BRIEFS OF BANDON.

News of the City-by-the-Sea as Told by the Recorder.

general committee composed of the library directors, representatives from the Ladies' Commercial club and business men met Saturday to deliberate over the interests of the campaign for the enlargement of the Bandon public library. As a result of this meeting a "Tag and Trade Day" was set for Saturday, March 15. J. A. Linley of Ashland and Rev.

L. C. Poor, also of Ashland, are in Bandon. Mr. Linley is a lawyer and will locate here.

A message was received Tuesday at the Randolph mill that the Grace Dollar had not sailed from San Pedro, but she is expected to sail any day now and may be here the latter part of the week.

Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Kronenberg re turned on the Fifield from a two weeks' visit to San Francisco. Mr. Kronenberg reports things quite lively at San Francisco, but of course it is not up to Bandon.

Captain O. Wiren reports the rainfall for the month of February was 1.83 inches, days clear, 17; days rainy and cloudy, 11. The rainfall for the corresponding to the corresp for the corresponding month last year was 7.34 inches, a difference of 5.51 inches less this year.

Louis Perkins arrived from Stani laus, California, to see his father, J. M. Perkins, who is ill. Mrs. J. D. Donaldson of Bandon is also at the horn egg to this office Saturday that measured 9 inches in circumference the long way, and 6 inches the shorter circumference. This is certainly some egg, and is probably the biggest Leghorn egg ever seen in Coos coun-

THREE YEARS FOR PERJURY

Judge Harris Gives Eugene Offender Stiff Sentence. EUGENE, March 6.—William

Hawks, who was indicted by the grand jury for perjury, entered a plea of guilty in circuit court and having waived time for sentence was sentenced to serve from three to ten years in the state peniten tlary. This seemed to be a surprise to the prisoner as well as others in the court room, but Judge Harris i determined to make an example of this case in an effort to prevent wholesale perjury, as has been evidenced in the past. Hawks was accused of swearing falsely as a witness for James Tay lor, who was convicted a few days

Well Mr. Baker, we had the misfortune to have our school house burned this winter and now our children are having to sit on benches around a table. hold their books in their laps. while they get their lessons. Mr. Baker, one of Marshfield's most prominent men has promised us he will donate the lumber and another one has promised us a lot for our school house, and the parents are ready to donate building the school

"Now, Mr. Baker, why can't we have a school house here. Where we could have it comfortable for our boys and girls, and not as they did in ploneer days. Furthermore, we could have a place where we could have church and Sunday school, which we are denied as it is. Now, Mr. Baker, it seems as if it was up to you to decide this for us." SOME PIONEER NEWS.

(From the Coos Bay News, published at Marshfield, March 3, 1880-Siglin & Bennett, publishers.)

The miners at Eastport are on strike.

Two schooners salled from the Coquille last week.

Plenty of rain and disagreeable weather during the past week.

James Ferry of the Blanco has gone to Randolph to attend to his black sand interests.

School meeting on Monday night. Wm. Hall re-elected director, G. Webster re-elected clerk.

Rev. R. Yoemans will preach at Empire City next Sunday morning and at Marshfield in the evening. Joe Nay of Port Orford was town last week. He brought his horse, Thad Ctevens, and sold him to Lieut, Payson for $300. Miss Henderson, a niece of Wm. Hall, Esq., arrived on the Telfair. She came direct from Tennessee and intends to make Oregon her home. The Satellite went up Coos River last Friday, towing a floating boarding house and bunkalation, also a blacksmith shop to be used as auxiliaries to the stone quarrying for the breakwater.

One of the cribs for the breakwater is about completed. There are fifteen men engaged on it and about twenty standing on the wharf expressing opinions as to its utility, manner of construction, etc.

The La Gironde was reported on shore at the north sandspit. This was a mistake. Capt. Moore says he never went ashore in Coos Bay yet, and as long as the wind doesn't run him on, he doesn't want the newspapers to do it. All right, we won't do it some more.

Louis Knapp some time ago pur hased a fine specimen, supposed to e gold, in the shape of a nugget, worth, if genuine, about $45. spuriousness was not detected, how ever, until it was transferred to Mr. Griffith, a book agent, and by him sent to the publishing company in San Francisco with whom he is deal-They took it to the mint to get it cashed. The asayer, on examination, pronounced it brass. Its shape, color and appearance would indicate a genuine nugget and well designed to mislead anyone.

Romulus, the founder of Rome, as raised by a she wolf, so says tradition, let that be true or false, but that Mr. S. Rogers was raised by a bull is a well settled fact. He is the owner of the bull and came very near being killed by him last week. ter being tossed about for some time, he happened to fall into a where the infuriated beast could not get at him, doubtless thereby saving his life. Rather a narrow escape.

From Indigestion

Your stomach should digest the food you eat, without the aid of any arti-Acial digestives. If it won't do that, th a you are continually subject to dyspepsia indigestion, heartburn, head-athes and constipation. Instead of taking digestive medicines,

Instead of taking digestive medicines, take steps to get your stomach and intestines again in a healthy, natural chadition. Jayne's Tonic Vermifuge will do this for you if you will take it regularly. It is not a digester of foods, but it will restore your stomach and attestines so that they will attend to their natural functions, digesting what you eat and giving strength to the body.

For more than eighty years thousands of men and women who had suffered the pains caused by dypepeis and indigestion have been praising this Tenic as the only remedy which brought them permanent relief. As the Tonic acts directly upon the stomach and intestines, it is a natural appetizer and strength builder.

Many forms of supposed indigestion

Many forms of supposed indigestion are the result of intestinal parasites for which Jayne's Tonic Vermifuge is uasurpassed. Insist upon Jayne's; accept no other. Sold by druggists everywhers. Dr. D. Jayne & Son, Philadelphia, Pa.

35 Different Kinds of Machines to Be Exhibited There. PORTLAND, March 7.—Not wishing to be outdone by other Northwest-ern cities, Portland's progressive automobile dealers will stage a motor show during the week of March 17-While it will not be the most elaborate nor pretentious display of gasoline charlots ever held, it will give the public and sub-dealers a long-sought opportunity to compare the cars side by side. Upwards of 35 makes of pleasure cars and 15 brands of commercial vehicles will be on dress parade.

It is the intention of the dealers to make the show an annual affair. It will be established as one of Portland's yearly attractions.

Coos Bay Business College

You know what you are worth today. What are you going to be worth five years from today? When we build a house we have a plan. When we build a career, most of us putter, dawdle, dream dreams, and wait for some favorable breeze to waft us to harbor. Lack of business training is not only a handicap-it is an absolute block to your advancement. Will you consider this a little while you are building the man or woman who later will be YOU? Start right by starting NOW-For something worth while. Positions in abundance and no trained help.
