C. W. B. M.

The C. W. B. M. met with Mrs. R. A. Cople last Wednesday afternoon. Mrs. Ora McCarty was the leader of the meeting and the subject, "The training of children," took the form of a round table discussion.

Miss Elizabeth Topping was present and gave an interesting talk.

In the late afternoon the hostess assisted by Mrs. George Coleman, served dainty refreshments to her guests, who were:

Mrs. Z. O. Doward, Mrs. Mattie Blain, Mrs. John Snyder, Mrs. Immel, Mrs. Ora McCarty, Mrs. Edwin Busby, Mrs. Vernon Buell, Mrs. J. C. Jones, Mrs. Addison Cook, Mrs. Hendryx, Mrs. W. B. Cox and Miss Elizabeth Topping.

The next meeting will be held Tuesday, April 1st, with Mrs. Z. O. Doward.

M. E. LADIES' AID

The Methodist Ladies Aid met at the church Wednesday afternoon and made tamales. The ladies made and sold one hundred tamales.

Next Wednesday the aid will have a social meeting at the home of Mrs. J. E. Edmunds in South Marshfield.

HIGH SCHOOL PICNIC

Practically all of the Marshfield high school students and faculty are today enjoying a picnic at the government works in the lower Bay, the Alice H. being chartered for the outing. The picnic is being tendered by the half of the high school which was defeated in the recent ticket selling contest for the high school minstrel show.

FAREWELL LUNCHEON

A delightful luncheon of this week was that given Monday afternoon by Mrs. W. F. Miller as a farewell to her sister-in-law, Mrs. J. C. Miller, who left today to visit at her former home in St. Louis, Mo.

After luncheon the guests spent the afternoon sewing.

The invited ladies were: Mrs. T. C. Russell, Mrs. F. M. Parsons, Mrs. W. A. Reid, Mrs. C. A. Schibrede, Mrs. W. Schroeder, Mrs. F. S. Dow, Mrs. Diment, Mrs. Harper, Mrs. C. H. Marsh, Mrs. E. F. Morrissey and Mrs. A. T. Haines.

BAPTIST LADIES

The Ladies Baptist Missionary Circle met in the church last Wednesday afternoon. The meeting was opened with a short business session, after which the program for the afternoon was successfully carried out. The subject was, "The History of the Mormons." Mrs. R. H. Corey read an interesting paper on "The Origin of Mormonism," and Mrs. Alva Doll and Mrs. Colvin read reviews of the chapters on "Mormonism."

At the close of the program Mrs. John Nagle, assisted by Mrs. Alva Doll, served refreshments. The next meeting of the Circle is to be April 2nd.

Those present at Wednesday's meeting were:

Rev. Bassford, Mrs. Jno. Nagle, Mrs. Alva Doll, Mrs. R. H. Corey and Ruth Corey, Mrs. O. O. Lund, Miss Mamie Gulovson, Mrs. C. H. Marsh, Mrs. Stromberg, Mrs. C. O. Gansy and two children, Mrs. A. Z. Toye, Mrs. E. G. Flanagan, Mrs. Georgia Small, Mrs. George Murch, Mrs. James Forty, Mrs. Wm. Ledward, Mrs. Mary McKnight, Rev. and Mrs. Robert E. Browning. The Rector opened the meeting with prayer, after which the President, Mrs. George Murch, took the chair and announced the business matters that were to come before the meeting. Each member of the Auxiliary, which includes all the baptized ladies of the Church, is asked to prepare some article of donate something that is of service for a box to be sent to Alaska to be used in the missionary work among the Alaska Indians. This box is to be ready by the early part of May. Any article of clothing for children that is still in good condition may be sent in for this missionary box, the place to which they are to be sent to be announced later. The Rector gave a short talk on the spirit of Missions and spoke of two special features that are to be carried out under the auspices of the Auxiliary. Next Friday evening Archdeacon Chambers will give an illustrated lecture in the Church on the missionary work in Oregon. This promises to be an interesting lecture, and on the following Sunday evening there will be a special missionary service with an address by Archdeacon Chambers and also by the Rector.

After the business meeting refreshments were served and the meeting adjourned to meet on the first Tuesday in April at the home of Mrs. E. G. Flanagan.
