

Are You Ready For Thanksgiving

The big, fat turkeys are ready, the golden-brown pumpkins are ready, the mince pies and cranberries are waiting on the pantry shelf—everything's all ready—ARE YOU?

Ready to show a cheerful face at the family reunion this year—to look thankful, as you (and all of us) ought to—and to look as if you had something to be thankful for?

The very first thing to do is to "spruce-up" a little—you'll be surprised to see how prosperous looking, and "thankful-feeling" that one thing will make you. Better get in line—"Everybody's doing it now!"

New Ties, New Shoes, New Shirts, new "everything's" are ready for you here, too. Better come and get yours now. It's "good luck," you know, to wear new clothes and things for Thanksgiving.

WEATHER FORECAST.

OREGON—Fair tonight and Wednesday. Northeasterly winds.

LOCAL TEMPERATURE RECORD.

For the 24 hours ending at 4:43 a. m. Nov. 26, by Benj. Ostlund, special government meteorological observer:

Maximum ..... 60
Minimum ..... 32
At 4:43 a. m. .... 44
Precipitation ..... none
Wind—North; clear.

Attend North Bend Lodge.—A number of the Knights of Pythias went to North Bend last evening to attend initiation, after which there was a banquet and a general good time.

Have Chickenpox.—There is quite an epidemic of chickenpox around town but so far none of the cases have been quarantined. Grace McKeown, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur McKeown, is just recovering from it and Joey McKeown is now reported ill of it. One of Bennett Swanton's little daughters is also ill of the disease.

CORRECTION.

Editor Times: There must be some mistake in the announcement that I am to speak at the Thanksgiving service in our city and also at Portland. Rev. Mr. Burkhardt, our Presbyterian pastor, is to speak at that service. G. L. HALL.

MUSICAL NOTES.

It certainly was most gratifying to Director Fenton and members of the Coos Bay Concert Band to appear to such a well filled house as that at the Masonic Opera House Sunday afternoon. Not a soul present but felt repaid for the effort of getting there. The program was an exceptionally good one. The ensemble was fine, precision was marked in all numbers, one notable feature being the attacks which made the chorus work strong and impressive. The solos were well delivered. The solo most appreciated by the audience was Nevin's "The Rosary," by Hayes Howard. Both the solo and chorus were given a finish that their leader may well be proud of. The next concert will be in the opera house on Sunday, December 8.

Mr. Roy Carpenter, a trombone player, late of Spokane, made his first public appearance in Marshfield Sunday afternoon at the Masonic opera house.

Mr. L. K. Ballinger sang "The Publican" by Van de Water last Sunday evening at the Episcopal church. Mr. Ballinger's beautiful bass voice was heard to advantage in this beautiful composition.

The choirs of the local Protestant churches will unite in chorus at the union Thanksgiving services in the Baptist church Thursday evening, at 7:30 o'clock.

Mr. Lew Keyzer played the violin solo, "Salute D'Armour" by Elger, Sunday morning during high mass at St. Monica's church, with a charm and finish such as only an artist can.

TAKE THE BEST CARE OF OLD RAGS

Not for their value, but because they cause fires. Most people do not know that old rags, particularly oiled cloths used for dusting, etc., will often take fire spontaneously. Many fires where "cause is unknown" might be traced to carelessness in disposing of rags.

Anybody knows it's wise to insure against loss by fire, and anybody may find out, by the least investigation, that we have five of the greatest insurance companies on earth.

We know how to write policies that protect perfectly, too.
