M. C. MALONEY Editor and Pub. DAN E. MALONEY News Editor

Official Paper of Coos County.

Dedicated to the service of the people, that no good cause shall lack a champion, and that evil shall use their unopposed.

Entered at the postoffice at Marshfield, Oregon, for transmission through the mails as second class mail matter.

MOTION PICTURES IN SCHOOLS.

THOMAS A. EDISON, the inventor of motion pictures, believes that their greatest effectiveness will be in education. He wants to make them an integral part of the public school system, and experiments are now being made in his home town, Orange, New Jersey.

In so far as geography is concerned, Mr. Edison has an argument difficult to answer, although it is doubtful if it would ever be wise to do away with text books. The inventor maintains that moving pictures can be used with equal effectiveness to teach history.

Mr. Edison believes that with the moving pictures he can teach almost anything in school except arithmetic. Maybe he is a little over optimistic. And there is another important point which he does not discuss, and that is the effect of the moving pictures on the eyes. The constant flicker is excessively trying to most of us, and it is absolutely necessary that if the motion pictures are to be introduced into the schools it shall be made certain that this constant vibration does not have any ill effect upon the sight of the pupils.

RISE OF CO-OPERATION.

THE constant growth of co-operative effort is reflected in many ways, but in none more strikingly than in action lately taken by Kansas farmers during the session of the State Agricultural Congress at Hutchinson. The meeting appears to have brought together, at that point, a number of representatives of lines of effort which are sometimes thought to be antagonistic, but which, it was found on an interchange of views, should really be co-operative.

THE REMEDY

—BY— BOB STANLEY.

Young Cityman, with wild alarm, discovers that his mighty arm is withering away, and that his massive appetite is growing weak. He enters on his daily job to find his heart has extra throb, and flutters to and fro, so straightway to his doctor's shop, he goes in haste to air his crop of ill to Dr. Snow. "Dear Doctor, I am ill," says he, "I'm getting thin, as you can see. My liver's upside down. Can you not cure for old time's sake, or shall I, my last will, go make?"

For these few words of rich advice, with joy, the patient pays doc's price—then, seeks the countryside, where dressed in English hunting clothes, he freezes hands, and feet, and nose, all for the sake of pride. While there he sleeps on beds of pain, gets soaked with snow, and sleet, and rain—no comfort is secured. But, when it ends, he seeks his home with no desire, the hills to roam, for he's completely cured.

STAGE STOPS WHEN PARCELS POST STARTS

Contractor Refuses to Carry Out Agreement to Transport the Mails.

VALE, Or., Jan. 6.—The refusal to carry parcels post packages under the law inaugurated by the government January 1 resulted in the Kellogg Stage Company, operating four routes in Malheur, Harney and Grant counties, Oregon, and serving 50 interior Oregon post-offices off the railroads, quitting business, and abandoning all contracts for carrying the United States mails, beginning January 1.

The following towns are not getting mail, express or passengers: Burns, Beulah, Westfall, Riverside, Juntura, Buchanan, Drewsey, Van, Harney, Riley, Harriman, Lawen, Princeton, Smith, Waverly, and Buckley, all in Oregon.

FRISCO BAR ROUGH.

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 6.—New Year's day saw the worst navigation conditions around the bay in many years. Contrary winds and tides piled up such a tremendous smother on the bar that no skipper, save Captain Jepsen on the Harvard, dared try it, and he took his big turbine far enough north to make the North Channel instead of using the convenient South. The Harvard plunged and rolled, but had no mishap.

HIGH SCHOOL DEBATES.

Marshfield high school will be here to debate, January 17th, at Benson's hall. The debate will begin at 8 o'clock sharp. Roy Clark, Chester Adams or Ernest Root are on the affirmative at Myrtle Point, while Cleo Dickson and Nora Harrison are on the negative and will go to North Bend.—Myrtle Point Enterprise.

BREAKWATER IN.

The Breakwater arrived in today from Portland with a small cargo of freight and about 80 passengers. The passenger list got lost and as a result Agent Dindinger was unable to give any information today as to whom came in on the boat. She will sail tomorrow.

CURRY COUNTY SOCIETY.

Christmas eve being Alfred Olsen's birthday, a number of his old friends gathered at his home to offer congratulations, and partake of his excellent milk, which was nicely flavored with eggs, spices, etc, especially the latter.—Gold Beach Globe.

WAS THE OAKLAND LOST?

The following note was found in a bottle on the beach near Bandon, given to the life saving crew and by them handed to us:

July 7, 1912. "Adrift in an open boat. Run out of water and provisions two days ago. There are three of us, the captain and mate, and myself, the engineer, of the Gas Schooner, Oakland. Took to the boat off Cape Flattery."

R. W. ROBERTS. The notice was written with a pencil on paper which has evidently been smeared with gasoline or some light oil and is a scarcely legible. Whether such a boat was wrecked off Flattery we are unable to state, and would like information in regard to the matter.—Bandon World.

WHOSE MOTTO IS AD OMNIA PARATUS

Which means—prepared for everything. Are you prepared? If you are, you can at least audit a set of books, write legible shorthand rapidly and skillfully use a typewriter. You are a good penman, rapid and accurate at figures; you can write a telling, business-getting letter in good English. You know how to use a Burroughs adding machine, a writerpress, multigraph or neostyle. You can operate a letter copying press, a filing and indexing cabinet. You understand the dictaphone, the tabulator, adding, subtracting, billing typewriter and other modern office appliances that multiply a busy man's time, power and efficiency. You can make out checks, notes, drafts, deeds, mortgages, liens, power of attorney, bill of sale. You can write an agreement that will hold, etc., etc. If you can not do most of these things, all of which will be taught in both our day and night school, your hope to win is unfair to yourself. It is the most expensive hope you could possibly entertain, and it will keep you hopelessly lashed to mediocrity for years. No matter how much you bank on rainbows and wait for some favorable breeze to waft you to harbor, every trained boy and girl will draw rings around you as they pass you on the road, UNLESS YOU PREPARE. For particulars write the College, temporary headquarters, Chandler Hotel.
