BASKETBALL IS TO OPEN SOON

Marshfield High School Team Practising—First Game Here January 24.

Since the close of football season, athletics have been rather quiet at the Marshfield High School, but will liven up at the beginning of basketball season, the first game of which will be played between North Bend and Marshfield at Marshfield Friday, Jan. 24. Coquille and Bandon will play a game on the same day at Coquille.

For a while it was doubtful if Myrtle Point could enter, on account of not having a suitable place in which to play but through the energy and enthusiasm of her citizens this has been overcome and Myrtle Point will try hard to uphold the honor gained in preceding years.

Marshfield has been handicapped in not securing a suitable place, early enough and also by the condition of the building finally secured. The roof of the Tabernacle, where the game will be played, is in a very bad state, leaking badly in several places.

A practice game is being arranged for between the Marshfield High School team and an independent team composed of old college and high school players, to be played next Wednesday.

Professor Granits and Dr. Morrow are coaching the players and the

CURRY COUNTY TIMBER DEAL

J. F. Cox and R. F. Cox of Portland Here With Party on Big Project Today.

A Curry County timber deal involving a large tract is now on with Portland and eastern men interested. Just the status of the matter and the property involved is being kept secret pending the culmination of the negotiations.

J. F. Cox and R. F. Cox of Portland are negotiating the matter. Mr. Cox was in here a few years ago with the speed boat Wolf from Portland for the regatta.

He arrived today with the Portland party and left on the afternoon train for Curry County.

Among those in the party, all registering from Portland, were: J. F. Brodie, J. E. Quinlison, J. F. Clarkson, J. F. Cox, R. F. Cox, R. H. Kennedy, E. A. Hughes, C. H. Freeman, and R. R. Nichols.

practices in the old Tabernacle building are being largely attended.

Among the boys out are: Stutsman, Clarke, Leece, Seaman, Lyons, Kruse, Carlson, Boit, McDonald, Noble, Reigard, Backman, Hansen, George Johnson, Elmer Johnson and Jensen.

COOS COUNTY LAND IS OPEN

Tracts That State Annulls Title to Is Entered as Homesteads.

The announcement printed in Monday's Times annulling the titles given by the state of Oregon to about 800 acres of land in Coos county which the Oregon land board had sold to various parties, has caused much comment. Already the parties now holding the land have taken steps to retain it.

It seems that years ago there was a mixup between the Oregon State Land Board and the United States Land Office about land that the government was ceding to the state. The Oregon Land Board sold tracts which it is supposed it got under the grant, but which it subsequently was found that the government had not ceded.

The annulling of the state titles leaves the land in the government's hands and the present occupants are filling on it. In some instances the land is still held by the party buying it from the state, but in others, the land has been transferred several times.

The descriptions of the Coos county lands involved were given in the Times Monday.

Concerning other mixups in Oregon land titles, a Washington dispatch says:

"Senator Chamberlain introduced a bill granting to Oregon several thousand acres of swamp lands, claimed by the state under acts 1850 and 1860, and not patented on account of defective field notes."

TELLS OTHER SIDE TO STORY

A. A. Warwick Says That Mrs. Burghagen Is Really the Offended Party.

That there is another side of the story of W. H. Burghagen as told to Justice Penneck yesterday, was declared by A. A. Warwick today. He declared that the charges made by Burghagen in his appeal to Justice Penneck were absolutely wrong and that Mrs. Burghagen was really the offended party in the three weeks' nuptials. However, he did not want to give out much of it now, as he expects to see the story introduced as evidence in the litigation which is likely to grow out of the matter. Mrs. Burghagen now has her mother, Mrs. Scott, with her, the latter having come from Scranton, Pa., recently. Mr. Burghagen is now at the Snyder hotel. The house at Bunker Hill is located on two lots, one of which he deeded his wife before their marriage the day before Christmas. Thus it will be hard for them to divide the house.

Mr. Warwick says he is a member of several lodges and has a number of relatives on the Bay. Today he made the following statement about the matter:

"The statement concerning me was entirely wrong. Ida M. Coney, who is now Mrs. Burghagen is my niece and not my sister. We did not come here together, as I came here in August, 1911, with my wife and family and with the exception of short intervals I have been on the Bay ever since. Last fall, Mrs. Coney came here to visit us. Later, through E. O. Hall, she secured the position as housekeeper for Burghagen. I did not have anything to do with it. Shortly before Christmas my wife and child went to Aberdeen, Washington, to visit my sister. Then I was boarding around and Burghagen then came to me and asked me to board at his house. Naturally, I went. I have been boarding there the same as the other boarders and I have had nothing to do with the troubles between Burghagen and his wife, although I know recently that there was discord between them. They can settle that and I do not care to be connected with it in any way."

BRITAIN PAYS $7.50 FOR EACH CHILD BORN

LONDON, Jan. 16.—During this week every child born in the United Kingdom parents insured under the national insurance act, will bring the parents a bonus of 20 shillings, or about $1.25. Under the new act the mother is entitled to a sick benefit during her illness.

There are about 1,200,000 births announced annually in the United Kingdom. It is estimated that fully 1,000,000 of these will be entitled to the insurance benefit. The expected effect of the scheme is an improvement in the national physique, which is said to have suffered considerably because many mothers are denied necessities.
