

Men's Shoes

In our exclusive Men's Shoe department we are showing the most up-to-date line of Men's Footwear

We are sole agents for
Selz Royal Blue
$3.50 to $5.00
Florsheim Shoes
$5.00 to $6.00

"Hunkidori" Chippewa High Tops for Loggers

Woolen Mill Store

Men's Outfitters.

We Are In Business to Fill Your Prescriptions

and we fill them right.
Standard Drugs and Chemicals of highest purity are used in our prescription department. Every prescription is twice checked before delivered.

PRICES ALWAYS RIGHT

Lockhart-Parsons Drug Co.

"THE BUSY CORNER"

PHONE MAIN 298 US

STATEMENT OF CONDITION

of

FLANAGAN & BENNETT BANK

MARSHFIELD, OREGON
ESTABLISHED 1889.

At the close of business, November 26, 1912.

RESOURCES.

Loans and Discounts.....$483,557.13
Banking House.....50,000.00
Cash and Sight Exchange.....263,899.96

Total.....$797,457.09

LIABILITIES.

Capital Stock paid in.....$ 50,000.00
Surplus and Undivided Profits.....64,989.75
Deposits.....682,467.34

Total.....$797,457.09

The First National Bank Of Coos Bay

Announces

It's 1913 Calendar
Is Ready for Distribution
Among Its Customers

Fisher Auto Service

A modern brick building, Electric Light, Steam Heat. Elegantly furnished rooms with hot and cold water.

HOTEL COOS
C. A. Metlin, Prop.
Rates: 50 cents a day and upwards
Cor. Broadway and Market

ALL KINDS OF JOB PRINTING DONE AT THE TIMES' OFFICE

LOCAL NOTES

TIDES FOR DECEMBER.

Below is given the time and height of high and low water at Marshfield.

The tides are placed in the order of occurrence, with their times on the first line and heights on the second line of each day; a comparison on consecutive heights will indicate whether it is high or low water. For high water on the bar, subtract 2 hours 34 minutes.

30 Hrs.	0.47	7.46	1.43	8.61
Ft.	0.3	6.0	1.8	4.5
31 Hrs.	1.41	8.39	2.55	9.21
Ft.	1.1	6.0	1.4	4.1

LOCAL TEMPERATURE RECORD.

For the 24 hours ending at 4:43 a. m., Dec. 30, by Benj. Ostlund, special government meteorological observer:

Maximum	54
Minimum	41
At 4:43 a. m.	41
Precipitation	.41

Wind: Southwest; rainy.

BORN.

BROWNING—To Rev. and Mrs. Robert Evans Browning, Monday, December 30, a daughter. Mother and child are doing nicely and the Rev. Mr. Browning who is pastor of the Marshfield Episcopal Church is elated over his New Year's gift. The many friends of the couple will unite in congratulations to the worthy couple over the arrival of their second child.

New Home—Capt. Ned Galloway is building a fine new dwelling on his North Inlet ranch.

Leave on Stage—H. Winter, Mr. Sheppard and Mr. Davis will be outgoing passengers on the Drain-Gardiner stage tomorrow morning.

Meet Next Week—The next meeting of the A. N. W. Club will be held Thursday, January 9, with Mrs. Eugene O'Connell. No meeting will be held this week.

Meet Next Week—The Woman's Auxiliary of the Episcopal Church will meet with Mrs. J. Albert Matson on Tuesday, Jan. 7th, and not tomorrow, as was announced by mistake.

Parties This Week—Mrs. J. H. Flanagan will entertain at bridge luncheon Thursday and Friday afternoons, the guests Thursday afternoon being friends north of Market Avenue and Friday afternoon those living south of there.

Watch Party—The Young People's Unions of the various Marshfield Protestant churches will unite in a watch party and social on New Year's eve at the First Baptist church. Refreshments will be served and a good time is anticipated.

Wed Tomorrow—Michael Burk, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Burk of Marshfield, and Vera Billings, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Stephen Billings of Myrtle Point, will be married tomorrow morning at 7 o'clock at St. Monica's church, the Rev. Father Munro officiating.

Gets Logs Out—Today the large supply of logs in Hoek's camp at Smith's Basin are being got out. South Coos River was pretty well filled at several points with them and boats had difficulty in getting through. The logs go to the Simpson Lumber Company.

Council Tonight—The Marshfield city council will meet tonight. City Engineer Gidley expects to submit a report on the streets, which he thinks should be hard-surfaced during the coming year. South Broadway will be one of the number. Other municipal matters will come up.

Will Build—E. B. Curtis and wife, after a visit at the home of his brother Postmaster Curtis, left today for North Bend, where they have rented a house and will make their home for the present. Mr. Curtis owns some Plat B property, which he will begin to improve immediately and will erect a new residence thereon at once.

New Year Party—The Millicoma club will hold a New Year's party tomorrow evening at the club rooms. Fun and frolic will reign, the members being commanded to appear properly disguised with sheets and pillow cases. The invitations are limited to members and their lady friends, out of town members holding cards to the club of course being included.

Installing officers—At the joint installation of Blanco Lodge and Doric Chapter, Order of Eastern Star, Friday evening, E. S. Bargelt acted as the installing officer of the Masons and Mrs. Lando as the installing officer of the Eastern Star. A pleasing feature of the program was a solo by Mrs. E. L. Robinson, accompanied by Mrs. Carl W. Everson. The sumptuous banquet was prepared by the Past Worthy Matrons' Association. Among those who responded to impromptu toasts were: L. A. Whereat, A. J. Savage, C. H. Marsh, Mrs. E. Kelley, Mrs. S. Lando, Mrs. J. T. Hall.

Wanted—Men to take contract to slash small alder, Chas. Barrett, El Creo Ranch, Haynes Inlet.

Wanted—The parties who plundered the boat Teddy to replace the steering wheel at once and avoid further trouble. A. H. Stutsman.

Wanted—Carrier boys to deliver The Times. Must be 12 years old or over and in Fourth grade or higher at school. Apply at Times office after 4 o'clock.

For Sale—Cheap, if taken at once, saddle horse. Can be driven. Inquire Horse, care Times.

For Sale—Old newspapers; a big bundle for a nickel. Just the thing to start fires with.

For Sale—Dry wood, fir and alder, at Campbell's Wood Yard, Ferry landing. Phone 158-L.

Umbrellas Covered
Marshfield Cyclery
Dayton Agents,
Phone 158-R 172 Broadway

SOCIAL CALENDAR.

TUESDAY.

Young People's Societies unite in New Year's watch party.

Watch Party—The Ladies Aid Society of the Norwegian-Lutheran Church will give a Lute-fish supper at the church Tuesday evening from 8 to 10 o'clock, and following this, the young people of the church will unite in a "Watch Party".

Recovers Book—Through the medium of a Found ad in The Times, N. Hokanson recovered a bill and memorandum book which he had lost. The article was found by a young boy named Anderson, who brought it to The Times office and had it advertised. Mr. Hokanson, who is now employed at August Frizeen's store, saw the ad and promptly claimed his property.

Bandon Lighthouse—G. R. Putnam, commissioner of lighthouses, in his annual report recommends an appropriation of $4000 for the lighthouses at the Coquille river. This is presumed to be for moving the lighthouse at Bandon, which was advocated by owners and masters of vessels and also by the Bandon Commercial Club. It is expected that the appropriation will be made at this session of congress.

Boys Bother—Boys on roller skates are causing considerable bother in the down town district, endangering pedestrians on the sidewalks and also endangering themselves by getting in the way of autos. Several narrow escapes are reported and Marshal Carter or the city council may take action to prevent the lads from using the down town streets for their pleasure.

Is Recuperating—Mrs. Sarah Wilson has received word that her daughter, Miss Spence, who recently underwent an operation in San Francisco, is slowly recuperating. During her illness Miss Wilson lost over forty pounds and is able to sit up only part of the time. She is now staying at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Carey at 643 Cole street, San Francisco. It will be some time before she is able to return to the Bay.

Church Meetings—Tomorrow night, New Year's eve, the Marshfield Swedish Lutheran church congregation will have a "watch party" at the church. Thursday evening the annual meeting of the congregation will be held and the annual reports of the different organizations presented and new officers elected for the ensuing year. Friday afternoon at 2:30, the Ladies Aid society of the church will meet in the church hall.

Recovers Brooch—Mrs. B. R. Keller of the Orpheum theater is the latest one made happy by the successful results of The Times want ads. On Thursday she inserted a lost ad in the column for a gold brooch which was lost on Christmas eve. Warner Ogren found the pin and upon reading the ad made the fact known at the Times office. Mrs. Keller was informed about it and expressed herself as being very happy over the result of the ad.

AMONG THE SICK.

The Drain Nonparell says: "Leo Remington, a son of Harley Remington, who was injured at Marshfield about a month ago and who was taken to a Portland hospital for treatment, is spending the holidays with his father."

Mrs. R. P. Harrington is quite ill at her home on South Fifth street.

Miss Eugenia Schilling, who is suffering from an attack of acute appendicitis at the Myrtle Point hospital, is reported much better today. It was stated that an operation will not be necessary.

Gus Engblum of Empire is in Marshfield to receive medical treatment.

Lee Webster, who has been confined at Mercy hospital for a few weeks for an operation is getting along nicely and will be able to return home soon.

Miss Lucy Powers, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Powers, who recently underwent an operation at Mercy hospital for appendicitis, will be able to return home some time this week probably.

The little child of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Bickford of Daniels Creek underwent an operation at Mercy hospital today for tuberculosis of the spine.

Stephen Lapp, who recently underwent an operation at Mercy hospital, is getting along nicely. He is 78 years old.

Mrs. J. C. Mahoney is reported as doing nicely at Mercy hospital today.

Mrs. A. Horton of Eastside was able to return home today from Mercy hospital, where she recently underwent an operation.

DR. E. F. WINKLER has returned and is now open for business in the front rooms OVER 180 BROADWAY, opposite The Times office. SPECIALIST IN RHEUMATISM, APPENDICITIS, DISEASES OF THE STOMACH, BOWELS AND HEART. NO DRUGS AND NO KNIFE. CONSULTATION FREE.

WHERE EVERYBODY GOES

Orpheum Tonight

HOUSE OF THE PHOTOPLAY.
FOUR REELS, 4000 FEET—ALL REPEATERS—
Capt. Barnacle's Well—Full reel Vitagraph drama, including Van Dyke Brooke.
The Grandfather—1000 foot Edison drama by Bannister Merwin. Not soon forgotten.
Betty and the Roses—Feature Lubin comedy-drama, featuring Miss Ormi Hawley as Betty.
Pathe Weekly No. 31—The world's current events in pictures, showing incidents of the Elks' parade, in Portland, Oregon.
ESTABLISHED ADMISSION 10c. NEVER MORE

PERSONAL NOTES

ED NOAH of North Coos River is in town today.

FRANK PIERCE of Lakeside is in town on business.

H. C. DIERS of North Bend is in town on business.

DAVE RICE of Daniels Creek is a town visitor today.

ANDREW ANDERSON is in town today from Lakeside.

CHARLES MATSON is a visitor from North Inlet today.

ROLLA PATTERSON of Empire is a Marshfield visitor today.

CHAS. DUNGAN of South Coos River is in town on business.

PETER GUILLIAMS of North Coos River is a town visitor today.

GEORGE ROOKE of North Coos River is a town visitor today.

SHERMAN CUTLIP of Daniels Creek is a town visitor today.

OSCAR JOHNSON of North Inlet was a Marshfield visitor today.

MRS. W. W. LADD of Ferndale was a Marshfield visitor today.

MISS HILDA OLSEN is in Marshfield today visiting from Lakeside.

MISS LULU HODSON of North Coos River is shopping in Marshfield today.

FRED NELSON returned from a business trip to South Inlet this morning.

W. P. MURPHY returned today from a business trip to Myrtle Point.

CARL ANDERSON of the Coos River creamery came to Marshfield this morning.

HILLIS SHORT is in town today from Lakeside, looking after business interests.

ALEX HAGLUND of Daniels Creek was in Marshfield today on business and pleasure.

HENRY MICHELBRINK has been down from his ranch above Allegany for a few days.

T. J. KOLSTAD and son, Arthur, are visitors in town today from their Coos River home.

W. F. M'ELDONNEY leaves tomorrow morning on the outgoing Drain stage for California.

CHARLES MAHAFFY, the North Coos River rancher, is a Marshfield business visitor today.

C. A. SEHLBREDE returned Saturday from a business trip to Portland, Salem and Roseburg.

FRED PLALP of Lakeside returned after a few days' visit in town.

MR. and MRS. W. C. Sellmer of Bandon arrived this afternoon for a visit with Robert Marsden, Jr., and family.

T. M. DIMMICK, the Coos county treasurer, came over from Coquille Saturday to visit friends and relatives.

MR. and MRS. STEPHEN ROGERS expect to leave in a week or so for Tucson, Ariz., where they will spend a few months.

MRS. LINDBERG of Port Orford is here for a short visit with her son, Ed. Lindberg, and other relatives and friends on the bay.

L. S. DOBLE will leave for Portland tomorrow, by Drain, after spending Christmas with his daughter, Mrs. Claud Nasburg.

MRS. CHARLES MYERS of Eureka, California, who is visiting at the W. M. Waters home on North Inlet, is a Marshfield visitor today.

J. BIASCA and wife of Coos River leave today for California in hopes of benefiting Mrs. Biasca's health. They will be absent several months probably.

HUGO KOTKA of Beaver Hill was in Marshfield today on business. He reports that they are making fair progress in driving the slope of the new mine.

A. M. SUMNER and wife returned to Bandon this morning after spending the holidays in Marshfield with their sons, Milo, Frank and Edwin Sumner.

ROBERT MARSDEN, Sr., who has been making an extended Eastern trip arrived in Portland last Thursday and after a short visit there will return here.

WILLIAM and ARCHIE MADDEN, Mrs. Tina Atkinson and Miss Pearl Atkinson are over New Year's guests at the William Wier home on Haynes Inlet.

L. W. JACOBS and wife and baby, who have been visiting at the home of Mrs. Jacob's parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Perry, left on the Breakwater for their home in Portland.

ARCHIE PHILLIPS was here from North Bend Saturday on business. It is understood that he has settled his suit for $50 against Right of Way Agent Marsh of the Southern Pacific.

C. J. Howard, local representative of the Folger Company, has returned from a month's trip to eastern and southern points. He came in overland and reports that the roads are in very bad condition.

ALONG THE WATERFRONT

Capt. Robert Jones, master of the tug Robert, is on the bay. The Robert towed the schooner Coquille in from the Sluslaw. Capt. Jones does not expect to get out before a week owing to the rough condition of the bar.

NEW YEAR'S BALL AT EAGLES' HALL, New Year's night, JAN. 1, 1913. KEYZER'S Orchestra.

KANTLEEK

Hot Water Bottles and Fountain Syringes cannot leak. See our windows.

LADIES

The Store for Quality Goods and Penstar Remedies.

BROWN DRUG CO.

GRADUATE CHEMISTS
27 Market Avenue, Marshfield, Oregon