

Why Clothcraft Insured Clothes Cost No More Than Take-a-Chance Clothes

CLOTHCRAFT Clothes would be high priced if the makers had to use ordinary clothes-making methods.

But the Clothcraft organization through its 66 years' experience in good clothes-making has developed a system of scientific tailoring that, by simplifying operations and cutting out waste of effort and material, has greatly reduced the cost of making without sacrificing quality.

This improved science of clothes-making makes it possible to use expensive all-wool cloth and produce clothes that in style, fit and service would ordinarily lead you to believe were high priced. Yet Clothcraft Clothes cost you only $10 to $25.

On top of this, the results of Clothcraft Scientific Tailoring are so sure and efficient that the makers absolutely guarantee them to be disappointment proof—which means that they are insured for all wool, good tailoring, lasting shape, satisfactory wear and service.

Clothcraft Clothes wouldn't be a bad investment even at usual good clothes prices. At $10 to $25 you really can't afford to wait another day before at least investigating them. We are ready and waiting for you, and we'll be disappointed if we can't show you our fine line of Clothcraft Clothes for Fall and Winter. We know you will appreciate them.

house at 318 First street. He says that Coos Bay will be the mecca of many Idaho people as soon as the railroad is completed here.

Case Is Settled.—The personal injury case of Alfred Hill of North Marshfield, who was suing the C. A. Smith Lumber Company for about $8900 for injuries sustained in February, 1911, was settled today. The amount of settlement was not made public.

Two Bankrupt.—C. A. Schilbrede, referee in bankruptcy, has been notified that the Mlocene Gas and Oil Co. of Bandon, has been adjudged a bankrupt, and that Mr. Ames, a logger of Myrtle Point, has also been declared a bankrupt. The dates of hearings have not been fixed yet.

Recovers Perculator.—Through a Times want ad the Oregon Power Co. yesterday recovered a fine electric coffee percolator, which was lost while delivering them for Christmas. It was found by Mrs. L. M. Nelson of Hall avenue, who advertised it in the Times and the ad found the owner.

Made Quick Trip.—Burt Doremus returned at 8 o'clock this morning from a business trip to Copenhagen Camp, near Gardiner. Mr. Doremus left yesterday afternoon on the launch Kid for the head of North Inlet, went thence on horseback to Lakeside, from there by boat to Wilkinson's ranch, where again he took a horse for the remainder of his trip, returning by the same route.

A Woman's Wit.—E. Bandel of the Marshfield Cyclery, is in receipt of a very clever New Year's card from his mother, Mrs. Emily Bandel of Benicia, California. The card contains a striking picture of the "Twentieth Century Limited Express Train" and beneath it she has written, "Here's our New Year's wish for Marshfield. When it comes I will be a passenger. And to this many will join in the chorus, "Oh, let it be soon."

Place Hooded.—Parties from South Slough say that the place where Jake Evans was killed is hooded. Jack Hazelton and family moved in there and soon at-terwards two of his children were taken ill, he was later taken sick, then his oldest daughter was taken ill and finally Mrs. Hazelton sustained a broken arm. All are getting along nicely now, according to reports, but the streak of hard luck has started much speculation among the residents of the vicinity, it is said.

Found Guilty.—F. J. Vermehr was yesterday found guilty by Justice Penneck on the charge of Trespass preferred by C. I. Reigard. Mr. Reigard asked that the penalty be made the minimum, whereupon the fine was fixed at $5. This with the costs made Vermehr's penalty about $24. Mr. Reigard charged that Vermehr had cut down many trees on his lot. The lot trouble started over a quarrel as to the boundary line between the Reigard and Vermehr properties in South Marshfield.

Storm Bound.—The other morning after the storm, W. N. Ekblad had an unusual experience at his home in South Marshfield. Will is an early riser and when he reached to turn on his electric light he found it shut off. He then went to the telephone to call the light company and make inquiry about the electricity, and found the wires broken and the phone out of commission. "Well, I'll be blanked," Will exclaimed, "this would drive a man to drink," and he went to the faucet and turned it—there was no water.
