CATHOLICS TO BEGIN BUILDING

New $5,000 Parochial Residence First and Church Later—Prist Returns.

Rev. Father Munro returned last evening from a trip to Portland, where he took up the matter of the erection of a new parochial residence and church with Arch-bishop Christie. Father Munro was vested with the authority to proceed with the grading and moving of the old church and the erection of the new $5,000 parochial residence, which work will be begun on at once.

Arch-bishop Christie will be here in the early spring when plans will be consummated for the large new church.

The property on which the old church stands is 130 x 200 feet, and the home will be erected on the south side of the property, facing Sixth street. The old church will be moved to the rear of the lot, which will be on Seventh street, and the new edifice will occupy the place where now stands the old house of worship. Services will continue in the old church after the moving until the new St. Monica's is completed, when it will be used as a hall. Rev. Father Munro reports a most satisfactory visit, a rough home trip and a glad home coming.

On last Sunday he officiated at Mass at St. Joseph's Church in Salem. During his absence Father Munro visited the Sound cities.

he will inspect the new logging road of the Smith-Powers Co.
