Services Sunday.—Rev. G. Hall will conduct services at Mozier's Chapel on Daniels Creek, Sunday morning at 11 o'clock.

Move Office.—Bentley & Jones are moving their insurance office from the Sengstacken building on Broadway to the room on Front street recently vacated by the Fashion Tailor Shop.

Christmas Programs.—Christmas programs or exhibits of the school work will be given in many of the rooms of the Marshfield public school.

FOUND.—Yesterday—Two keys on a ring. Owner may have same by paying for this ad at Times office.

FOR SALE.—Good paying restaurant in nearby town. Address Z, care Times.

WANTED.—Man to act as runner for small hotel. Apply Times office.

schools tomorrow afternoon. The schools will close tomorrow for the Christmas holidays.

Injures Leg.—J. C. Hacker, a scaler employed by the Smith-Powers Logging Co., received a bad wound yesterday by falling against a saw and severely cutting one of his legs. It will be some time before Mr. Hacker is able to return to his work.

Postpone Dance.—The Fortnightly Club's dance, which was to have been held this evening at the Eagles' hall has been postponed until after Christmas, owing to the illness of a number of members of the club. The postponed date will be announced later.

Is in Bavaria.—Mr. and Mrs. Tom Coke yesterday received a Christmas card from James Grant Ferguson, who is now in Munchen, Bavaria, where he is taking a post-graduate course. Mr. Ferguson was formerly principal of the Marshfield high school.

Leave Tomorrow.—The following passengers are listed to leave Friday morning by the Drain-Gardner stage: Mrs. Brown, W. B. Holdmann, A. Nelson, N. B. Schulz, Henry Rohbach, E. B. Gray, Mrs. Dagget, W. H. Kennedy, Mrs. F. D. Brown, H. E. Baultmann, G. R. Tremblay and E. Groves.

Locates Here.—Dr. Morris C. Robins, who recently arrived from Spokane, has rented offices in the Lockhart building and will locate in Marshfield. Dr. Robins family, who are spending the winter in California, will arrive on the Bay in the early spring. Dr. Robins has been practicing in Spokane for nine years.

No Gun Play.—J. E. Fitzgerald states that the report that Phoebe Burroughs had threatened him with a gun was erroneous. He did not know about the gun play, but said that the girl was difficult to handle and he assisted the mother in placing her in the girl's home at Oswego, Oregon. Mr. Fitzgerald's name was connected with stories at Libby about the girl having been "toting" a gun around.

Expect Decision.—It is possible that Judge Coke may hand down a decision in the Machado divorce case next Monday, unless some supplemental arguments are filed. In all about thirty witnesses gave testimony during the trial, which is said to be longest divorce case ever tried in Coos County, lasting four days. Mr. Machado had seventeen witnesses and she had over a dozen. Some of the spiciest and most salacious evidence ever heard in the local courts was given. This is Mrs. Machado's third venture in matrimony, John Yoakam being her first husband.

Is in Colfax.—Geo. McCutcheon of Marshfield who recently went south for the benefit of his health is now at a sanitarium in Colfax, Cal. A physician who has examined him states that his trouble is tuberculosis, but Mr. McCutcheon's many friends here are hoping that he will find relief and a cure. Yesterday, a number of his friends united in a long serial letter to him.
