaintances.

Want Places—J. S. Smith, senator-elect, is in receipt of letters from the various candidates for positions in the Oregon Legislature. Dan Malarkey wants the presidency of the senate and Pat McArthur of Portland wants to be speaker of the House. Mr. Smith finds that he is personally acquainted with a large number of the newly-elected members.

Was Insured—Alva Layton, who was killed in an accident at the Smith-Powers camp on South

Coos River Monday, carried $1000 life insurance in the Pacific Mutual, having taken out the policy on July 13. It is now stated that the insurance companies plan to discontinue risks on loggers, placing them with railroad men and seamen, as too hazardous to write.

Improve Mill—Arlie Kruse, the new superintendent of the Prosper mill, is having extensive improvements in the mill which will increase the cut and reduce the cost of production.

Want Place for Teal—The Portland Telegram states that friends of J. N. Teal of that city will endeavor to have him appointed to the office of secretary of the Interior under the new president. Mr. Teal is well known in Coos Bay.

Will Bore for Oil—The West Coast Oil Co., which is made up of Bandon men, has property near the Coos and Curry county line and will soon begin boring for oil. The company is now setting up the machinery and is equipped to make a deep boring.

Is Administrator—John Snyder has been appointed administrator of the estate of May Atherton (Lottie Bean). The funeral was held yesterday afternoon from the Wilson chapel, Rev. R. E. Brownling officiating.

Miss Wilson Ill—John Herron received a letter from his sister, Mrs. Sarah Wilson which says that Miss Spence Wilson, who left here two weeks ago for San Francisco to receive medical aid is in a private hospital in that place and in such a weak condition that the surgeons are unable to operate. Her many friends will hope for a speedy recovery.

Is Improving—W. T. Merchant has received word from Mrs. Merchant that their son, Charles, who recently underwent an operation at San Francisco, is getting along nicely and was able to leave the hospital last Sunday. Mrs. Merchant has taken an apartment and will remain with him until he is able to resume work, which will not be for several weeks.

To Get Fish Eggs—Supt. Frank Smith of the South Coos River hatchery has everything in readiness to get a big supply of salmon eggs for this year's hatch. He expects to take about 2000 salmon and unless an unusually large freshet interferes, he will have little difficulty in doing it as the run of salmon near the hatchery has been very large recently.

Funeral Thursday—The funeral of Alva Layton, who was killed in an accident at the Smith-Powers camp on South Coos River, will be held Thursday afternoon at 2 o'clock from Wilson's chapel, Rev. J. E. Burkhardt officiating. Sunset Lodge, No. 51, I. O. O. F., will hold services at the grave, Layton being a member of the Odd Fellows lodge at Jefferson, Oregon. He carried some life insurance. His widow and two children are in Marshfield.

Show Pictures Only—Manager Keller of the Orpheum moving picture theater announces an innovation that will be more than pleasing to patrons. Hereafter no advertising slides will be shown at the Orpheum except occasional announcements for benevolent and charitable purposes and advance programs of his films. This is in accordance with the policy being adopted by the best moving picture houses in the cities and insures the audience of prompt service, there being no tedious delays while advertising is being displayed.

Gets Confederate Money—S. B. Cathcart, commander of Baker Post, G. A. R., is in receipt of a package of Confederate currency from Franklin McVeagh, Secretary of the U. S. Treasury Department, which was sent to the post. Mr. McVeagh in his letter says that the money came into the hands of the department at the close of the Civil War and it was decided to send it out to the veterans as souvenirs. He hasn't a complete collection but sent some $50, $20, $10 and $5 bills. Mr. Cathcart took it to the Baker Post meeting at North Bend today and will probably have the collection mounted and framed. He highly appreciates it.
