Report That 35 Quit at Cop-enhagen Camp—I. W. W. Makes Statement.

Twenty-two men, who claimed to have struck at the Copenhagen railroad construction camp near Gardiner the day before yesterday, arrived here last night and today are in conference with some of the I. W. W., who have organized a branch here. They stated that thirteen others also quit work there, going out by way of

Sometime ago, Mr. Trembley of Co-penhagen Brothers, while in Marshfield, reported that they feared trouble with the I. W. W. at or near Gardiner and stated that they might be delayed somewhat by it. They had about sixty men at work a couple of

F. F. McKay, president and W. J. Edgeworth, secretary, of the local I. W. W. Union, today issued the following statement about the trouble at Gardiner:

"On the 29th of December, thirty-five men employed in the Copen-hagen camp on the Willamette and Pacific Railroad construction work struck for the following reasons.

"First, while the board being nothing more than the ordinary, in fact not as good as served in the logging camps in this vicinity, yet the men were being charged $1.00 a day for board. Thus when the men were laid off on a rainy day it would keep them in debt to the contractor, Second, the men were charged $.20 cents a day for the first five days for hospital fees, the hospital consists of a doctor's office in Gardiner, if a man were seriously injured the chances are he would probably die before he could be transported to the hospital. "Third, the wages were only $2.50 per day, and the men at work were up to their waist in mud, and that the tresties are very dangerous. For every three or four men they maintain a foreman, who might be called a slave driver.

"Fourth, the employment agents at Portland have misrepresented the conditions of the camp, telling them that it was one of the best camps in the country, also that springs and mattresses were furnished and that when they got off the boat at the company's landing that a rig would be there to take them to the camp, whereas the men had to alk from the landing three and one half miles to camp; the agent stated that the meals on the way would be twenty-five cents, whereas they were fifty

"Fifth, the commissary prices are something outrageous. Such as, a five cent package of Bull Durham tobacco ten cents, $7.00 pair of shoes, 9.00; twenty-five cent pair of socks, sixty cents, and other things in proportion. In one case a man who owed the contractor for two meals had a $45 roll of bedding and clothes held for the debt, in another, they demanded a man's coat in payment for his fare.

not condemn these strikers until they investigate the conditions in this The State Labor Commissioner should be asked to investigate. "News has reached us that Local 88 of the I. W. W. at Eugene have called out several hundred men on, strike at the other end of the road. "The demands are $3.00 for a nine hour day, better food and better bunk houses and better conditions around the camp.
