C. J. MILLIS WRITES.

Southern Pacific is waiting for a permit to bridge the bay. The following self-explanatory letter from C. J. Millis, now president Sproules, regarding construction by the South Pacific on this end of the line: "I was greatly disappointed in the action by failure to secure a permit from Marshfield to bridge here this. The permanent character of this piece of track, if used as a line, the work could not be undertaken until we knew we would without any doubt for that purpose. Am very much disappointed in the government within a week, pending which I can do as before, that just as the government takes favor we will begin permanent in North Bend. I appreciate the friendship of the head and North Bend people and will please better than any other to make good with delay. I have only to that you do whatever you hasten action on the part of government and be patient until such time as we are in carrying out the pro-

LIBRARY NOTES

Quite a number of new books are gradually being added to the library. Of these one every good Methodist should read is, "From the Gold Mine to the Pulpit." It is a simple tale of the hardships of a pioneer missionary's life in Oregon. It contains more heroism of the common every day sort than the lives of many better known men than Reverend T. S. Jones. Another book of a religious nature, but one that will like the life of T. S. Jones, make an appeal among all genuine folk is the life of Henry Ward Beecher. This is written by his successor, Lyman Abbott. Of different character is Singleton's Guide to Modern Operas. This is valuable for reference work. It gives the plot and the orchestral effects of all the modern operas. "How to Study and Teaching How to study," is also for the serious reader. Though this book is primarily for teachers and students it is so well written as to interest any intelligent reader. The chapter on individuality is revolutionary as far as ordinary applied pedagogues are concerned. "The Net," by Rex Beach, "The Inner Flame," by Burnham, "Daddy-long-legs," by Webster, "Idols," by Locke are some of the recently added fiction. The library has sent for material pro and con the municipal ownership of waterworks. This will be here the first of next week. Libby COAL. The kind YOU have ALWAYS USED. Phone 72, Pacific Livery and Transfer Company. A. J. Bailey, a railroad engineer Batesville, Ark., says: "I suffered with kidney and bladder trouble so bad I was unable to work. I had such severe pains in my back I could hardly get up. I tried several physicians with no result, but Foley Kidney Pills have done wonders for me. I recommend them to all." For sale by Lockhart-Parsons Drug Co., the Busy Corner.

NEWS OF COQUILLE.

Seat News as Told by the Sentinel. There will be a special meeting of School District No. 1, at 7:30 p. m., November 27th for the purpose of voting tax for school purposes. A petition has been circulated recently signed this week that the county court will present service of the ferry to 10 o'clock instead of 11. If granted by the court this extension will be an advantage to those wishing to cross the river in the evening. Expense to the county will be increased.
