Members of Arizona Legislature Become Alarmed and Rush to Families' Aid.

[By Associated Press to Coos Bay Times.] DOUGLAS, Ariz., March 8.—The decisive battle of the Sonora rebellion is expected today or tomorrow at Agua Prieta, across the international line from Douglas. Reports arriving today reported that the rebels, mounted and well armed, are camped a few miles south of there. During the night the rebels sent a formal demand for the surrender to General Carranza commanding 250 men, Ojeda did not reply. The alarming situation in Sonora has interfered with the work of the Arizona legislature at Phoenix. Many members at the border towns are rushing to look after their families.

[By Associated Press to Coos Bay Times.] MEXICO CITY, March 8.—It was announced today that Provisional President Huerta is considering the possibility of making public the correspondence of the closing days of the Madero administration, the object of showing that the President made strenuous efforts to incite an anti-American sentiment, throughout the republic, among the alleged orders given by Madero during the last week of his life was one that directed officers of the Mexican gunboats lying in the port of Vera Cruz to fire immediately on American marines if an attempt was made to land forces from U. S. war vessels, paying no regard to the expressed purpose of the American naval commanders solely to protect foreigners.

[By Associated Press to Coos Bay Times.] MEXICO CITY, March 8.—Three columns of the regular army and 100 adherents of Pascual Orozco are closing in on Venustiano Carranza, the rebel governor of Coahuila. The Mexican government already has called attention to it.

SIMPLE STYLE SUITS WILSON

President Will Not Have Aides Constantly—Dislikes Regal Display or Pomp.

[By Associated Press to Coos Bay Times.] WASHINGTON, March 8.—President Wilson finally decided today that he would not be accompanied in public by uniformed aides. The latter will be with him only on state occasions at the White House or at the Army or Navy functions. The president is not fond of ceremony or quasi-regal appearance, which he thinks the presence of uniformed aides invariably gives. There are twelve aides at the White House now and the number will probably be greatly reduced.

WILSON'S BROTHER LOSES.

President's Relative Fails to Land Position in Senate.

[By Associated Press to Coos Bay Times.] WASHINGTON, March 8.—J. M. Baker of South Carolina, assistant librarian of the Senate, was nominated by the Democratic caucus today for secretary. It is equivalent to election. Joseph L. Wilson, the president's brother was one of the candidates for the position.

TROUBLE IN WASHINGTON.

Madero Family Formerly Maintained Junta There.

[By Associated Press to Coos Bay Times.] WASHINGTON, March 8.—While Madero was opposing Porfirio Diaz the Madero family maintained an elaborate junta in Washington, with which both the State Department and Department of Justice seemed powerless to interfere, further than to scrutinize closely all of its movements by special agents. The Latin-American colony in Washington, which seems to have underground communications with all rumblings in Central America, is vibrating just now with all sorts of talk and much of it is hostile to the Huerta regime, mentioning prominently Venustiano Carranza, the militant governor of Coahuila as the leader in any movement for vengeance for the Maderos.

NO POST OFFICE CHANGE.

Wilson Will Not Let Down Civil Service for Democrats.

[By Associated Press to Coos Bay Times.] WASHINGTON, March 8.—President Wilson let it be known today that there is no immediate prospect of letting down of the civil service bars to the thousands of democratic bar seekers. The president told Senator Pomerene that so far, he and the cabinet have formulated no policy as to the appointments for minor positions in the department of service. There had been a report that Wilson might revoke the recent order of Taft, which put 38,000 fourth class postmasters under civil service.

Marshfield New Episcopal Church

—C. E. NICHOLSON, Architect.

THE above is the handsome new edifice which the Marshfield Episcopal congregation will erect on the site of the old church near West Sixth and Market. The new building will be 84 feet by 50 feet and is planned in the shape of a cross. The main body of the church will seat 260 people and each of the naves will seat 20, making a total seating capacity of 300. This can be increased to 400 by adding a balcony later when it is needed. Between the main body of the church and the altar, space has been reserved for a choir and pipe organ on the right and on the left is the rector's study. The plans call for a full basement in which will be located two large class rooms for the Sunday school and they can also be used for socials, etc. There is also room for a kitchen, robing room, heating plant, etc. The plans call for a reinforced concrete building, the basement to represent stone and the upper walls to be finished with cream colored stucco, the roof to be tile or artificial slate. The estimated cost is $12,000 without finishings or $15,000 complete.

RESULTS FROM ILLINOIS VICE PROBE

Chicago Department Store Advances Wages and Head of Another Blames Low Wages for Immorality.

WAGES RAISED.

[By Associated Press to Coos Bay Times.] CHICAGO, March 8.—E. F. Mandel, president of Mandel Bros., a witness yesterday before the vice investigation, reported today that he had raised the wages of juvenile employees to $4. The juveniles are from 13 to 15 years old. Girls of special tact and ability get more money.

[By Associated Press to Coos Bay Times.] CHICAGO, March 8.—Between low wages for women and immorality there is causative connection testified Edward Hillman of "Hillman's," one of the largest department stores in Chicago, when the Illinois vice commission resumed its hearing today.

"Do you think a woman would sell her virtue before she would starve?" asked Lieutenant Governor O'Hara, chairman of the commission. "Yes, I do," was the prompt answer, the first of the kind from the employers thus far heard. Hillman said 517 girls and women are employed in his store. Of these, 46 girls receive $5 and 24 get $4 and 23 earn $3.50, and six receive $3. These last are errand girls, brought in by parents to learn the business and advance higher. "If one of the $3 girls lost her virtue, would it hurt your conscience?" asked O'Hara. "Yes, certainly."

"Would you hold yourself responsible?" "Well, let's think; would I? Here is a girl brought in by her parents, living at home. Should I be responsible? I think not. I think the parents would be responsible." The witness said that he had never heard of girls being blacklisted for bad conduct, but did know floorwalkers who suffered that fate for immorality.

BAND TO GIVE BENEFIT SHOW

ARRANGES TO PRESENT "THE NIGHT OF LAUGHS" THE FIRST WEEK AFTER LENT—FIFTY IN CAST.

At a meeting of the Coos Bay Concert Band last evening, it was decided that the organization should put on a benefit show the first week after Lent. Arrangements were made to have the musical comedy or extravaganza, "The Night of Laughs," which the Moose Lodge had considered but were unable to carry out, presented. Harry Ennis, known as the "Big White Minstrel Man," is here from Los Angeles to take charge of it. About fifty home talent will take part in the play, many songs, specialties and other features being introduced. A 16-piece orchestra under the direction of Lew Keyzer will furnish music for the show.

TOBACCO TRUST CASE.

New Attorney General May Reopen Noted Legislation.

[By Associated Press to Coos Bay Times.] WASHINGTON, March 8.—Attorney General McReynolds was non-committal today about his attitude toward the American Tobacco company and former subsidiaries. Concerning the reports that he will reopen or again consider the "tobacco trust" case, the new attorney general simply said "perhaps I may." McReynolds was in direct charge of the government's prosecution which resulted in a dissolution of the "trust." The decree as finally entered by Wickersham did not meet McReynolds' approval.

Has Recovered—Jas Learmond, who was injured a few weeks ago by a logging train near Millington, is able to be up and around and has apparently recovered. He is now figuring on going to work next week.

ASK COUNCIL FOR CHANGE

Terminal Railway Expected to Insist on Submission of Third Question.

At the council meeting next Monday night, it is expected that the Terminal Railway-Southern Pacific negotiations will come up again for discussion. Messrs. Merchant, Albrecht and Ferguson turned down a question which the company wanted put on the ballot for the election on March 18. The company may appeal to the whole council to have this left on. The questions agreed to by the council are: 1. Do you approve of the Terminal Railway Company dealing with the Southern Pacific interests with a view to the transfer to it of its steam franchise in the city of Marshfield? 2. As a condition of such transfer should they be required to accept the proposed common user amendment known as the "cinch common user clause?" The question submitted by the Terminal Railway and rejected by the committee is: 3. If the Southern Pacific refuse to accept the franchise with the "cinch common user clause" inserted, then are you willing that the Terminal Railway Company make the best terms they can with the Southern Pacific in the interest of the city, without what is known as the "cinch common user clause?"

Band Separate. The vote on the question of supporting the band will be kept separate. Separate ballots of a different color will be used and they will be kept in separate ballot boxes. The band question is: 1. Shall the city contribute $150 monthly to the support of the Coos Bay Band? WOMEN HISS WITNESS.

[By Associated Press to Coos Bay Times.] WASHINGTON, March 8.—Hundreds of women crowded the corridors of the senate office building today and pleaded for admission to the room where the senate subcommittee continued its investigation of the conduct of the police during the disorders, attending the suffrage parade last Monday. Jeers and hisses greeted the statements favorable to the police and applause the statements derogatory to the officials. Rev. J. H. Neims defended the police. He said the crowd was good natured and the police tried hard to keep them back. The statement met with a chorus of "No, that isn't true," from the women who filled the committee room and corridors. C. W. MONTGOMERY left on the steamer Hardy yesterday to attend the annual meeting of the Standard Oil Company's agents at San Francisco. He will be absent about two weeks.

NOTICE

Owing to an unexpected rush of advertising late today, considerable news matter was crowded out of this evening's edition of The Times.

Los Angeles Dynamite Conspiracy Bribery Case Ends in "Hung Jury."

MAJORITY OF JURY AGAINST ACCUSED MAN Darrow Insists on Immediate Retrial—Considered Verdict 38 Hours.

[By Associated Press to Coos Bay Times.] LOS ANGELES, March 8.—The jury finally reported a disagreement in the Clarence Darrow jury bribery case. After deliberating since 8:30 yesterday morning the jury reported at 10:13 o'clock today that it could not decide whether the former chief counsel of the McNamara brothers was guilty or innocent. The vote on the last ballot according to the announcement of the foreman stood 11 to 1, but whether for acquittal or conviction he declined to say. The judge said that if there were no objections, he would issue further instructions. This was done and the jury again retired at 10:20. The Darrow jury could not agree and was finally discharged. They stood eight to four on the last ballot. They were out 38 hours. Former Judge O. W. Powers of the counsel for the defense asked for an immediate retrial. Darrow asked that the time for setting the trial be fixed on a week from next Monday. The court reminded Deputy District Attorney W. Joseph Ford that he had said during the closing arguments of the case that he would not try the case again. Ford said that he referred only to his own personal attitude, as he had no authority to speak for District Attorney Fredericks. After court adjourned one of the jurors said that twelve ballots were taken and the best that Darrow had at any time was six jurors. District Attorney Fredericks said later that Darrow can have a new trial. Fredericks was confident this jury would convict Darrow.

NO ELECTION IN MYRTLE POINT

Can't Vote on Wet and Dry Issue Before 1914 Unless Charter Is Changed.

The city of Myrtle Point can't vote on the wet and dry issue before the November election in 1914, unless it changes its charter at once and provides for holding its annual city election on the first Tuesday after the first Monday in November. Judge Coke so decided and refused the writ of mandamus sought by J. O. Stemmler, L. Strong and J. E. Schilling, to compel the county court to call an election April 7. He sustained the action of Judge Hall and the commissioners in denying the petition for the election. His holding is similar to interpretations of the Home Rule law by Attorney General Crawford, District Attorney Brown and Deputy District Attorney Liljeqvist. Mr. Liljeqvist argued the case before Judge Coke, Tom Bennett and Bennett Swanton representing the parties who wanted to force the election.

UNABLE TO LOAD FREIGHT OFFERED

Alliance Leaves Goods Behind at Portland and Breakwater Turns it Down.

The Alliance arrived in today from Portland with a fair list of passengers and a capacity cargo of freight. Captain Lofsted reports they were unable to take all the freight offered them at Portland. In the incoming freight was a carload of Washington apples and a car load of potatoes. There is a big accumulation of freight at Portland for Coos Bay and wires from there today stated that the Breakwater was already turning down freight. George Goodrum has a carload of autos, eight Ford machines, coming on her. The Alliance will sail at 10:30 Sunday for Eureka. Among those arriving on her were: F. A. Daly, J. Early, B. R. Jones, W. A. C. Riley, M. Dubay, W. M. Dubay, E. J. Hayman, F. Magnusson, S. P. Peirce, F. J. Morris, Mrs. F. J. Morris, J. G. Lyons, Miss E. Hansen, W. Galileo, Mina Hall, A. Rogers and M. Sois.
