SOUTH POLE DISCOVERER AND PARTY OF 66 LOSE LIVES

Overwhelmed by Blizzard En Route Home from Antarctic Regions.

REACHED POLE LAST YEAR AFTER HARD TRIP

Prominent Scientists and a Picked Crew of English Royal Navy Are Lost.

(By Associated Press to Coos Bay Times.)

DUMMAURA, N. Z., Feb. 10.—Captain Robert F. Scott and his party were overwhelmed by a blizzard on the return journey from the south pole. The entire party perished.

The expedition consisted of 28 officers and men and 34 dogs. It was a picked crew of 23 men from the British Royal navy. Reports were current at the time the Terra Nova sailed for the Antarctic, Dec. 14, 1912, to bring back the Scott party, that some members of the relief expedition had expressed grave doubts as to whether Scott and his fellow explorers would ever return.

Scott's party was overwhelmed on the return trip by the terrific blizzard which prevailed in the Antarctic region. The date of Scott's attainment of reaching his goal was almost exactly a month after Amundsen's.

The news of the disaster of the expedition came as an utter surprise to London and east a gloom spread over the community.

It is believed here that the disaster did not involve all the Scott party of sixty-six, but probably only the selected by him for the final trip to the pole.

WIFE ENROUTE THERE.

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 10.—Mrs. Robert F. Scott sailed from here for Sydney, Australia, to join her husband on the liner Aurangz, which is scheduled to leave on February 5.

NEWS BY SIGNAL.

CHRIST CHURCH, N. Z., Feb. 10.—The Antarctic steamer Terra Nova, which was supposed to have on board Captain Robert F. Scott and members of his south polar expedition, did not stop at Dummaura, but only signalled as she passed. The ship is expected to arrive here today.

AMUNDSEN SHOCKED.

MADISON, Wis., "Horrible, horrible I can hardly believe it," said Roald Amundsen, when he read the Associated Press news of the disaster to Scott and his party. "I am sure that it is a terrible tragedy," he said. "It is hard to believe that such a large party would be lost that way."

Cost $100 Per Month Is Pledged to it Already—Submit at Election.

The Coos Bay Concert Band will probably be retained, even though the Marshfield city council is unable to agree out a means whereby it can contribute to the support of the organization. Some of the band boys are anxious to see the organization retained here, have about $100 a month subscribed, but it is not believed that the other boys will be long held.

It will be most gratifying news to the people of Marshfield, as the prospect of losing the band was making some of them feel mighty "glum." Some have held back on pledging subscription on the ground that the band should be supported by the city, through the monthly payment by the council. It is not expected that they will absolutely hold back when they see that it is either personal contribution or no band. Some are also being made by the council of the band to have the matter submitted at the next election.

JURY ALLOWS NO DAMAGES

Plaintiffs in Personal Injury Cases at Coquille Fare Badly This Term.

(Special to The Times)

COQUILLE, Feb. 10.—The jury in the case of Svensen vs. Cody Lumber Company of Bandon for damages for the death of Sevenaen in a mill accident there sometime ago, brought in a verdict for the defense. So far this term, not a one of the four different parties who have been suing for personal injuries have received anything, with the exception of Strang, who was suing the McDonald & Vaughan Company, and who was awarded only $300.

The juryman who have been doing service this term of court are said to be peculiar and not as much "anti-corporation" as is usual. One of them did a little boosting for the workmen's compensation bill.

He declared he would not vote damages because the bulk of the money would go to the attorneys. He is said to have been one of the men who passed on the Svensen case and added that the parties suing were brothers and sisters, all of whom were over 21 years of age, and who did not particularly need the money anyway.

In the case of Randall vs. the C. A. Smith Co., in which the jury refused to allow the plaintiff anything, it is stated that the company previous to the trial had offered to give Randall $1500 or $2000 but his attorneys insisted on $10,000.

Kinney Case Up. Judge Coke announced in court today that he would not hear the application for the appointment of a receiver for the L. D. Kinney properties. He said that as he had been an attorney for F. B. Waite in the Waite-Kinney mortgage matter he did not feel that he was qualified. He referred the matter to Judge Harris of Eugene and promised that hearing on the matter could be had within twelve days.

Marshfield Case. Today the case of Heckela vs. the Coos Bay Liquor Company is being tried before Judge Coke. Heckela is suing for damages on a contract which he had for the purchase of the Brewery Saloon on North Front street, Marshfield. The affair was aired in the Marshfield city council when Heckela was ousted from the Brewery saloon and the license transferred to the Coos Bay Liquor Co.

PRESIDENT MADERO OUSTED IN UPRISING IN MEXICO CITY

Rebels Under Felix Diaz Overpower Government—Two Hundred, Including General Reyes, Slain.

(By Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, Feb. 10.—When the house met today Representative Hammill of New Jersey introduced a joint resolution calling for the protection of Americans in Mexico. The resolution is as follows:

"Resolved, that to safeguard American lives and property now jeopardized by political developments in Mexico, the secretary of state be made and is hereby directed to instruct the American ambassador at Mexico City to notify the existing government of Mexico that it will be held strictly and immediately answerable to this government for any acts committed within its domain, injurious to persons and property of the citizens of the United States of America."

MEXICO CITY, Feb. 10.—The night passed quietly in Mexico City and 7 o'clock this morning saw no resumption of the fighting that yesterday resulted in the supposed flight of President Madero and the success of General Felix Diaz, the rebel leader. Diaz has made no new move and the general situation remains much as it was last night when the rebellious army practically seized the city after street fighting that resulted in the death of General Bernardo Reyes and some 200 people.

Stories are rife that Madero left the city headed for some port on the east coast, while in other quarters it is declared he has acceded to the presumptive demand of Diaz voiced last night that he resign the presidency. Neither of these reports are confirmed.

Diaz is a nephew of President Diaz, who was ousted last year by Madero.

ADELINE SMITH ARRIVE THURSDAY

Wireless Message States She Was 580 Miles South of San Francisco Sunday—A Record-Breaking Trip.

(By Associated Press to Coos Bay Times.)

Mrs. B. W. Olson and little daughter will be at Empire Thursday to meet Capt. B. W. Olson and it will be a joyous meeting, for it will be the first time that Capt. Olson has seen the latter, who was born shortly after he went east to get the Adeline.

The Adeline Smith, the flagship of the C. A. Smith Lumber Co., will arrive off Coos Bay Thursday afternoon.

That was the word given out here today, following the receipt of a wireless message stating that the vessel was 580 miles south of San Francisco yesterday.

Capt. B. W. Olson is making a record-breaking trip with the Adeline Smith and if he reaches here Thursday, he will have made the trip from near Newport News, Va., to Coos Bay in between sixty and sixty-one days.

Plans for the reception of the Adeline and Capt. Olson and his officers are progressing nicely. It is expected that a large number of small boats will be out in gay decorations. The band will be taken down on the Alert. The Adeline will stop at Empire and will take a large number on board.

C. A. Smith and other officers of the Smith Company will be there to greet her. The Breakwater, which will be in port, may go down to meet her. Thursday night the Millicoma club will tender an informal smoker in honor of Capt. Olson and the Adeline Smith.

J. R. Robertson and others Object to Giving Grant Square for Site. J. R. Robertson and other North Bend citizens have called a mass meeting at Eckhoff hall in North Bend for tonight to protest against the ceding of Grant Square to anyone for hotel purposes. It was proposed that the city give this site to anyone for hotel purposes, who would erect a $50,000 hotel on it, but Mr. Robertson, 000 hotel on it, but Mr. Robertson, a big property owner, and others object to it. They want the city to retain it. They threaten to recall the council if anything is done.

took possession of the national palace and other public buildings. Gustavo Madero was taken prisoner after fighting, in which one hundred and fifty persons were killed. The government regained partial control later. President Madero led the loyal troops. The insurgents released Felix Diaz and Bernardo Reyes. General Villaro was killed.

INTERVENTION IS TALKED.

United States Does Not Want to Take Hand in Mexican Trouble.

(By Associated Press to Coos Bay Times.)

WASHINGTON, Feb. 10.—President Taft and his cabinet met early today to take up the Mexican situation. It was a special session to consider other matters, but the startling war news of yesterday diverted its original purpose. While it was again stated that only the most dire conditions could force intervention in Mexico, the general staff of the army has had the Mexican mobilization plans ready and the navy is in readiness for any contingency.

Secretary Knox, after the meeting, decided to hold the cruiser Denver at Acapulco, Mexico, instead of sending her to Salvador, as he had planned. Other naval movements were discussed, but not decided upon.

WILL TAKE MONTEREY

(By Associated Press to Coos Bay Times.)

MONTELOVA, Mexico, Feb. 10.—A band of rebels is reported to be marching on Monterey and will, it is declared, demand the surrender of the city late today. It is expected here that little or no resistance will be offered.

ALL QUIET AT JUAREZ.

(By Associated Press to Coos Bay Times.)

WASHINGTON, Feb. 10.—Assurances from Consul Edwards at Juarez that conditions are quiet in that section of the border country, in which the federal forces are still loyal to Madero, are taken to indicate that there will be no immediate increase of the American patrol force along the Texas-Mexican frontier.

The Mexican situation was the subject of animated discussion among the senators today, particularly those from the border states.

MUCH RIOTING IN OLD JAPAN

Mob Stones Premier After He and Cabinet Resign—Attacks Newspapers.

(By Associated Press to Coos Bay Times.)

TOKIO, Feb. 10.—Prince Taro Katsuro, premier and minister of foreign affairs in Japan, was stoned today by a mob on the streets. The stoning of Katsura came immediately after he had offered the emperor his resignation and that of the other members of the cabinet. Several newspaper offices were also attacked by the crowds which attempted to set fire to the buildings. Many riots occurred throughout the city in the course of which a number of persons were injured.

MARTIAL LAW THREATENED.

TOKIO, Feb. 10.—There was serious rioting here tonight. The emperor declared in event of further attempts at incendiarism he would declare a state of siege in Tokio.

TO RUN TRAIN TO MAPLETON

Expect S. P. to Have Road Completed That Far This Fall.

(By Associated Press to Coos Bay Times.)

It was reported today that Captain A. M. Simpson had announced that the Southern Pacific would not be allowed to cross Simpson Park and consequently the railroad work in North Bend would be held up until the company could condemn it. L. F. Falkenstein of the Simpson Company and others stated that the report was without foundation.

REPORT DENIED.

"The superintendent of Porter Bros. at Florence informed me the other day that they expected to have trains running over the Coos Bay-Eugene line as far as Mapleton by this fall," said F. S. Dow today on his return from a trip north. "They are preparing to rush the construction down the Siuslaw from Eugene and it won't be long before the line is ready."

"Enroute home, I visited Copenhagen Brothers' camp near Gardiner. They have a fine camp there and the conditions are better than in any railroad construction camp I have visited in many years. The excessive wet weather made camp life hard, but now they have all the men they want and are rushing the work. The steam shovel is working on the approach to the tunnel and blasting crews are getting the whole route ready up to the Umpqua. They expect a crew in there within a few days to commence actual work on the tunnel. They have about 3000 feet of grading done on the approach."

"Gardiner is booming and there is much activity in real estate there now."

"They have not been able to recover the body of Dan Bruhn who was killed on the Siuslaw. They think it is buried in the sand or under debris in the river."

LITTLE LAD'S FINGERS LOST

Five-year-old Son of Mr. and Mrs. Perkins of Marshfield Hurt at Gardiner.

Mrs. Perkins and little son returned to Marshfield yesterday from Gardiner, where they went to visit Mr. Perkins, who is employed on a dredger there. Saturday, the little boy, who is five years old, caught his fingers in a cable and the ends of three were cut off. Just how the accident happened no one knows. After having medical attention in

HAND TO HAND BATTLE BETWEEN TWO ARMIES

Turks Reported to Have Left 4000 Dead on Field; Siege Line Advanced.

(By Associated Press to Coos Bay Times.)

SOFIA, Feb. 10.—The rout of the Turkish army before Bulair Saturday is said to have been complete. The Turks are reported to have suffered an enormous loss. The Bulgarian losses are declared to be "insignificant."

COST OF VICTORY.

CETTINJE, Montenegro, Feb. 10.—The capture of Barden Joli Hill by the Montenegrins cost the victors 2500 killed and wounded. The Turks left 4,000 dead on the field of battle.

(By Associated Press to Coos Bay Times.)

POTGORIEZA, Montenegro, Feb. 10.—The Montenegrin army, besieging the Turkish fortress at Scutaria, carried the great Joli Hill fortress by assault this morning after several hours fighting.

The infantry came to such close quarters that hand-to-hand fighting was general along the line. Bardon Joli Hill dominates Scutari from the eastern side and the Montenegrins are mounting siege guns on the heights to bombard the principal points in the city. The fighting has gone on since early morning all around the city. The Turk defenders are disputing the ground with fierce determination.

SAYS BOOM IS RANCH MENACE

Anson Rogers Complains of the McDonald & Vaughan Boom at Meeting.

At a meeting of the Port of Coos Bay this morning, Anson Rogers filed a protest with the commission against the boom which McDonald & Vaughan have constructed in South Coos River above Daniels Creek. He stated that the boom at the upper end took up more than half the river and that it was a menace to his ranch in times of freshets. He said that it turned the flood waters onto the ranch and was likely to cut a new channel through his place, thereby damaging his fine farm and also impairing navigation. He said that they had spent $5000 to bulkhead the river to prevent the channel changing. Owing to not a full board being present, the commission deferred action on it.

The commissioners also decided to take steps to eliminate the menace of floating logs. They will request loggers to be careful about letting logs "stray" and to either offer to pay boats for towing them back or the commission will and then take the logs and sell them.

Attorney Peck was instructed to draft an ordinance requiring vessels to file a manifest of their cargoes, both incoming and outgoing, with the secretary of the port commission each trip. This will give the Port accurate data as to the shipping and will eliminate the expense of gathering data at the end of the year and it will also be more definite.

H. C. Diers reported that he would have his data for the annual report ready within a few days.

The commissioners will meet on Friday, February 28. It is expected that word will be received soon as to when the money will be ready from the bonds. The transcript of the proceedings was forwarded February 3.
