SOCIAL CALENDAR

WEDNESDAY.

Home Missionary Society of Methodist church with Mrs. Chas. Davis, 11th and Central.

Kribs, Jr., in Colorado was a "joke report." Mr. Kribs is well known on the Bay, having visited here a number of times with relatives at North Bend.

Relative Dead—Mrs. Sarah A. Pettyjohn, grandmother of Will Pettyjohn of Marshfield and of Dell Pettyjohn, formerly of Marshfield but now of Salem, died at Salem last week of heart failure, aged 85. She crossed the plains by ox team in 1847, settling near Salem.

For Pottery Plant—Peter Scott, Sr., is organizing a stock company to start a pottery plant on Coos Bay. His son, James Scott, is an expert pottery worker and they have discovered a big deposit of fine clay for the work. Mr. Walling of Portland, who has been here inspecting the clay deposits in this section also plans to organize a stock company here to start a brickyard and tile plant if he finds the clay suitable for the work.

Ten Mile Shooting—Neptune Young of Ten Mile was in Marshfield today on business and reported that Saturday night, his wife had a very narrow escape from being shot by Fred Muetzel. Muetzel was returning to his home in a rather hilarious mood and was shooting promiscuously as he passed the creamery. One of the bullets struck the wall a few feet from where Mrs. Young was standing. Steps may be taken to prosecute Muetzel.

In Aberdeen—Mrs. Peter Scott, Sr., states that John Frantz, the former Coquille Man, who is being sought by relatives at Iowa City, Iowa, is at Aberdeen, Washington, where he recently bought a ranch. She and Mr. Scott met him at Aberdeen. He formerly worked at Newport and on the Coquille. Her attention was attracted by an item in the Times stating that Cashier Mast of the Coquille Bank had received an inquiry about him.

Sails Today—The Adeline Smith sailed about noon today with her first lumber cargo from the Smith mill and was drawing about eighteen feet of water. A large number gathered along the waterfront to see the vessel go by. She had a good deck load. Captain Olson was accompanied by Designer Hough and F. A. Warner of the C. A. Smith Company. The actual amount of her cargo had not been reported this afternoon.

LOSES BIG TOE.

Late Tuesday night, B. Romuf, a laborer employed at Morales' camp, on the South Fork, was brought to the White Cross Hospital to undergo treatment for a crushed foot, and which necessitated the amputation of a toe at the first joint.

The rails upon which the steel dump cart travels suddenly spread at the point where the victim was standing and before Romuf could get out of its way passed over his foot resulting as above stated.—Myrtle Point Enterprise.
