Portland enroute to Coos Bay. He is one of the big individual landholders in Canada and his mission to Coos Bay could not be learned from the parties who informed Captain Macgenn of his intended visit here.

Mrs. Mahoney Better—According to a long distance telephone message from Mrs. Elizabeth Adams to the Magnes & Matson store yesterday, her sister-in-law, Mrs. C. J. Mahoney, who has been seriously ill at Florence of appendicitis, is improving. Mrs. Adams expects to leave there Saturday morning for home.

Mineral Collection—Harry Winkler is the proud possessor of a rich collection of minerals which he recently purchased from Miss Fannie Carpenter of South Coos River. The collection, which was made by Miss Carpenter's father, while he was a Yale student, is a rare one, and some of the specimens are over 100 years old.

Many Enjoy Dance—Fully 100 couples enjoyed the Thanksgiving ball of the St. Patrick's society at the Eagles' hall last evening. The hall was prettily decorated and the event proved to be one of the most enjoyable of the season. The receipts go as a benefit for St. Monica's Catholic church.

Probe Bandon Wreck—Coroner Wilson who is investigating the logging train wreck near Bandon telephoned today that he would not be able to be home tomorrow, indicating that the investigation will be prolonged. He did not state what the condition of Rol Anderson, the sole survivor of the wreck, was today.

Gagnon Homesick—W. B. Scott is in receipt of word from A. E. Gagnon, superintendent of the C. A. Smith mill at Bay City, in which Mr. Gagnon states he will leave Minneapolis for his old home in Canada the last of this week. Mr. Gagnon has become a confirmed Coos Bayite, as is indicated by his letter, which states that he is becoming homesick, although he has had a fine trip and visit. He will return about the first of the year.

Surprised Brother—In a letter to The Times, Harry Christofferson says that the marriage of his brother, Silas, the aviator, in Portland recently, was a great surprise to himself and all. He says that he and Silas will always have a warm spot in their heart for Coos Bay and asks that they be remembered to all their friends here. They have just opened an aeroplane factory at 133 East Water street, Portland, and a school for aviators at the Portland Motor Boat Club. The firm is known as the Christofferson Aeroplane Manufacturing Company.

Met Lipton—Capt. Edgar Simpson, while in San Francisco last week met Sir Thomas Lipton, the famous English yachtsman, who was there arranging for the great international yacht race there during the Panama Exposition in 1915. Capt. Simpson says Sir Thomas is the real sport and he believes the yacht race will be the greatest ever. It is likely that some motor boat races will also be arranged. Dr. Bartle, who is figuring on building a speed boat this summer, and other North Bend men may enter boats in it. Capt. Simpson attended the boat race conference as a representative of the Coos Bay Motor Boat club.

AMONG THE SICK.

W. Murkl, a Greek logger, was badly hurt at the McDonald & Vaughan camp day before yesterday and was brought to Mercy hospital for treatment.

Miss Grace Williams, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. F. Williams, has been quite ill of la grippe.

Howard McLaughlin, the young son of Mrs. Helen McLaughlin, is reported quite ill.

Burt Doremus received a telegram yesterday stating that his mother, Mrs. M. Doremus of Portland, Mich., is seriously ill.

Word has been received that Mrs. C. J. Mahoney, who has been ill at her home in Florence, is improving.

Mrs. J. H. La Chapelle is still critically ill at her home on South Broadway.

Twinges of rheumatism, backache, stiff joints, and shooting pains all show your kidneys are not working right. Urinary irregularities, loss of sleep, nervousness, weak back and sore kidneys tell the need of a good reliable kidney medicine. Foley's Kidney Pills are tonic, strengthening and restorative. They build up the kidneys and regulate their action. They will give you quick relief and contain no habit forming drugs. Safe and always sure. Try them.
