theatres, late suppers, dances, etc., often mean nervous headaches the next day.

We sell many good headache cures. It's not hard to find a remedy for a headache, but often the remedy is worse than the malady. Many cures contain dangerous drugs that cause harmful after effects.

We heartily recommend Rexall Headache Wafers because we know their formula and guarantee them absolutely free from antipyrin, opium, morphine or chloral. They are a simple and positive cure for headaches and neuralgia—quickly kill the pain and soothe the nerves. Perfectly suited to women. Sold with the Rexall guarantee. Two sizes—Four Wafers, 10c.—Twelve Wafers, 25c.

SOCIAL CALENDAR.

TUESDAY.
Ladies of Presbyterian church will meet with Rev. and Mrs. J. E. Burkhart to organize missionary society.

new interior being put in as well as new and large fixtures and a new front.

No Holiday—Postmaster Curtis announced today that tomorrow is not a national holiday and consequently the postoffice will not observe holiday hours, the mail being handled and delivered as usual.

Family in Need—Mrs. Cooley, whose husband is just recovering from a prolonged illness, is now quite ill at her home over the club cigar store. They have six small children and owing to the stage of sickness are reported to be in need.

Seattle Affairs—Frank M. Case of the Willey B. Allen Company of Portland is here straightening up the affairs of the company in connection with Palmer & Dawson, who represented them for a time on the Bay and whose agency they have abolished.

Ends Heckela Case—The case of Heckela vs. the Coos Bay Liquor Company was terminated quickly at Coquille yesterday, the plaintiff being non-suited before the trial had actually commenced. Heckela was suing on an old contract for the purchase of the Brewery saloon.

Mother Ill—W. A. and E. Varney left on the Drain stage this morning for Minneapolis, in response to a telegram received yesterday stating that their mother, Mrs. Helen Varney was not expected to live. Mrs. Varney, who is seventy-five years old, has heart trouble and it is thought she cannot last long.

Chink Wins—Jesse, Day in a letter to friends here, states that Sing Hosan, the former Beaver Hill Chinaman, won a ten round bout from Spike Hennessey, at Hailey, Idaho, the other night. Day, Jack Gleason and Sing Hosan have spent much of their time around Hailey since they left Coos Bay a year or so ago.

Council Next Week—The Marshfield city council will meet next Monday evening to take up various improvement matters, several street improvement projects being ready for final action. It is also expected that the controversy about the opening of Fourth street through the fair grounds will come up then.

Buy's Interest—James Kellond, who has been employed in the Smokehouse for sometime, has purchased an interest with Eugene Crosthwaite in the business. Mr. Crosthwaite has been devoting his attention largely to the tobacco jobbing business and Mr. Kellond will have charge of the retail store and billiard parlors.

Water Agate—Mrs. Peter Scott, Sr. has just had a rare agate, mounted, which is in the nature of a curio. It is a water agate of considerable size and in the center is a few drops of water in which there is a sand flea floating around. The agate is transparent. Mrs. Scott picked it up on the beach here and the jeweler who mounted it for her offered her $75 for it.

Insurance Man Coming—Otto Schetter has been advised that an insurance adjuster will arrive on Thursday to settle the loss on the Donaldson block. Pending this settlement, Mr. Schetter does not wish to give out any statement as to what will be done towards improving the corner. He has only had brief telegraphic advices from Captain Donaldson in reference to the matter so far.

Second in Class—Dr. Robins, who recently moved here from Spokane was second highest in a large class who took the medical examination before the state board at Salem recently, according to the results of the examination published in the Portland papers. Dr. Robins practiced for a number of years at Spokane, but the Oregon law does not recognize medical certificates of other states or medical diplomas, requiring each practitioner to pass an examination here.

Matter Settled—The troubles over the North Inlet between Jacob Matson, Chas. Helser and Oscar Johnson over the North Inlet ranch have been adjusted, Helser yesterday paying his installment on the property. Mr. Matson says that in sending his boys out to the ranch, he was merely looking out for his property and especially to see that an injured horse he had on the place was attended to. He says that he simply wanted to see that Johnson attended to matters properly.

Can't Accept—R. T. Kaufman of Marshfield has been requested by the Bandon city officials to aid in expediting the books of the Bandon Water Company, to ascertain their actual yearly income, which is to be used to get the eight per cent basis on which it is proposed that the city shall buy the plant. Mr. Kaufman is unable to accept, as his duties at the First National Bank will not permit him to get away now. The other men chosen to expert the books are A. G. Thrift and John Nielson.

Wed Last Night—Mr. Ernest Templin and Miss Gidmark were united in marriage last evening at the residence of Rev. and Mrs. G. L. Hall of this city. Mr. Hall, performing the ceremony, which made the happy young people one. The witnesses were Mr. and Mrs. Aug. Frizeen. Mr. Templin is from San Francisco, while his bride is among the many respected young women of this city.

Indicted Again—Sheriff Gage has returned from South Slough, where he went for Frank Cameron, who has been indicted again for bootlegging. Some of the witnesses in the other case were not here and the grand jury brought in a new indictment.

County Educational Board—Mr. Clinkinbeard and daughter of Coos River went to Coquille today, where Mr. Clinkinbeard will attend a meeting of the newly appointed Coos County Educational Board. F. A. Golden, who is expected to be appointed supervisor of schools at the meeting today, also went to Coquille this morning.

Port Orford Loses—A Washington dispatch to the Portland Oregonian says that the United States engineers have reported unfavorably on the request of Port Orford people for the construction of a breakwater there. The Port Orford people offered $43,000 towards the cost of the breakwater to be 200 or 200 feet long at Graveyard Point, but the engineers decided that the improvement would not be of sufficient value to warrant the expenditure, the dispatch says. It is added that it would cost between $5,000,000 and $6,000,000 to build a good harbor at Port Orford.
