HOW DO YOU STAND ON RESOLUTIONS.

IT'S JUST two weeks since you made those New Year's resolutions.

How have they stood the wear and tear of the first two weeks?

This New Year's resolution gap is all right as far as it goes, but —

If a fellow is going to do a thing because he knows he will better himself by it, or because he knows he ought to do it, or because he knows it is changing from wrong to right—Well, he'll do it anyway—He doesn't need to make a whole lot of resolutions.

On the other hand, if he made a lot of resolutions just because it was a New Year, the chances are that he broke them as soon as the spirit of New Year wore off.

Any resolution that is worth making on New Year's is worth making any day it occurs to you.

You start out by turning over a new leaf chock full of New Year's spirit or spirits.

In a few days the spirit, or spirits wear off and your leaves flop back on you.

Don't back up your resolutions at any time by any spirit except the good you are going to get out of making them.

If it is the right spirit it will never wear off, and the leaves you turn over—because it's a case of taking a step to better yourself—will stay turned.

It is better to live resolutions than to make them.

BERNHARDT IN MARSHFIELD

World-Famous French Actress Will Appear in Photoplay Saturday and Sunday.

One of the most important and interesting events of the new year is the announcement that the people of Coos county are to have an opportunity to see Sarah Bernhardt, the famous French actress, in photoplay. She is to appear at the Grand theater in Marshfield, Saturday and Sunday, January 18 and 19, in the great spectacular play, "Queen Elizabeth." This is one of the strong stories of history and possesses a great educational value, as well as entertainment.

Manager Marsden is to be congratulated on securing this great attraction at a time when it is even difficult to secure it in the large cities, and should receive a loyal support. The people of Marshfield and Coos county will doubtless show their appreciation by attending the presentation of this masterpiece.

It is an unusual and splendid opportunity for the people to see the world's greatest actress in a vivid portrayal of the most dramatic incidents in the life of England's queen.

"History repeats itself," but never has this aged truism been so convincingly sustained as in Sarah Bernhardt's interpretation of the famous queen, Elizabeth. Her marvellous intelligence and astounding dramatic powers make the historical incidents of the play as real as today, and her faithful delineation of the Lonely Queen makes the original live again. All the passion and pathos of Elizabeth's life and love, all her pride and vanity and the smiles and sorrows of her mingled fortunes throbb and thrill in the compelling realism and magnetic mastery of Bernhardt's art. The flame of her genius has been breathed into the dust of Elizabeth and the thrilling page of history that she wrote in blood and tears is enacted before us with all the characters as much alive as the reader.

Sarah Bernhardt is all life and its struggles and yearnings concentrated in a marvelous intelligence. She is human nature incarnate, an extraordinary combination of all hopes and hopelessness, all the tears and fears and smiles and wiles that nature ever bequeathed to humanity. She is art, personified and emphasized in her tender, bewitching femininity.

The only material part of Sarah Bernhardt's art that can live when she is but a memory is the marvelous representation of Queen Elizabeth in the silent but eloquent drama of that name. Science has made Sarah Bernhardt's genius truly immortal and assures posterity the perpetuation of her art.

Sarah Bernhardt's interpretation of Queen Elizabeth will live as long as the fame of the original.

Do not miss this great opportunity. Sarah Bernhardt will never visit Marshfield in person. You would pay $5 a seat to see her in the large cities. She is now 69 years of age and her course is rapidly drawing to a close. All of which is proof that this is a rare and possibly your only opportunity of ever seeing her. For this great, spectacular photoplay, the price will be, adults, 25 cents; children under 10 years, 15 cents.
