Clearance Sale Time

OUR desire for a real clean-up of fall and winter goods at this season of the year is measured by the prices we're making.

You can see how much we want to get all these suits and overcoats for fall and winter out of the way, by looking at the price figures we have named on the goods.

Hart Schaffner & Marx

Fish Near Here-It is reported that Astoria fishermen are planning to fish in the hallbut banks off Coos Bay this year. The State Fish War den is reported to be trying to get the government to make a survey and report on these hallbut banks.

Father Moran Changes-Rev. Father Moran has been transferred from Eugene to Albany. Father Moran will be remembered by his many friends in Marshfield as having officiated at St. Monica's for two years before Father Munro was located here.

Back to Eugene,-Mrs. W. S. Chandler has received word that her son, Ben Chandler, has returned to Eugene after his trip to Atlanta to attend the national convention of his fraternity, following which he made a trip to Washington, New York and other eastern points of interest.

No Change.—A rumor of a re-vision in the local phone rates was in circulation but it was stated by President Douglas today that the company did not have any such plan in mind, because it was impossible to reduce rates, the recent storm damage adding greatly to their expense.

Heavy Rainfall-Yesterday's rainfall totalled 1.30 inches, according to the official records of B. B. Ost-This makes the total since September 1 about 43 inches, or within about sixteen inches of the total rainfall last year. However, the rainfall some years has been as great as eighty inches.

Heir Is Doing Fine-Captain Edgar Simpson has just received a let-ter from his father, Captain A. M. Simpson, stating that his first grandson, the little son of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Pike, and Mrs. Pike are getting along nicely at the Simpson home on Pacific Avenue, San Francisco. Captain Simpson says in his letter, "All on Pacific Avenue Heights are doing fine. The young man (his grand son) has already started in business and is now conducting a milk ranch successfully."

Parcel Post—Postmaster W. B. Curtis reports that there is a constant increase in the Parcel Post business in the Marshfield postoffice. both in incoming and outgoing business, Yesterday, a plum pudding and cake were two of the unusual packages received by parcel post. However, owing to the troubles of the carriers on account of the storm and landslides, these two packages arrived in rather bad condition, the boxes being broken and the contents more or less demoralized.

Funeral Held.—The funeral Peter Blake, the well known pioneer of Gardiner and Coos was held Monday from St. Monica's Catholic church, the Rev. Father F. J. Springer officiating. The funeral was well attended by old friends and acquaintances of the highly respected pioneer. One ne-phew, Mr. Dolan of Gardiner was unable to attend on account of filness. The pall bearers were Peter Scott, J. W. Bennett, Tom Magin-nis, John Morrissey, Capt. Matson and Mr. Murphy.
