GENERAL SCHOOL NOTES.

Regular school work again, Monday morning.

Promotions in all grades Monday. Report cards will be given out Monday.

Classes for beginners will be started Monday.

Children must be six years of age to enter school.

A "condition" is simply a trial for four weeks in higher class. It presupposes latent ability and is given as an incentive for best effort to make good. Pupils who fail to make good will be put back.

New text books for the schools of Oregon will be adopted this year. A text book adoption lasts for six years.

"Not failure but low aim is crime." A failure is often the bump that calls out the best that is in a fellow.

The school library has been checked this week preparatory to the home stretch.

Teachers met Saturday afternoon to canvass semester reports.

The gymnasium apparatus in the High school building is popular from primary to senior class. One set of ropes has worn out already. If that isn't an argument for gymnasium and public playground in this city, what is?

What wholesome amusement center have the young men of high school age in this city? Think on the subject. What is the remedy?

Department of superintendence meets in Philadelphia the last of February. Inauguration of President Wilson at the same time.

Books added to the rest room library this week (also Central school library) included "The Story of the Chosen People," Guerber, "An Old, Old Story Book," Eva March Tappan. These books are referred to in the literature outlines for the Fourth grade.

HIGH SCHOOL.

The cast of characters for the farce, "A Bunch of Roses," which will be one of the features of the High school entertainment, February 14 is as follows: Mr. Peter Petiore (middle-aged and jealous)..... Noble Pitman Mrs. Peter Petiore (christian name Harriet, young and pretty)..... Frances Williams Miss Hilda Greaves (young, pretty and romantic)..... Mildred Storey Miss Malvina Pilkington (uncertain age; very romantic)..... Elsie Hall Mr. Herbert Mason..... Leslie Isaacson Mr. George Hargrave..... Sidney Clark Higgs (a romantic maid)..... Marjorie Graham Hopson (a romantic butler)..... Duncan Ferguson

The Cicero class is studying the oration in defense of the Poet Archias. The Caesar class has begun the second book of Caesar's campaign against the Belgians. Senior German will begin Schiller's "Jungfrau von Orleans."

The same grade boys in the other building have reed baskets well under way and there will be a variety of shapes and sizes, with different weaves.

Sewing in the lower grades seems to hold the interest of the classes. This will be of benefit to them in any advanced work, as well as at home.

This week is the last lesson of the course in the ladies' cookery class. A new class in fancy cookery will be organized early in February, to meet once a week, on Friday afternoon at 2 o'clock. The tuition will be $4 for 10 lessons, or 50 cents for a single lesson. Those interested may know more about it by communicating with Mrs. Werterberg, Mrs. Patterson and daughter, and Miss Roxie Hall visited the grade Thursday.

The pupils are enjoying their circus readers.

FOR HUMAN OR ANIMAL FLESH

A remedy that is equally efficacious in healing the wounds, sores, sprains or other ailments of the flesh of man or beast.

BALLARD'S SNOW LINIMENT

A healing remedy to effectively meet the needs of animal flesh need not be a harsh, strong mixture, too drastic for the human body; Ballard's Snow Liniment is proof of this. It ranks with the best of the best healing remedies designed for man; and it is equally as prompt in curing the wounds and flesh diseases common among animals. Owners of blooded horses prefer it to any other liniment because it leaves no disfiguring scars in any of the minor accidents or ailments. It heals by a mild power to which the flesh of horses responds readily.

It is of great value in healing harness galls, barbed wire cuts, wounds, festering sores and many other ailments to which horses are subject. In the relief of human suffering, it has done a world of good, particularly in easing the pains of rheumatism, neuralgia, sciatica and lumbago. When gently rubbed in where the pain exists, it gives a most gratifying relief to the afflicted. As a household remedy for cuts, burns, bruises, sprains, contracted muscles, stiff neck, frost bites, swellings, chilblains, ivy poisoning, there is nothing better on earth.
