

Marshfield Business College Day and Night School

A modern, representative, broad-gauge business efficiency school will be opened here January 19.

Every subject offered in the leading Eastern schools will be presented by a capable faculty of business educators. Men and Women with literary-classical education, as well as business training and broad experience.

Actual business from start to finish is the modern demand. Learn by doing.

School will be supplied with Burroughs and other adding machines, the latest model typewriters, writerpress, a tabulating-adding-subtracting typewriter-billing machine, neostyle, dictaphone, filing and indexing cabinets, etc., etc.

Places for first 50 graduates even now in evidence, so great is the present demand for trained help—and bigger things are coming.

Railroad Workmen—Twenty-eight laborers arrived this morning on the Redondo this morning for Willet and Burr.

Will Give Dance—The postponed dance of the Fortnightly Club will be given Saturday evening, December 28, at the Eagles' Hall.

Fine Band Dance—The band dance at the Eagles hall Christmas night was the most successful ever held, 141 tickets being sold. The music was fine, the floor good and the crowd congenial and everyone enjoyed themselves immensely.

Father Dead—Mr. Jones of the Bentley & Jones yesterday received a telegram announcing the death of his father at the old home in Eagle Grove Iowa. While the news was not unexpected, it cast a gloom over his Christmas. Owing to the great distance, he will not be able to return home for the funeral.

Wed in Coquille—Miss Margaret Longston, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Longston of Coquille, and Nathan Neiman, a well known Coquille abstractor, were married at the home of the bride's parents yesterday, the Rev. G. LeRoy Hall of Marshfield officiating. Only a few intimate friends were in attendance.

Loggers in Trouble—H. Byles, a logger from Tarheel, and Charles Swanson, a fisherman, were fined $5 apiece today by Recorder Butler for drunkenness and fighting. Swanson got an awful jolt in the jaw and a black eye. It was first reported that his jaw had been broken. Aside from this there was comparatively little trouble, despite the many Christmas "jags."

Attend Services—The special Christmas services in the Marshfield churches, including the Christmas tree festivities, were largely attended. The midnight mass at St. Monica's Catholic church drew a crowd that more than filled the church, many standing outside to listen to the excellent special music. The church was prettily decorated and a flashlight picture was taken of the interior.

Mrs. Stafford Injured—Mrs. D. Y. Stafford was quite severely burned at their home at the corner of North Second and Commercial streets yesterday morning, while preparing their Christmas dinner. A pan of grease on the stove for making French fried potatoes caught afire. Mrs. Stafford picked it up and started to the door to throw it out. She slipped and fell and the hot grease struck her arms and face. Her hair caught fire and was slightly burned. The injuries are very painful, but not serious.

Ripe Raspberries—The pleasantness and possibilities of the Coos Bay climate were practically demonstrated by J. Albert Matson, when on Christmas he picked sufficient ripe raspberries from a bush in his yard in West Marshfield for the Christmas feast. The Times has frequently dilated on the Coos Bay climate, but nothing can be written that tells the story so forcefully as this pleasant incident. While the mid-west and east were shivering in the blasts of a blizzard, Coos Bayites were reveling in roses and raspberries. Those scientists who are devoting much time and research to locate the original garden of Eden should visit Coos Bay.

"What Happened to Mary."
The third of this great series will be shown at the Orpheum Friday night and is entitled "Mary in Stageland." Don't miss it, as Manager Keller says it is one of the best in this series, which has made such a hit with theatergoers.

CROUPY COUGHS AND WHEEZY COLDS.

The quickest, simplest way to rid the children of dangerous croupy coughs and wheezy stuffy colds is to give them Foley's Honey and Tar Compound. It gives almost instant relief and stops a cough promptly. It soothes and heals. Contains no opiates. For sale by Lockhart-Parsons Drug Co., the Busk Corner.

BREAKWATER IN EARLY TODAY

Capt. H. C. Nelson in Command in Place of Capt. Macgenn.

The Breakwater arrived in today from Portland with Capt. H. C. Nelson, formerly of the Nann Smith and M. F. Plant, in command, in place of Capt. T. J. Macgenn, who has gone to San Francisco preliminary to his trip to Washington in behalf of the Coos Bay Jetty project. Capt. Nelson was warmly welcomed by his many friends on the Bay.

The Breakwater had a rather light cargo of freight, the holidays interfering with the regular run of business. There was a Ford automobile on her for George Goodrum.

TWO VESSELS IN FROM SOUTH

Redondo and Speedwell Arrive from San Francisco—Light Passenger Traffic.

The Redondo arrived in today from San Francisco with about 200 tons of miscellaneous freight. She had a good trip up the coast. She brought 31 workmen for Willet & Burr, the contractors building the Smith-Powers line beyond Myrtle Point, but no other passengers. She will sail from here at 1 o'clock for San Francisco.

The Speedwell arrived in about 11 o'clock last evening from San Francisco. She had a fair passenger list and about 100 tons of miscellaneous freight. The Speedwell is loading at North Bend and will sail at 1 o'clock Saturday for San Francisco.

ALONG THE WATERFRONT

Capt. Mellburg of the Orgeln, who has been coming to this port for eight years (first as master of the schooner C. P. Hill, and later of the Oregon, recently laid off a voyage and took unto himself a wife. We have not learned the name of the fortunate lady.—Bandon World.

A public hearing will be held at Florence, Or., on January 8, before Captain H. H. Robert, corps of engineers of the United States Army, in regard to the establishing of harbor lines in the Siuslaw river there.

The Rustler, which returned the first of the week from Rogue River, is loading with general merchandise for the Siuslaw.

The schooner Coquille will be towed here in a day or two from Bandon to load with general merchandise for the Siuslaw, there being a big accumulation of it here.

Cox Family Reunion.
A family reunion and Christmas dinner was given at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Cox on Christmas day, all the children and grand children being present for the first time in seven years.

this morning after a few days spent in Marshfield.

MRS. W. E. BEST returned today from a visit in California.

D. C. GREENE and wife left via Drain Christmas eve for an extended Eastern trip.

MRS. CLAUDE HOCKETT of Empire expects to leave in a few days for California to visit with friends.

GEORGE HAINES returned last evening from San Francisco to spend the holidays with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. T. Haines.
