The Golden Rule

Bandon

Thorwald rendered some very pretty instrumental duets.

In keeping with a Scotch custom, a "Ring Wish" cake was served. Miss Lucy Thorwald was the fortunate claimer of the ring while Miss Esther Nelson must be content with having received the thimble. Altogether, the evening was a most enjoyable one, and delicious refreshments were served at a late hour.

Those invited were: Misses Julia Johnson, Esther Nelson, Lucy and Lily Thorwald and Messrs. John Stauff and Frank Gray, Andrew Landies, E. Johnson, W. Kaiser, John Hall, and William Scott Landies.

NORWEGIAN YOUNG PEOPLE

Last Friday evening the Young People's Society of the Norwegian Lutheran Church spent a very pleasant time at a social gathering in the church hall. Music, an impromptu program, games and a delicious luncheon, served by Miss Elsie Larsen and John King, were features that made the evening a memorable one in the minds of all the young people present.

Those present were: Rev. and Mrs. R. O. Thorpe, Misses Elsie Larsen, Lillian Pitman, Cora Mathison, Borghild Olsen, Dina Hjelle, Jennie Johnson, Ruby Pitman, Celia and Eba Osterdahl and Mabel Mathison Messrs. Olaf Kirkeripe, Oliver Larsen, Palmer Nelson, E. Omwan, John King, Andrew Anderson, Albert King, Alfred Jaren, E. Mellem and Chris Lee.

SEWING PARTY

Mrs. Dan Keating entertained at a delightful sewing party at her home on South Second Street last Monday afternoon.

Mrs. E. L. Robinson, who is classed among the sweet singers of Marshfield, delighted the guests with a number of vocal selections. Mrs. Hugo Quist accompanied her.

The hostess assisted by Mrs. P. A. Schroeder, served a dainty luncheon to the following guests: Mrs. D. C. Vaughan, Mrs. R. W. Morrow, Mrs. W. B. Scott Jr., Mrs. E. L. Robinson, Mrs. W. Smith, Mrs. Claybaugh, Mrs. George F. Murch, Mrs. Hugo Quist, Mrs. C. K. Perry and Mrs. D. Y. Stafford.

RETURN FOR XMAS

Christmas, the time of the year, that perhaps, is dearest of all to the heart of every boy and girl, will be hailed with delight this year, as ardently by the older members of several households in this city, as it will bring to their fireside one whose cheerful presence, whose happy smile and comforting words, have been missed in the home for some months past.

It is to be regretted that not all of the Marshfield young people, who are attending schools at different places will be able to spend Christmas at home this year.

The difficult modes of travelling, the uncertainty of the boats and the short time in which to make the trip, are all very inconvenient to the student. However, a few have decided to spend their holidays in Marshfield.

Miss Nora Tower and Miss May Pruess, who are attending Berkeley University, are expected home via Drain, the day before Christmas. Roger Goss will spend Xmas in Marshfield with his father Judge Goss, but it is not certain just when he will arrive. He is also at Berkeley.

Miss Bessie Coke, a junior at Berkeley, and a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Tom Coke, will enjoy Christmas with friends in San Pedro. Miss Signa Holm will enjoy her Christmas vacation with relatives in Santa Rosa.

Miss Marjory Cowan of Oregon University is undecided yet as to whether she will make the trip home or not.

Eric Bolt of the Willamette University will not come home for Christmas this year.

The afternoon was spent in sewing, music and conversation, after which sumptuous refreshments were served. Those present were: Mrs. F. Grinolds, Mrs. G. Rouke, Mrs. Knute Erickson, Mrs. W. Gale, Mrs. W. Nelson, Mrs. H. Olsen, Misses Cora and Alice Mathison and Mrs. Mathison.

MUSIC AND MUSICIANS

The members of the Elliott Orchestra on South Inlet are Fred Elliott, Claude Elliott, Clyde Elliott and Mrs. Maude Peters.

The next concert by the Coos Bay Concert Band will be given at the Masonic Opera House December 15, at 2:30 o'clock. Our band is a good booster for the town, so let everyone boost "our band." Everybody turn out.

Director Fenton of the Coos Bay Concert Band is conducting rehearsals for a sacred concert to be given, holiday week, on December 29.

Victor Graham of Portland, an accomplished baritone player, has arrived in Marshfield and will be a member of the Coos Bay Concert Band. Mr. Graham, who has had years of experience playing in large Eastern and Western cities, and being on the road for a number of years, is a finished artist and ranks among the very best.

Director Fenton says he can get plenty of excellent musicians for the band if he can only get employment for the men. Some of the musicians have been brought here at the expense of fellow musicians trusting to luck to get a position. Here is a place for the business men of Marshfield to assist. If any one can give employment to these musicians...
