LOCAL NOTES

TIDES FOR DECEMBER.

Below is given the time and height of high and low water at Marshfield.

The tides are placed in the order of occurrence, with their times on the first line and heights on the second line of each day; a comparison on consecutive heights will indicate whether it is high or low water. For high water on the bar, subtract 2 hours 34 minutes.

Gets Homestead—Wm. Covey was in from Cooston yesterday to make final proof on his homestead near there.

Plan Banquet—Tom Hall and D. L. Rood have been appointed a committee to arrange for a big banquet, which will mark the annual installation of officers of Myrtle Lodge, K. of P.

Wed Here—Justice Penneck this week officiated at the marriage of Alex Stonlake and Miss Elizabeth A. Steinleschner, two well known Ten Mile people. They will reside at Ten Mile.

Siestroom Loses Case—Word has been received that the Land Department has ruled against Chas. Siestroom's contest of Bruno Korn's homestead at Ten Mile. The two were squabbling over a tract lying between their ranches. Siestroom made the first entry, but it was rejected because he had too much land. Then he deeded some of his land to his daughter, but provided in the deed that he should retain a life in-

WEATHER FORECAST.

OREGON—Generally fair tonight and Sunday. Easterly winds.

LOCAL TEMPERATURE RECORD.

For the 24 hours ending at 4:43 a. m., Dec. 21, by Benj. Ostlund, special government meteorological observer:
 Maximum 50
 Minimum 27
 At 4:43 a. m. 30
 Precipitation none
 Wind—North; clear.

erest init. The Department held this insufficient and has overruled his contest of Korn's entry, which was made after Siestroom's first entry was rejected. While Korn's has not received a patent it is expected he will. The case has been the center of interest at Ten Mile for some time.

Mother Dead—Word has been received in Marshfield of the death of the mother of Miss Gertrude Wilcox of Portland. Miss Wilcox will be remembered by many as she visited on the last Summer, as the guest of Mrs. Elizabeth Adams and Miss Mamie Mahoney.

See Seal—Yesterday D. Y. Stafford, H. S. Tower and a number of others witnessed the unusual sight of a seal in the upper bay. The seal was a large one and was feeding and playing in the bay, opposite the Market avenue wharf. He was a large one. It is very seldom that a seal ventures to the upper bay.

Buy Barber Shop—It is announced that Messrs. Hullin and Busby, who have been conducting a front street barber shop, have purchased the Golden Oak Shop, which C. A. Hunter formerly conducted. They will probably operate both shops until the first of the year, when the two will probably be consolidated in the Golden Oak shop location.

New Home—Ned Galloway has commenced the construction of a handsome new bungalow 28 by 44 at Ten Mile. A good joke is being told on him, to the effect that he purchased a new tape line and measured the timbers with it, but when he came to fit them in the building the timbers were about four inches short and an examination of the tape line proved it to be short that much.

Warrant Issued—Fred Klantschy yesterday swore out a warrant in Justice Penneck's court for the arrest of Frank Bennett on the charge of larceny of a shot gun. It seems that the two men were employed at the Smith mill. Klantschy bought Bennett's boathouse. Bennett left recently for Portland, and when he took his belongings Klantschy claims he took a brand new shotgun, worth $23, which Klantschy had just bought. The warrant has been sent to Portland.
