BORN.

HAAS—To Mr. and Mrs. O. A. Haas at their home on South Sixth street Tuesday, December 24, a daughter. Mr. Haas is a mail carrier in Marshfield and while he has been delivering Christmas presents to many homes he serves, the stork beat him to his home with the finest present of them all. Today he would not trade places with Santa Claus.

Merry Christmas
New Home—James Wall is moving into his new home on 14th and Commercial Sts. today.

Puts in Phone.—Justice Pennock has installed a telephone in his office as a convenience to litigants and their attorneys and himself.

No Bridge News.—No word has been received from Washington yet as to the War Department's action on the Southern Pacific's application for permission to bridge the Bay. No reason for the delay has been assigned.

Highest Bidder.—W. E. Hoagland of the firm of Conner & Hoagland was the highest bidder Saturday on the Blanchard livery, sold by Trustee Weistand. The sale is subject to the confirmation of the court.

Open Bar.—It is announced that Messrs. Lawler and Weber, the new proprietors of the Arago hotel at Empire, have secured a liquor license and will soon open a buffet in connection with the hostelry.

Business College.—A. E. Stossmeier who conducts business colleges at Livingston, Mont., and Astoria is in Marshfield looking this section over with a view of opening a branch here.

Rig Overturns.—A delivery rig of the Warner Grocery Company overturned in West Marshfield yesterday, the horse backing the vehicle up a steep embankment. Christmas packages were scattered but the damage was slight.

Forms New Company.—H. J. Vaughan of Walla Walla, Wash., has arrived here to take charge of the A. B. Daly logging supply business, which Mr. Vaughan and some associates have taken over. The name of the new company which will assume charge of the business January 1 has not been determined upon yet. Mr. Daly will then leave for California to join his family and locate there.

Who Got the Duck?—This is the question that is perplexing John D. Goss, who returned yesterday from an over Sunday hunt with W. N. Ekblad and others at Beale Lake. Prior to the hunt, there was more or less speculation as to who would bag the most game. This finally resulted in W. N. Ekblad waging Goss $5 that he would get more ducks than Goss. Late Sunday afternoon Goss came into the cabin with five and he was elated when he saw Ekblad's string of four hanging on the wall. He laid his five on the bench outside and went in to twit Ekblad and collect his five. After more or less parley it came to a show down and Goss strode forth confident of victory. Behold his chagrin when he found only four ducks on the bench where he had placed five. He has not been able to ascertain where it disappeared to but thinks one of the dogs carried it off. And meanwhile Ekblad is holding onto his five for lack of positive evidence that Goss really beat him.

Wed in Coquille.—Mr. and Mrs. Cal Langworthy leave Tuesday for Coquille to attend the wedding of Miss Mary Hurley to Sherman Hufford, both of Coquille. The wedding will be a quiet one and the ceremony will be performed at the home of the groom's parents. Miss Hurley is a sister of Mrs. Langworthy.

Ferry Service.—Tomorrow, the Marshfield-Eastside ferry will run on Sunday schedule, with the exception that the 12:30 trip will be omitted.

Bar Rough.—The Coos Bay bar was very rough today and the steamer Washington was not able to sail for San Francisco as was expected.

For Deserter.—Sergeant Bully of the Vancouver barracks arrived today to take Peter Thoreby, the deserter arrested here, back with him tonight.

Postoffice Tomorrow.—Postmaster Curtis stated that the postoffice would be open for an hour or so after the arrival of the mail tomorrow to permit the distribution and delivery of Christmas packages.

Return Today.—Johnnie Thomson, the young son of J. P. Thomsen, the Isthmus Inlet rancher, who recently died at St. Louis, returned today. Thomsen's funeral was held in Newport, Wash. The lad has improved somewhat. He was accompanied by his uncle, Aug. Henningson.

Looses Slothes.—W. Emmerson, a brakeman at Smith-Powers Camp No. 6, was before Justice Pennock today to secure a warrant for a tailor named Douglas. Emmerson claims he left a good suit of clothes with Douglas to be repaired and that when he came to town today, he found Douglas had left for Mexico, and his clothes were gone. He will probably appeal to Deputy Prosecuting Attorney Liljeqvist to have Douglas brought back.

Wedding Announcements.—Wedding announcements were received here today of the marriage of Jonathan Wiseman Motley and Miss Ermine A. Shrewsbury, which was solemnized at the home of the parents of the bride, Mr. and Mrs. E. O. Shrewsbury at Osceola, Mo., December 16. They will be at home in Marshfield after January 1. They are expected here on the next Breakwater. Mr. Motley's many Marshfield friends will unite in welcoming the newly-weds.

SEE THE ELKS PARADE
at the 1912 reunion in Portland at the Orpheum tonight. Special pictures taken for Pathe's Weekly. Many other fine scenes. Don't miss them.
