

Will be crowded with people coming to this genuine closing out sale we are sending out notices to throw away to people telling them of this wonderful bargain event and they are sure to be here in large numbers because we are going to sell these goods at unheard of sacrifice prices. We are preparing for a big crowd and expect to lock our doors several times during the day, but will open again as soon as the people on the inside are waited upon. The low prices will bring the people in large numbers, so don't delay as it will be dangerous in a case of this kind.

The Bazaar is going to quit the merchandise business at once. They have placed the entire stock in our charge and our instructions are absolute and positive to dispose of these goods within very a short time. We hate to sacrifice this splendid stock of merchandise but we have no alternative. We must do it, and do it quickly. Instead of selling the stock for bulk to some merchant or person going into business we are going to give the people of Marshfield and vicinity a chance to buy this standard merchandise a big per cent below first cost.

Yours Respectfully,
LANGHORN & LUTZ.
