

FOR MANY BLESSINGS AND PARTICULARLY BECAUSE WE ARE LIVING ON COOS BAY, LET US BE THANKFUL TODAY

WANT ADVERTISING in The TIMES Will Put Your Real Estate "in the Market" Effectively!
It will put the facts about your property before the eyes of all "possible buyers" in town. And if there is one of them who ought to own it, you'll sell it!

VOL. XXXVI. Established in 1878 as The Coast Mail.

FIRST SNOWSTORM OF SEASON IN EASTERN STATES AND SOUTH

New York City and Philadelphia Have Real Touch of Winter Today.

EARLIEST SNOW AT ATLANTA IN YEARS.

Oregon and Southern Washington Enjoys Most Beautiful Weather.

NEW YORK, Nov. 28.—Thankgiving day was ushered in here by a snowstorm, the first of the season.

PHILADELPHIA, Pa., Nov. 28.— A real old-fashioned snowstorm prevailed here this morning. Clearing weather is predicted for this afternoon.

ATLANTA, Ga., Nov. 28.—Snow fell in this vicinity last night. This is the first time in the history of Atlanta that there was snow on the ground Thanksgiving day.

PORLAND, Ore., Nov. 28.—Beautiful weather prevails throughout Oregon and southern Washington today.

THANKSGIVING

Don't talk to me of solemn days is autumn's time of splendor, Because the sun shows fewer rays
And those grow slant and slender.
Why, it's the climax of the year—
The highest time of living, Till naturally its bursting cheer Just melts into Thanksgiving."

—Paul Lawrence Dunbar.

THANKSGIVING ON COOS BAY

Holiday Generally Observed By Suspension of Business —Special Services.

General observance of Thanksgiving on Coos Bay today was more marked than usual, practically every business house being closed for the holiday.

A few stores were open during the morning hours, but closed at noon or earlier to remain closed the balance of the day.

Special services were held in the Episcopal and Christian Science churches this morning. This evening, several of the Protestant congregations will unite in a union service at the Baptist church.

This afternoon the football game between the Coquille Independents and the Marshfield Independents at the depot grounds will be the principal attraction. The Coquille team accompanied by a good bunch of fans is coming on the noon

AUNT DELIA'S MENU
FOR THANKSGIVING

Begins With Soup and Ends With Cream Peppermints; Of Course, Pie MILLBURY, (Mass.), Nov. 28.— Miss Delta C. Torrey, president Taft's aunt Delta, gave her ideas as to the making of a good old-fashioned New England Thanksgiving dinner. Here is her Thanksgiving menu:

Beef Soup

Roast Turkey, Cranberry Sauce.

Lettuce and Tomato Salad.

PIE

Ice Cream.

Fruits, Nuts, Raisins.

Tea or Coffee.

Old-Fashioned Cream Peppermints.

Capitalizing PIE was Miss Torrey's own idea. She loves pie, and if report is true, so does her nephew, the President.

"My notion is that Thanksgiving dinner should begin with appetizing beef soup, and then there should be a fat roast turkey, or two turkeys, according to the size of the company provided turkeys are not 33 cents a pound."

Then there are the cranberry sausages, a real New England brand of chicken pie, with a capital P. As to whether apple or mince is preferable I personally think mince is the correct brand for Thanksgiving, because, you see, I can make better mince pies than apple pies, though people don't seem to know it.

And after the PIE, with capital letters, we shall have ice cream, fruit nuts and raisins, tea or coffee, and you mustn't forget the old-fashioned cream peppermints."

TRY THE GUNNERY'S SPEED SHELLS and FILL your GAME BAG.

Coos Bay Times

MEMBER OF THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

MARSHFIELD, OREGON, THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 28, 1912—EVENING EDITION.

A Consolidation of Times, Coast Mail and Coos Bay Advertiser.

No. 113

WHITE HOUSE THANKSGIVING

President Taft Kept Busy by Functions Before Enjoying Feast at Home.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 28.—The last Thanksgiving in the White House of the twenty-seventh of the presidents of the United States included public and private functions the attendance upon one of the early society weddings of the season and a family Thanksgiving feast at home.

President Taft went to the Pan-American Thanksgiving services at St.
Patrick's church, where most of the diplomats in Washington and many members of the cabinet and hundreds of government officials annually worship. From St. Patrick's he was driven to his own church, the All Souls Lutheran.
This afternoon the president attended the wedding of Miss Alice Gates Boutell, daughter of Henry S. Boutell, American minister to Switzerland, and John W. B. Ladd of Boston.
He expected to spend the remainder of the day quietly in his study.

The White House celebration of the day came when a 32-pound Rhode Island Turkey, "Aunt" Delia Torrey's monster mince pie and all the other good things that had been stored away in the president's kitchen will be served.

TURKEYS GIVEN TO MARRIED MEN

Smith Company Encourages Matrimony in Thanksgiving Gifts.

That C. A. Smith, head of the C. A. Smith Lumber Co., is offering a special inducement to encourage his employees to marry was again demonstrated yesterday when the annual distribution of Thanksgiving turkeys was made by the company. Each married man employed in and around the mill regularly was presented a fine Thanksgiving turkey, while the single ones received nothing.

For years the company has made a practice of contributing a turkey to each of the employees on Thanksgiving day, that is to the married men. At Christmas time each married employee is usually presented with a goose.

The Smith mills are closed all day today to permit the men to enjoy Thanksgiving. The remaining plant worked until midnight last night owing to the rush of work on hand and the holiday today.

SUFFRAGE LOST IN MICHIGAN

Women Seeking Right to Vote Beaten by 594 in Last Election.

DETROIT, Mich., Nov. 28.—The constitutional amendment, providing for woman suffrage in Michigan was defeated by 594 votes, according to the figures compiled in the secretary of state's office from every county in Michigan. The final result, however, will not be announced until December 10. Plans are now being made in many districts, however, to petition the legislature to re-submit the question next spring.

SINGLE TAX IS DEFEATED.

Missouri Rejects Modified Scheme by 421,000 Majority.

JEFFERSON CITY, Mo., Nov.
28.—The state constitutional amendment for a modified single tax was defeated at the recent election by a majority of 421,000.

When in need of
—PLUMBING,
—HEATING,
—TINNING,
—SHEET METAL WORK,
CALL 101-J
PIONEER HDW'RE CO.

When done by us it is done right

MANY LIVES LOST IN PHILIPPINES

Severe Typhoon Sweeps Over Islands With Heavy Property Loss—Town Destroyed and Ships Sunk.

MANILA, P. I., Nov. 28.—Many lives were lost in a severe typhoon today. The damage to property is estimated at millions of pesos. The storm crossed the islands of Samar, Leyte, and North Panay, leaving ruin in its path. Acloban, capital of Leyte, was practically destroyed.

Two steamers were wrecked in Acloban harbor. The loss of life from all causes was great.

GOULDS BUILD
ROAD TO BAY

Ogden Paper Claims Railway
Will Extend to Coast
From Boise.

ROSEBURG, Or., Nov. 28.—The
news says:

"In a recent issue of the Ogden Utah, Examiner, there appears a lengthy article, which fully sub-stantiates the statements of A. T.
Marshall, at present in Salt Lake City, who says that a number of the transcontinental lines are now engaged in bitter warfare over securing the most feasible route to the coast. Prominent among these roads are the Gould and Harriman lines, each of which would keep the other from entering the coast territory. According to the article at hand, it looks as though the Gould lines had a trifle the better of the controversy and that they will eventually extend their lines from Boise to Marshfield, via Roseburg. Upon the return of Mr.
Marshall who is at present at Salt Lake, the people of Roseburg will no doubt receive some news which will revive interest in the building of an east and west line railroad."

OGDEN PAPER CLAIMS RAILWAY WILL EXTEND TO COAST FROM BOISE.

ROSEBURG, Or., Nov. 28.—The
news says:

"In a recent issue of the Ogden
Utah, Examiner, there appears a
lengthy article, which fully sub-
stantiates the statements of A. T.
Marshall, at present in Salt Lake City, who says that a number of
the transcontinental lines are now
engaged in bitter warfare over se-
curing the most feasible route to
the coast. Prominent among these
roads are the Gould and Harriman
lines, each of which would keep
the other from entering the coast
territory. According to the article
at hand, it looks as though the Gould lines had a trifle the better
of the controversy and that they
will eventually extend their lines
from Boise to Marshfield, via
Roseburg. Upon the return of Mr.
Marshall who is at present at
Salt Lake, the people of Roseburg
will no doubt receive some news
which will revive interest in the building of an east and west line
railroad."

ROSEBURG, Or., Nov. 28.—The
news says:

"In a recent issue of the Ogden
Utah, Examiner, there appears a
lengthy article, which fully sub-
stantiates the statements of A. T.
Marshall, at present in Salt Lake City, who says that a number of
the transcontinental lines are now
engaged in bitter warfare over se-
curing the most feasible route to
the coast. Prominent among these
roads are the Gould and Harriman
lines, each of which would keep
the other from entering the coast
territory. According to the article
at hand, it looks as though the Gould lines had a trifle the better
of the controversy and that they
will eventually extend their lines
from Boise to Marshfield, via
Roseburg. Upon the return of Mr.
Marshall who is at present at
Salt Lake, the people of Roseburg
will no doubt receive some news
which will revive interest in the building of an east and west line
railroad."

ROSEBURG, Or., Nov. 28.—The
news says:

"In a recent issue of the Ogden
Utah, Examiner, there appears a
lengthy article, which fully sub-
stantiates the statements of A. T.
Marshall, at present in Salt Lake City, who says that a number of
the transcontinental lines are now
engaged in bitter warfare over se-
curing the most feasible route to
the coast. Prominent among these
roads are the Gould and Harriman
lines, each of which would keep
the other from entering the coast
territory. According to the article
at hand, it looks as though the Gould lines had a trifle the better
of the controversy and that they
will eventually extend their lines
from Boise to Marshfield, via
Roseburg. Upon the return of Mr.
Marshall who is at present at
Salt Lake, the people of Roseburg
will no doubt receive some news
which will revive interest in the building of an east and west line
railroad."

ROSEBURG, Or., Nov. 28.—The
news says:

"In a recent issue of the Ogden
Utah, Examiner, there appears a
lengthy article, which fully sub-
stantiates the statements of A. T.
Marshall, at present in Salt Lake City, who says that a number of
the transcontinental lines are now
engaged in bitter warfare over se-
curing the most feasible route to
the coast. Prominent among these
roads are the Gould and Harriman
lines, each of which would keep
the other from entering the coast
territory. According to the article
at hand, it looks as though the Gould lines had a trifle the better
of the controversy and that they
will eventually extend their lines
from Boise to Marshfield, via
Roseburg. Upon the return of Mr.
Marshall who is at present at
Salt Lake, the people of Roseburg
will no doubt receive some news
which will revive interest in the building of an east and west line
railroad."

ROSEBURG, Or., Nov. 28.—The
news says:

"In a recent issue of the Ogden
Utah, Examiner, there appears a
lengthy article, which fully sub-
stantiates the statements of A. T.
Marshall, at present in Salt Lake City, who says that a number of
the transcontinental lines are now
engaged in bitter warfare over se-
curing the most feasible route to
the coast. Prominent among these
roads are the Gould and Harriman
lines, each of which would keep
the other from entering the coast
territory. According to the article
at hand, it looks as though the Gould lines had a trifle the better
of the controversy and that they
will eventually extend their lines
from Boise to Marshfield, via
Roseburg. Upon the return of Mr.
Marshall who is at present at
Salt Lake, the people of Roseburg
will no doubt receive some news
which will revive interest in the building of an east and west line
railroad."

ROSEBURG, Or., Nov. 28.—The
news says:

"In a recent issue of the Ogden
Utah, Examiner, there appears a
lengthy article, which fully sub-
stantiates the statements of A. T.
Marshall, at present in Salt Lake City, who says that a number of
the transcontinental lines are now
engaged in bitter warfare over se-
curing the most feasible route to
the coast. Prominent among these
roads are the Gould and Harriman
lines, each of which would keep
the other from entering the coast
territory. According to the article
at hand, it looks as though the Gould lines had a trifle the better
of the controversy and that they
will eventually extend their lines
from Boise to Marshfield, via
Roseburg. Upon the return of Mr.
Marshall who is at present at
Salt Lake, the people of Roseburg
will no doubt receive some news
which will revive interest in the building of an east and west line
railroad."

ROSEBURG, Or., Nov. 28.—The
news says:

"In a recent issue of the Ogden
Utah, Examiner, there appears a
lengthy article, which fully sub-
stantiates the statements of A. T.
Marshall, at present in Salt Lake City, who says that a number of
the transcontinental lines are now
engaged in bitter warfare over se-
curing the most feasible route to
the coast. Prominent among these
roads are the Gould and Harriman
lines, each of which would keep
the other from entering the coast
territory. According to the article
at hand, it looks as though the Gould lines had a trifle the better
of the controversy and that they
will eventually extend their lines
from Boise to Marshfield, via
Roseburg. Upon the return of Mr.
Marshall who is at present at
Salt Lake, the people of Roseburg
will no doubt receive some news
which will revive interest in the building of an east and west line
railroad."

ROSEBURG, Or., Nov. 28.—The
news says:

"In a recent issue of the Ogden
Utah, Examiner, there appears a
lengthy article, which fully sub-
stantiates the statements of A. T.
Marshall, at present in Salt Lake City, who says that a number of
the transcontinental lines are now
engaged in bitter warfare over se-
curing the most feasible route to
the coast. Prominent among these
roads are the Gould and Harriman
lines, each of which would keep
the other from entering the coast
territory. According to the article
at hand, it looks as though the Gould lines had a trifle the better
of the controversy and that they
will eventually extend their lines
from Boise to Marshfield, via
Roseburg. Upon the return of Mr.
Marshall who is at present at
Salt Lake, the people of Roseburg
will no doubt receive some news
which will revive interest in the building of an east and west line
railroad."

ROSEBURG, Or., Nov. 28.—The
news says:

"In a recent issue of the Ogden
Utah, Examiner, there appears a
lengthy article, which fully sub-
stantiates the statements of A. T.
Marshall, at present in Salt Lake City, who says that a number of
the transcontinental lines are now
engaged in bitter warfare over se-
curing the most feasible route to
the coast. Prominent among these
roads are the Gould and Harriman
lines, each of which would keep
the other from entering the coast
territory. According to the article
at hand, it looks as though the Gould lines had a trifle the better
of the controversy and that they
will eventually extend their lines
from Boise to Marshfield, via
Roseburg. Upon the return of Mr.
Marshall who is at present at
Salt Lake, the people of Roseburg
will no doubt receive some news
which will revive interest in the building of an east and west line
railroad."

ROSEBURG, Or., Nov. 28.—The
news says:

"In a recent issue of the Ogden
Utah, Examiner, there appears a lengthy article, which fully sub-<