New Home—Messrs. Oulmette and Fairchild are building a fine new residence for G. H. Myers on Elrod Avenue.

New Autos—D. L. Rood has ordered a Ford runabout and will join the ranks of the autoists soon. F. M. Friedberg is also planning to get a new machine.

New Home—W. O. Burrows, a saw filer at the C. A. Smith mill, has awarded the contract to P. M. Tully for the erection of a modern eight-room home at the corner of Johnson avenue and South Fourth Street.

May Build—J. H. Milner and W. U. Douglas are having the old shed on their lot on Commercial between the Swedish Lutheran church and George Campbell's home razed and may erect a new building there soon.

After Aeroplane—V. G. Gorst of the firm of Gorst & King, who left this week to arrange for two new 20-passenger autos to be used in their excellent North Bend-Marshfield auto service, will also look into the aeroplane proposition and may take up the hydroplane. With the new waterfront road, they are able to make the trip between North Bend and Marshfield in less than seven minutes.

Killed in Portland—Word has been received here that Alexander Crawford, a former resident of the Bay, was killed in an explosion in Portland last week. His wife and three children live at 1517 East Flanders street, Portland. Crawford was at one time bookkeeper for the Coos Bay Liquor Company and later was with Major Kinney's Rapid Transit Company. While in Marshfield, Crawford resided on South Broadway and at the Rood apartments.
