GIFTS FOR THE FAIR MOTORIST.

Pretty Headgear and Bags Are Useful Christmas Presents.

Here is a hood easily made and dainty which will prove a useful gift for the feminine motorist, whether she is young or old. It is of cloth in brown and white mixture combined with plain white in basket weave cloth. The white is for the band along the front of the hood and for the flaring angular piece at the back. Cross stitch in coarse silk is used to decorate the cloth at the back and on the sides of the cap. Rosettes of ribbon at the sides are adorned with large square buttons, covered with silk. These, too, are finished off with cross stitch. Ribbon ties fall from the silk rosettes.

Pretty Headgear.
Knitted or crocheted hoods are always acceptable, and each season brings its own particular styles. One requirement of automobilizing headgear is that it should be comfortable and stable. Hats, bonnets or hoods that can be displaced by the wind are worse than useless.

For the outdoor girl there is nothing in the way of outfit or accessories that has made such a hit as the knitted wool sets, consisting of cap, muff and scarf.

Automobilizing is so popular that most of us have among our friends somebody who motors, and any trifle which adds to the convenience or comfort of the motorist will be greatly appreciated, for such things are not always to be had in the shops.

First Aid For Motorists.
An emergency case, fitted out with adhesive and court plaster, strips of gauze, absorbent cotton, a small bottle of peroxide and a few other simple drugs useful in case of illness or accident may be put up in compact form to be stowed away in one of the pockets of the car, for accidents sometimes happen when it is not possible to get medical help. Then the emergency case has its uses.

A Beauty Bag.
The pretty bag shown here may be carried on the arm. It may be designed in colors to match the motoring garb. Old rose silk faced with green is used for the smart bag illustrated. The flowered part is cut out of a single round piece of silk. The edges are in deep points.

The bag is lined with pale green silk. A casing for a narrow ribbon of pale green to match the lining is run inside the bag. A star shaped section of green silk is stitched to the bottom of the bag, the ends of the tabs being caught to the sides of the bag and finished with tiny bows of ribbon.

This bag was fitted with tiny pockets, into which could be slipped the powder

box, extra handkerchief, bottle of smelling salts or toilet accessories likely to be needed on an outing. Among these might be cold cream, a small cake of soap for the hands and tiny comb.

Handmade Veils.
A handsome handmade veil with the owner's initials embroidered on it is a nice gift for the woman who motors. One gift of the sort that cannot but be useful is a set of handkerchiefs rather larger than the ordinary ones for women and with the owner's initials embroidered on a tiny motorcar.

A LEGLESS CLIMBER.
A True Story.

One day in early June three men were walking along a secluded wood road when they heard the distressed cry of a blue jay. Looking about them, they saw a nest, about twenty feet from the ground in a small hemlock tree, which they concluded belonged to Mrs. Blue Jay.

As the men neared the tree in which was the nest, they could see a dark coil around the trunk of the tree, just below the nest.

The mother blue jay was a few feet away from the nest, hopping about amid the neighboring limbs, uttering now and then a distressed club him with a heavy stick. After the snake had fallen to the ground and had been killed the man climbed down the tree. Just as he was going to leap to the ground he saw another large black cry.

The dark coil was an ugly black snake that had found the cozy home of the blue jay and was wrecking it. How miserable it must have made the mother bird to be so near her young ones and yet be unable to defend them and how very happy she must have been when she saw that some one had come to their rescue.
