BORN.

GOODALE—To Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Goodale, at their home on Central avenue, a daughter weighing eight pounds.

Long Absent from Town.—Miss Fannie Carpenter of South Coos River was visiting relatives in Marshfield today. This is Miss Carpenter's first visit to town in 12 years.

School for Libby.—The residents of the Libby School district are today voting on a school bond issue. The plan is to issue $10,000 bonds for the erection of a new building. It is believed that it will carry and the plan is to erect the building as soon as possible.

To Pendleton.—The Rev. S. L. Grigsby of Medford, Presbyterian evangelist in Southern Oregon, has accepted a call from the Presbyterian church at Pendleton. He spent some time on the Bay a few months ago, temporarily filling the pulpit at the Marshfield Presbyterian church.

Want Ads Pay.—It was again demonstrated today that Times' Want Ads are not in vain. A day or two ago a lady's kid glove was brought into the office, a found ad was inserted in the paper, and today Mrs. Tom Harvey came to the office and claimed the glove as one she had recently purchased. It pays to advertise.

Big Basket Social.—Don't forget the Sons of Norway big basket social at Finnish hall Wednesday night, November 27. Ladies are requested to bring their baskets in the afternoon. Jas. Martinson who has charge of the preliminary arrangements expects to make it the biggest event of the kind this season.
