NO FRAUD IN TIMBER DEAL

U. S. Attorney McCourt Makes Statement About Charges Against C. A. Thodey

PORTLAND, Ore., Feb. 12.-A Portland attorney for C. A. Thodey, of Winona, Minn., who made the charge that timberlands in central Oregon were being sold to the government by dishonest and unethical methods, has declared that the government is making a good faith effort to get the lands for the people. The attorney for Thodey, Mr. E. W. B. Kells, has filed a motion to dismiss the charges on the ground that the government is making a good faith effort to get the lands for the people.
