And danced along in glee,

When Santa Claus came leading in The Living Christmas Tree.

CHRISTMAS DAY MUSIC AT MARSHFIELD CHURCHES

Plans Made for Fine Service in Observation of Christmas in Marshfield.

SPiRiT OF THE SEASON.

There is something in the air,
In the sunlight, moonlight,
star
Drifting over heaven's bar,
Coming closer to our living unaware;
Something gentler in our speech
In the vision growing clear,
Something on the quickened
ear,
That the lesson giver strives in vain to reach.
Fancy? Well, then be it so:
Let us not be otherwise
And attempt to analyze Things we never, never can begin to know;
Just give out our little store;
Love to kindred—all are kin
And the Christmas spirit win
To leave a three-fold blessing at our door.

Good Will

The officers of the OREGON POWER COMPANY extend Christmas greetings to the people of this community, most of whom they have the honor to serve. They welcome the opportunity to thank the public for its patronage and hospitable consideration, and to express the hope that the spirit of this thoughtful season will permeate our mutual interests always.

APPEALS TO JURY.
Organized Labor Defended at Dynamite Conspiracy Trial.
[By Associated Press to Coos Bay Times.]
INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., Dec. 23.—"Organized labor never did and never will approve such a nation wide reign of violence and terrorism as that charged here," asserted Clifford Langdale, arguing to the jury in the dynamite conspiracy trial today. Langdale spoke particularly in behalf of W. Bert Brown and William J. McCain of Kansas City, Mo.
