OLD TITOWAD

—BY— BOB STANLEY

Old Titowad sits beside his fire. He has no want, wish, or desire. His fat frame's comfortably inclined in Morris chair that's leather lined. He's donned his evening lounging clothes. A languid feeling on his brows. He has a sense of joy and bliss that won't be broken by a kiss from any smiling, noisy child that drives men like Old Titowad wild when at the hours of Christmas Eve, they must shell out, and make believe there lives a good, unselfish Saint who visits all, with no complaint about each long and weary mile he's traveled to, with gifts, beguile. Old Titowad has no gifts to buy for no small shoes and stockings lie about his warm and silent den, left there by Nellie, Tom, and Ben. He knows that at the coming dawn no husky boy will try his brawn upon the head of martial drum, and 'waken him from dreams to come. He smiles when thinking how he's saved the coin for which long years he's slaved, and how by quiet he is blest while other men have broken rest.

Old Titowad, can't you see your's wrong without the cheer of childhood's song that comes to one at Christmas Eve who plays the part of "Make Believe?" And, don't you miss the screams of joy when little hands unroll each toy that good, old Santa Claus has placed in children's stockings, and effaced the childish fears of night before, that kind Saint Nick might pass their door? And don't you ever long and sigh for childhood's "Merry Christmas" cry?

Oh! Titowad, be for once a man. Go scatter joy where'er you can. With open purse, bring happiness, and have tonight no selfishness.

LABOR AND CAPITAL.

Taft Names Commission to Investigate Their Relations.

(By Associated Press to Coos Bay Times.) WASHINGTON, Dec. 18.—President Taft has sent to the Senate the nominations of nine members of the industrial commission created by Congress to investigate the relations between labor and capital.

Dr. Wm. Sadler, author of "The Cause and Cure of Colds," says that common colds should be taken seriously, especially when they "hang on." Foley's Honey and Tar Compound is a reliable household medicine for coughs and colds equally effective for children and grown persons. Take it when you feel a cold coming on. It will avert danger of serious results and cure quickly. No harmful drugs. For sale by Lockhart-Parsons Drug Co., the Busy Corner.

SAGE TEA WILL DARKEN HAIR

Restore Faded and Gray Hair to Natural Color; Dandruff Quickly Removed.

There is nothing new about the idea of using Sage for restoring the color of the hair. Our grandmothers kept their hair dark, glossy and abundant by the use of a simple "sage tea." Whenever their hair fell out or took on a dull, faded or streaked appearance, they made a brew of sage leaves, and applied it to their hair with wonderfully beneficial effect.

Nowadays we don't have to resort to the old-time tiresome method gathering the herbs and making the tea. This is done by skillful chemists better than we could do it ourselves; and all we have to do is to call for the ready-made product, Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Hair Remedy, containing sage in the proper strength, with the addition of sulphur, another old-time scalp remedy.

This preparation gives youthful color and beauty to the hair, and is one of the best remedies you can use for dandruff, dry, feverish, itching scalp, and falling hair. Get a 50 cent bottle from your druggist today, and you will be surprised at the quick results. All druggists sell it, under guarantee that the money will be refunded if the remedy is not exactly as represented.
