NAME DAUGHTERS

The Stork brought joy and gladness into the homes of well known Marshfield young couples the past week, the arrival being a girl in each instance.

Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Barker have named their little daughter Frances Harriet.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Winkler have named their little daughter Margaret Cecile in honor of the two grandmothers, Margaret being Winkler's mother's given name and Cecile the given name of Mr. Winkler's mother.

W. C. T. U. PLANS

The Marshfield W. C. T. U. held a business meeting at the home of Mrs. Fannie E. Wheeler on South Third street, last Saturday afternoon, and though a small number was present, still the meeting was full of interest. The committee appointed on arranging a program for the six months' work for the mothers' club, reported and the matter was taken under advisement.

Other committees reported, and were discharged.

Those present were:

Mrs. Emmel, Mrs. Baker, Mrs. McCarty, Mrs. Marsh and Mrs. Wheeler.

NORTH BEND W. C. T. U.

Lando, Miss Hyde, Mrs. C. F. McKnight, Mrs. Frank Grannis, Mrs. C. S. Dodge, Mrs. L. W. Langdon and Miss Ruth Allen.

ENJOY SOCIAL

The Young People's Society of the First Baptist church held a business meeting and social last evening at the home of Miss Mamie Gulovson in South Marshfield.

The rooms were artistically adorned with decoration of valentine suggestions, festoons of red hearts hanging from the ceiling and chandelier, casting a pretty reflection from the shaded lights.

During the business session the following officers for the ensuing year were elected:

President, Mrs. Maggie Ogren; vice-president, Miss Alice Tickell; secretary, Miss Mamie Gulovson; treasurer, Miss Helen McLaughlin.

The retiring officers are:

President, George Doll; vice-president, Miss Alpha Mauzey; secretary, Charles Rehfeld; treasurer, Miss Helen McLaughlin.

The remainder of the evening was spent in a social way. Every person was given a magazine, pair of scissors, paste and a book of blank pages, from which articles they were to make a picture history of themselves. The books, when completed, caused much merriment. Miss Cora Myren delighted the guests with several instrumental and vocal solos, after which dainty refreshments were served. Here also, the valentine idea was carried out. Mrs. George Gulovson, Misses Rose Myron and Helen Gulovson assisted in serving.

Among those present were:

Rev. A. F. Bassford, Mr. and Mrs. George Gulovson, Mr. and Mrs. Alva Doll, Mr. and Mrs. J. Anderson, Mrs. C. H. Marsh, Mrs. M. Ogren, the Misses Belva and Bessie Flanagan, Helen McLaughlin, Alice Tickell, Frances Franse, Eva Dresser, Inez Baldwin, Marie Vasey, Zoe Dolan, Alice Richardson, Rose, Clara and May Myren, Esther Johnson, Joan and Emma Fitzgerald, Bessie Ayre, Emma Quartermass, Alpha Mauzey, Mamie and Helen Gulovson, and Messrs: G. W. Leslie, George Doll, Ray Ollivant, Rev. T. Griffiths, Ralph Richardson and Mr. Culver.

C. W. B. M.

The members of the Christian Woman's Board of Missions of the Christian Church spent a delightful afternoon at the home of Mrs. Barbee in the O'Connell Apartments, last Tuesday.

Splendid papers were read by Mrs. E. L. Hopson, Mrs. C. A. Selbrede and Mrs. Blaine, on the general subject of "The Women of the Orient."

The duet by Mrs. John W. Motley and Mrs. Geo. Coleman, and solo by Miss Preston were rendered in a most pleasing manner. Mrs. Cople presided over the business session and Mrs. Doward had charge of the program.

The home was handsomely decorated with hearts and a dainty lunch was served by Mrs. Barbee and Mrs. Busby. There were about thirty-five in attendance.

Among those who were in attendance at the enjoyable occasion were:

Mesdames Selbrede, Reid, Cople, Motley, Immel, Doward, Ralston, Isaac, Zope, Davis, Snyder, Yaki, Buell, Coleman, Hopson, Cox, Jones, Drews, Busby, Blaine, Barbee, Rawlinson, Jones, Cook, and Miss Preston, Miss Immel, Miss Tope and Rev. Doward.

EPWORTH LEAGUE

INFORMAL

A. T. Haines is expected home

soon from Enid, Okla., where he visited, subsequent to his trip to the old family home at Storm Lake, Iowa, where his mother, who died recently at Los Angeles, was buried. At Enid, he visited old friends and also at the home of the mother of Eugene Crosthwaite, of Marshfield. He will reach San Francisco Monday.

Mrs. F. K. Gettins spent part of the week as a guest of Mrs. T. C. Russell at Beaver Hill.

Miss Eugenia Schilling is the guest of her aunt, Mrs. W. P. Murphy, in Marshfield, while recuperating from her recent illness.

Mrs. W. C. Bradley is now at Monrovia, Cal., and writes that she likes the country very much. She says Dr. C. W. Tower, Mrs. Tower and Miss Nellie are pleasantly located there. The Towers like it very much and may purchase a winter home there and get an auto for their private use.

Mrs. Chas. Van Duyn, who has been visiting at the home of her parents, Judge and Mrs. Roberts, in Enid, Okla., is expected home early in March.

Miss Laura Kruse of North Bend was the guest of Mrs. R. K. Booth the early part of the week.

Fred Hollister and family of North Bend returned this week, after spending several months in San Diego and southern California points.

Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Merchant and family will leave in a few weeks for San Francisco, where they will make their home for a time. They will lease their Marshfield home furnished, as they do not intend to permanently give up their residence on the Bay.

Miss Evelyn Anderson left this week for San Francisco, where she will visit at the home of Judge and Mrs. Antonia Perry. Mrs. Perry was formerly Miss May Vanderburgh of Marshfield. Miss Anderson may visit with her sister, Mrs. Eric Wold, at Burlingame, Cal., a few days before leaving for Honolulu.

Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Greenough will leave in a few days for San Francisco, after an extended stay on the Bay. Mr. Greenough having been the inspector in charge of the construction of the San Ramon at the Kruse and Banks shipyards. Their departure will be greatly regretted by the many friends they made here. Last Saturday evening they entertained about eighty of their friends at a banquet in North Bend, in honor of the successful launching of the San Ramon.

Mrs. C. F. McCollum in a letter to Mr. McCollum states that she expects to leave San Francisco shortly for her home in North Bend. She states that her sister, Mrs. Harry Moffatt, has recently moved to the Mount Washington Apartments at the corner of Washington and Jones streets, San Francisco.

Mrs. S. C. Small, who was expected home next week from her visit in Montana, will probably not return for some time, as a result of being called back to Columbus, Mont., by the sudden death of her father. The funeral will be held at Columbus tomorrow. Mrs. Small's mother died a number of years ago.

Mrs. Hans Reed of Centerville has been visiting her daughter, Mrs. J. M. Upton, and friends in Marshfield this week.

Rev. T. Griffiths, who for the past four months has been pastor of the Myrtle Point Presbyterian Church, will leave shortly for his old home in Oklahoma, to locate.

Miss Belva Flanagan spent part of this week on business and pleasure at South Inlet.

Mrs. D. C. Green is entertaining a few friends at her home in South Marshfield this afternoon.

R. C. Dement of Myrtle Point was here today arranging for the removal of his daughter, Mrs. White, from Mercy hospital, to the W. C. Bradley home in West Marshfield. Mrs. White has been ill for several months and the Bradley place has been leased in order to secure more homelike surroundings for her. A nurse has been secured for her. Dr. White may be able to arrange his affairs at Klamath Falls so that he can spend more time with her here.

COQUILLE IS WINNER AGAIN

High School Basketball Team Defeats Marshfield By Score of 21 to 17.

The basketball game between Marshfield and Coquille here last evening, resulted in a score of 21 to 17 in favor of the visitors. A good crowd was in attendance, principally Marshfield people, and the cheering was loud and long.

During the first half Marshfield started things off with a rusb, scoring two fouls and a field basket, but then they relaxed and allowed Coquille to make three field baskets in succession. Marshfield then made a foul and a field basket and the half ended, after Coquille had done the same thing.

In the second half, Coquille made one foul and two field baskets, followed by one field basket by Marshfield. Coquille then made two field baskets and three fouls, after which Marshfield made three field baskets and two fouls.

The Marshfield field baskets were made by Carlson, two; Clark, three; Lecocq, one. Their fouls were made by: Lecocq, four and Clark, one.

The following made the Coquille baskets: Mast, four; Miller, one; Oerding, two; Leslie, one. The fouls were made by: Leslie, two; and Oerding, three.

The officials were: Oerding, of Coquille, referee; Morrow, of Marshfield, umpire; Pitman of Marshfield, and Robertson, of Coquille, timekeepers; Isaacson, of Marshfield, scorekeeper.

The lineups of the two teams were as follows:

Marshfield	Position	Coquille
Lecocq	C	Leslie
Clark	R F	Knowlton
Carlson	L F	Miller
Seaman	R G	Mast
Kruse	L G	Oerding

So far Coquille has won three straight games, defeating every team in the county. Owing to the showing of strength, they are practically assured the championship this season.

Next Friday night Marshfield will play Bandon at Bandon.

FIRE WARDEN DIES.

Joseph C. Corbus Passes Away After Brief Illness at Hospital.

Joseph C. Corbus, for years a fire warden of the Southern Pacific in the Fall Creek country, died early yesterday at Mercy hospital after a short illness of kidney trouble. He was brought to the hospital only a few days ago.

Mr. Corbus during the summer months attended to his duties as fire warden, but during the winter months trapped in the Fall Creek section and hunted big game.

He has a number of relatives. Coroner Wilson has wired a sister, Mrs. J. W. Hance of Mt. Pleasant, Michigan, and Bert Case, a nephew in Portland, to ascertain what shall be done with the body.

Joseph Corbus will be buried tomorrow afternoon at 2.30 from the Wilson Undertaking parlors, Rev. Rutledge officiating.

LEAVE TODAY ON BREAKWATER

Steamer Sails Today—Wireless Station Moved to Cape Arago.

The Breakwater sailed today for Portland with a good load of passengers and a fair cargo of freight. Captain Maegonn wants steps taken to secure the removal of the wireless station from Knob Hill to a high point on Cape Arago, as the vessels will be constantly in communication with the Bay. At present, the mountains near the line north and south shut off the Marshfield station from the sea up and down the coast. He says Breakwater's wireless equipment now the most powerful along the coast.
