LOCAL NOTES

BORN.

JACKSON—To Mr. and Mrs. Curtis Jackson at their home in Seattle, Nov. 21, a son. Mrs. Jackson will be remembered as Miss Francis Jarvis.

Get Many Ducks.—Jake and William Hillstrom went to the Sand Hill yesterday and brought home 47 ducks.

Get New Devices.—The Pioneer Hardware Co. has installed an adding and bookkeeping machine and a photostatic machine in their office.

Wants Fight.—A Portland paper says that Bud Anderson and his manager, Dick McDonald, have posted a $1000 forfeit for a bout with Willie Hoppe, Burns or Wolgast. Anderson is hunting near Medford. He is well known on the Bay having fought here a few times.

For Postmaster.—It is reported that George N. Bolt is a likely candidate for the Democratic appointment as postmaster in Marshfield. Mr. Bolt's appointment will expire in a couple of years. Mr. Bolt has been a consistent life-long Democrat and is well qualified for the place.

Left Yesterday.—Judge Hall, Henry Songstacken and James Watson left last night via the Coos Bay wagon road for Portland where they will be witnesses in the Herrmann case. They had planned to go on the Breakwater, but changed when that vessel was unable to sail yesterday.

Name Candidates.—Homer Mauzey and Jerry Kinney are the two nominees for the presidency of the Marshfield Fire department for the ensuing year. The election will take place the first meeting in January. James Cowan, Jr., is the president this year. All of the nominations for the standing committee have not been made.

Girl Sent Away.—Phoebe Burroughs, the young daughter of Mrs. Burroughs of Libby, was sent to the Girls Home at Oswego, Oregon, today. She is almost incorrigible and badly frightened J. E. Fitzgerald and other Libby residents by drawing guns on them and her escapades caused much trouble for her mother. Finally the Sisters of Charity agreed to take her and see what they could do with her.

In Idaho Turnoff.—R. S. Sheridan, a brother of T. R. Sheridan of Roseburg and an uncle of Geo. Sheridan of North Bend, is one of the editors of the Boise Capital-News, who have been cited by the Idaho supreme court for contempt because the paper published Roosevelt's denunciation of the courts there for eliminating the Bull Moose electors from the ticket in November. Mr. Sheridan is slightly known on the Bay.

In Postoffice.—Miss Josephine Griffin, who for the past several years has been the principal of the North Bend school has resigned and has taken a position in the Marshfield postoffice. Her former position will be occupied for the present by Rev. Albert Hisey of North Bend.

Leave Tomorrow.—The passenger list for the outgoing trip of the Drain-Gardiner stage tomorrow contains the following: C. D. Gabrielson, Lee Craven, E. W. Rines, I. H. Lara, Mr. and Mrs. Irwin, A. J. Dreece, Mrs. Vedder, J. M. White, T. J. Seeley and son, D. Barnard, I. C. Smith.

Divorce Case.—The Machado divorce case from Myrtle Point is being hard fought in circuit court at Coquille, some very racy testimony being given. Mr. Machado is one of the wealthiest and best known residents of the valley. About a year ago he married a widow, a Mrs. Yoakam. Each is suing for a divorce.

Caused Alarm.—Mr. and Mrs. Rickers, Mrs. J. E. Stevens and Mrs. Wm. Ingram of Plat B caused considerable alarm at their homes Sunday night, owing to their failure to return from a boat trip to Coos river. They telephoned at 5 o'clock that they were starting for home. When they failed to arrive at 8 o'clock a searching party was organized and spent all night looking for them. They arrived home about noon, having been compelled to return to the home of friends on Coos river, owing to the lower Bay being too rough for their boat. The phone line was down and they could not send word of their change in plans.

AMONG THE SICK.

Miss Margaret Fox, who has been ill at Mercy hospital for some time, is improving and will soon be able to leave.

Mrs. L. R. Dean is reported as much improved today.

The family of I. E. Johnson are confined to their home on South Fifth street with the la grippe.

Miss Lucy Powers, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Powers, last evening underwent an operation for appendicitis at Mercy hospital. The operation was very successful and she was reported to be getting along nicely today, much to the gratification of her many friends.

NORTH INLET NEWS.

Mrs. B. S. Savage and son, Harold, have moved to Ferndale, and the house which they formerly occupied here is now occupied by Mr. and Mrs. Streech of Charlotetown, Prince Edward Island. Mrs. Streech is a sister of Mrs. W. J. Howard. W. J. Howard has completed the painting of his new residence. Reuben Lyon has received a new piano. Captain Galloway of the launch North Star, has brought lumber and will soon begin the erection of a new residence. Mrs. Emily O. McFarlan has returned to her home here from a several days' visit with Mrs. Hilborn of Millicoma. Mrs. R. R. Pinkerton was shopping in Marshfield Tuesday. The weekly cottage prayer meeting was held at the home of Mr. Charles Hamilton last Sunday.
