HOW, WHEN AND WHY A SECOND ADVENT

Denver Divines on Right Track, Says Pastor Russell.

No World-Burning—Satan to Be Bound—Sin, Sickness and Death to Be Conquered—Man to Be Delivered. The Power Vested in Messiah—His Kingdom Near—How It Will Appear.

Denver, Dec. 4.—This city is stirred! Seventeen pastors of all denominations have been discussing The Second Advent for a month. Now comes Pastor Russell telling us all that "The Earth abideth forever"—that it will never be destroyed by literal fire. According to him the great event of Christ's Coming will bring blessings such as we all desire. He seems to have the Bible and logic on his side too!

Pastor Russell declared that false concepts of the Second Coming of Christ had done great injury. The view set forth in all orthodox creeds is that Christ will come again in the flesh. The resurrection will take place within twenty-four hours. The saintly will rise in the air to meet the Lord. Then fire will come down from heaven, and consume the whole earth. Premillennialists claim that Christ will reign in fleshly glory a thousand years to bless the living. The majority of Christians disown this as ridiculous nonsense because they believe little of creed or Bible. A minority perceive its inconsistency with the Bible.

What Bible Students Now See. The "fire of that day" is symbolical, already kindling in society, the elements of which, Capital and Labor, are getting hotter. Soon they will melt, the symbolical "earth" will be consumed with the "heavens" also, the ecclesiastical powers. Their passing away will usher in a "new earth," or social order, and "new heavens," the Church in glory.

The Second Coming of Christ is associated with blessings. Messiah will abolish the curse and bring in wonderful blessings. The Day of Christ will be "the last Day,"—the great Seventh Thousand-year Day. All humanity will be blessed, including the dead who will then be awakened.

Christ Comes to Reign. As the redemption was necessary for man's salvation so Messiah's Kingdom is necessary to accomplish restitution. The delay of more than eighteen centuries is Scripturally explained: (1) God designed Six Great One Thousand Year Days to teach mankind the exceeding sinfulness of sin. He purposed that on the Seventh Day the blessing of Messiah should come. (2) An important work has been done since Calvary. An Elect Church has been gathered out of all nations—saints made perfect through suffering, a Little Flock, the "Church of the First-borns." These are to become the Bride of Christ at His Second Advent.

The Second Coming of Jesus is to claim His Bride class, and to exalt them. As regards the world, He comes to bind Satan, to overthrow sin, and to uplift fallen humanity. St. Peter tells that Restitution work, not a literal burning of the world, awaits the Second Coming of Jesus: "Times of refreshing shall come from the presence of the Lord."—Acts III, 19-21.

Christ's Kingdom to Be Spiritual. One great mistake we have all made is in not noticing that Jesus was human for only thirty-three and a half years. He was a glorious spirit being before He was made flesh; and He was resurrected to a spirit condition—higher than His original one. How foolish we were to think of Jesus as a man (a little lower than angels) in the midst of the Heavenly host. He is now partaker of the Divine nature; His Church is to be "changed" and made "like Him." As His descent was from a higher to a lower, so His ascent was from a lower nature to a higher, "far above angels." His is the exceeding glory which "no man hath seen nor can see"—"which no man can approach unto."

It is this glorious Being whose Kingdom is about to be established. He and His Church will be as invisible to men as are Satan and the fallen angels. The appearances of Jesus in the flesh after His resurrection were materializations, to prove: (1) that Jesus was no longer dead; (2) that He was changed, born of the Spirit, able to go and come like the wind.

Parousia, Epiphania, Apokalupsia. Messiah's Kingdom will have earthly representatives—the faithful saints of previous ages, raised to human perfection instantly. Through these the invisible Messianic Kingdom will operate. Jesus said, "Ye shall see Abraham, Isaac, Jacob and all the prophets in the Kingdom."

CHRISTMAS GIFTS FOR HER LADYSHIP

Homemade Offerings That Almost Any Woman Would Appreciate.

Millady will like the useful little vanity case seen in the illustration which is made of ribbon. Just the proper size to slip in her purse or hand bag. For this, wide satin ribbon is selected and two pieces of it, with a flat bit

VANITY CASE. of cotton wadding laid between, are stitched together on the edge.

On one side, extending almost half-way across, another piece of ribbon is stitched to form a small pocket into which is slipped a small envelope of rice powder and a soft piece of chamomile with which to apply it. A small oblong mirror has its edges bound with ribbon and is then sewed fast to the other side of the case. Very narrow ribbon encircles the case and serves to fasten it together when folded over like a little book. Illustrated is a vanity case of still another variety. The inside of the case is shown, with a pocket and powder puff on one flap and a mirror on the other.

Gift For the House. It is becoming quite popular to give what is known as a Christmas present to the house—that is, something that

A FRENCH SCREEN. is jointly contributed to and enjoyed by all the members of the household. The charming screen pictured would make a delightful gift of this kind. It is of gold leaf finish and has a top of glass in which are set oval mirrors to reflect the beauty of the apartment in which it is placed.

Pretty Gift For Invalids. When planning the holiday gifts do not forget the invalid. Make a bag of dainty flowered silk or cretonne, running inch wide satin ribbon in the top for a draw string and lining it with delicately scented silk. Have the drawstring very long so it can be hung on the bedpost in easy reach of the invalid's hand without the necessity of her raising herself in bed. In the bag is a small paper pad, pencil, handkerchief and anything she may need that otherwise would have to be handed to her by an attendant.

Novelties For the Dressing Table. A charming gift can be easily made from a picture frame. Buy a frame any size you choose, but instead of inserting a picture put in a piece of bright chatz or cretonne. Then buy two small brass handles and attach one to each end of the frame. When this is finished tack a piece of fine felt across the back. This makes as pretty a tray as any one could wish.

THE RIGHT CHRISTMAS WAY

By MRS. H. L. MONTY.

Right, Ill. by American Press Association.]
H. Mrs. Everly, I just thought I'd drop in and talk Christmas to you. It's all I hear at home, and I—
Mrs. Milner was a very dear young girl, and Edna and Vera Everly, and Christmas and all the wonderful scenes belonging to it had always been passed as one family. She was fond when Mrs. Everly turned away and said: "Alice, don't. Please don't talk Christmas this year."
She hurried upstairs, where Edna and Vera were brooding over the same demand, given them the evening before.
"This was the first to speak. "I don't understand mamma at all. Before she always been the first to begin the Christmas gifts, and—and she never did of planning."
Mrs. Everly was angry. "Last evening papa said I think, mother, that Santa will be up to unload that fine dining table and—laugh's for you Christmas. And that was as far as I got. Mamma said: 'Father, that's do. Christmas will not be mentioned to me this year.' And—and this morning mamma went to the furniture store, bought that table and has it all for dinner. I know papa will be—"
She jumped up. "Come on, girls! Let's go over and consult Aunt Betty."
The girls told her their Christmas wishes and about the dining table. She was very quiet for a few seconds. "What did you give your mamma for Christmas?" she asked. "The Axminster rug for the parlor," both girls quickly answered. "Papa gives us a dollar every month for our bank, to be kept just for a Christmas gift for mamma, and then he adds to it for what is wanted."

"Yes'm," quietly answered Aunt Betty. "And the Christmas before?"
"A brass bed for the spare bedroom."
"Yes'm! And the Christmas before?" asked Aunt Betty again.
The girls hesitated a little, then, "A set of leather dining chairs, and a Morris chair for"—

"FOR THE DEAREST MOTHER EVER."

"Yes'm!" Aunt Betty's eyes snapped. "Who sits in the Morris chair?"
"Mamma put it in the library," Vera answered. "And papa sits in it and reads every evening and Sundays." Then they all thought Vera had gone crazy. She laughed, sang, jigged, and then with a hug she nearly upset Aunt Betty and said, "Girls, what silly folks we all have been!"

The girls left Aunt Betty an hour later, and Christmas was not mentioned in the Everly household, but the girls and their father looked unusually mysterious and happy.

Christmas morning dawned crisp and clear, the spirit of the day abounding everywhere.

Edna and Vera anxiously awaited their mother, having sent their father to bring her to their Christmas room, which they had trimmed up in evergreens and bells, after she had retired the evening before.

They met her with tender caresses and led her to a chair prepared purposely for her. Edna brought her gift, a beautiful collar of her own work, and pinned it on with a brooch, in which was her birthstone.

The mother drew the face of her first child to her and kissed her, a tear dropping on the upturned face.

Vera had quietly drawn near and laid a bundle of dark blue silk on her mother's lap. "For the dearest mother ever," she said as her mother drew her closely to her, sealing the precious words with a kiss.

Then father came forward and, taking her hand in his, said as he slipped his gift on her finger, "What I couldn't give the dear little woman when we started out together I give her now." The bewildered woman saw through fast falling tears a magnificent diamond sparkling on her hand.

"O-h," said Vera, "such a time as I've had keeping secrets!"

"The happiest Christmas I've known for years," remarked Mr. Everly.

"Me, too," exclaimed Alice Milner. "I tried to have some one let me in with my little gift for the queen of the household, and no one heeded my call, so I came anyway." And a lovely comb was added to her presents.

"This is what Christmas means; give to each for their own." And Edna started the ball rolling for a general Christmas frolic.

A Wonderful Tonic That Aids Digestion

Thousands are unable to digest certain kinds of food. In most cases it is not the fault of the food, nor the stomach. It is probable that the stomach has been abused. Many resort to pre-digested foods and various kinds of medicines to get relief from dyspepsia, indigestion and heartburn, but without permanent benefit.

If your stomach was in perfect condition, you would not need medicine to digest the foods you eat. Jayne's Tonic Vermifuge is a stomach regulator. It gets the stomach in such a condition that it will digest food without other assistance. It overcomes the acidity and stimulates the coating of the stomach and intestines so that they will properly absorb and assimilate the nutriment from the food eaten. Sufferers from dyspepsia and indigestion will find permanent relief in a short time after beginning the use of the tonic. For children, the addition of a little sugar will make it most palatable.

Many forms of supposed indigestion are the result of intestinal parasites, for which Jayne's Tonic Vermifuge is unsurpassed. Insist upon Jayne's; accept no other. Millions have praised it for more than eighty years. Sold by druggists everywhere. Dr. D. Jayne & Son, Philadelphia, Pa.
