

MYRTLE POINT POINTERS.

News of Upper Coquille Valley as Told by The Enterprise. Wednesday C. E. Russell received the sad news of the death of his father, Wm. Russell of Los Angeles, California.

George Griffin went to Coquille to pay his taxes and look after other business Tuesday. Mr. Griffin informs the Eenterprise that this is the last time that he will pay taxes on the ranch he has owned on the North Fork for several years, h baving closed a deal last Friday in which he sold the same.

Mrs. Bessle Lola Stout, wife of Sam Stout, died at the family home near McKinley on Wednesday afternoon at the age of 27 years, 1 month and 20 days.

At the home of the officiating clergyman, Rev. Thos. Barkiow, on Wednesday evening, Feb. 6, occurred the marriage of T. Cooke to Miss Belle Stevens. Mr. Cook is the popular proprietor of the Myrtle Point Pool and Billiard Parlors.

Friends of Dal M. King, a Myrtle Point boy, now attending the University of Oregon, will be inter-ested and glad to hear that the young man has been selected as one the of the debating team of two U. of O. boys who meet a like team from Stanford University in debate this spring.

Chas. A. Southwick, who had charge of the Enterprise during the publisher's absence, expects to leave on the Breakwater Saturday for Portland.

E. Arneson went to Coquille yes terday morning, part of his mission being to appear before the county commissioners to ask them to furnish material to plank a short stretch of the county road northeast of this city. Mr. Arneson says the ranchers are willing to haul the lumber and put it in place if the county will furnish it.

CULLINGS OF COQUILLE.

Coos County Seat News as Told by The Sentinel.

Mr. John Meyer and Miss Myrtle Sentinel Moore, both of Bandon, were maried in this city on Wednesday, Rev. Cleaves, pastor of the Methodist church, officiating. W. L. Mast, the Bandon diver, recovered the large pile-driver from the Coquille river at this point the first of the week. The wind blew the derrick over and lost the hammer Married on Wednesday last by J J. Stanley, justice of the peace, at his office in Coquille, Willis Whobrey of Myrtle Point, Oregon, and Mary McDonald of this city.

Taxes are now due and payable with three per cent rebate if paid before March 15th. Those not de-siring to pay all before March 15th may pay one-half before the first Monday in April with no rebate, and the other half on or before the first

NEWS OF ALLEGANY. (Special to The Times.) Robert Rooke, who was out teaming yesterday, reports the road in condition at the divide. bad A. N. Gould is surveying land for H. Price of Allegany,

Mr. Rehfeld, son and wife, came

Jim Parker of Loon Lake is vislting in Marshfield and North Bend.

MYRTLE POINT FIRE.

Incubator Starts Bad Blaze While

Owner Is at Church.

The Myrtle Point Enterprise says:

A fire probably caused by the ex-

losion of a lamp in an incubator

Friday night, destroyed a woodshed and storehouse belonging to Henry

Ranzier, living just across the river

Northwest of the city. The Ranzier family were in town attending services at church and had it not been for the timely discovery of the fire

by Isaac Barklow, who lives nearby, he flames might easily have been communicated to the residence which is but a few feet distant. The incubator and brooder, filled with iggs and young chicks, respectively,

some canned fruit and other household articles, are the loss, amount-ing to about $100.

PROVIDE COQUILLE PARK.

of a ten-acre tract of land for park

purposes, which have been pending

The property is known is Patterson

Grove, and is one of the most sightly tracts within easy reach. tI is the purpose of the purchasers to hold the property until such time as the city is financially able to take it over,

and in the meantime to give free use

The negotiations for the purchase

brooder,

about 9:00 o'clock last to Eugene Terry's yesterday, They are getting out myrtle wood.

BRIEFS OF BANDON.

THE COOS BAY TIMES, MARSHFIELD, OREGON, TUESDAY, MARCH 11, 1913-EVENING EDITION.

News of City-by-the-Sea as Told by the World.

Mrs. Nels Rasmussen, assisted by Mrs. J. L. Kronenberg and Mrs. F. V. Catterlin, entertained a number of her lady friends Monday afternoon, the occasion being the first birthday of little Lucile Rasmussen. The annual meeting of the Presbyterian Ladies' Aid was held at the home of Mrs. McNair Wednesday afternoon. The following offi-cers were elected for the ensuing year: Mrs. Sam Johnson, president; Mrs. S. Whitsett, vice president; Mrs. A. J. Weddle, secretary; Mrs.

Arthur Gale, treasurer, A bouncing boy babe was born to Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Linn, last night. R. M. Weddle of this office is at Marshfield today to meet his sister, Miss Alfa Weddle, who is coming from Vancouver, B. C., to Ban-don, to make her home. A deal is in progress today where-by Messrs. Finch & Schroeder of Arago, lease the entire lower floor of the Hartman concrete building. We understand a modern restau-rant will be established.

Whitsett & Johnson's and W. C. Seilmer's new Forl cars purchased of F. V. Catterlin will arrive from Portland on the rest bont, Dicg Puell is at Myrtle Poin building a house on the ranch, and when the same 1, considered he will be joined by its wife.

The new store of E. J. Reid on Abernethy street is rapily assummy proportions under the guiding hand some time, were consummated this week, and it is now certain that Co-quille will have a public playground. NEW BANDON HOT

NEW BANDON HOTEL.

E. G. Cassidy of the Bandon House has secured an eight-year lease on that property and has let a contract for a 54-foot, two story extension to the hotel, besides other alterations such as steam heat, hot and in the meantime to give free use of the grounds to the public. The price paid is $2,100, and the buyers are Mayor A. T. Morrison, Council-man Cary, Pierce, Skeels, Lyons, Leach and Laird, and Messrs. Bar-rows, Strang and Norton.—Coquille Soution.

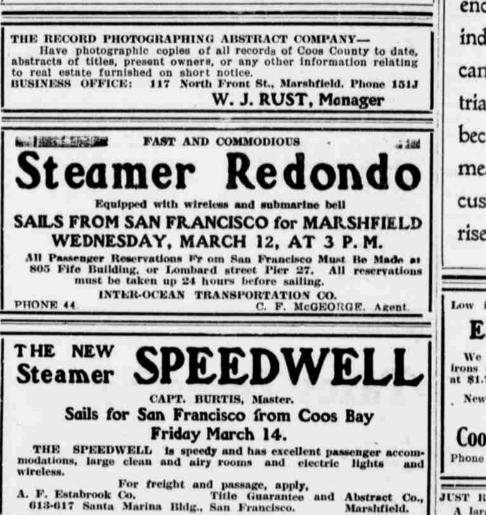

Have your job printing done at The Times office.

Whatever Cut

MARSHFIELD CASH MARKET.

FOURIER BROS.

221-J Two Markets 51

Everybody's chewin' it. Chewin' what? "Best-yu-got"

A GOOD CANDY

Bradley Candy Co,'s makin' it. Everybody's sellin' It.

Sunrise Mik Every grocery caries it.

Try

It always give satisfaction. Man on Coos Bay. But up your community by helping and encouraging home industry. Order can tomorrow. A trial is all we ask because it always means a steam customer for Sunrise Milk.

Monday in October.

The secretary of the Commercial club has received a letter from C. C Chapman of the Oregon Develop-ment League, in which he says, among other things, that he hopes to visit Coquille during the coming season.

The M. W. A. club is a new organization recently perfected in this city with M. C. Tozier as president, M. O. Hawkins, vice president, and N. C. Kelley, secretary and treas-urer, and whose primary object is social enjoyment. The Modern Woodmen of America lodge has a membership of about eighty-five and as only members of this order are admitted to membership in the club. W. H. Thomas, a resident of this county for forty years, and of Coquille during the past four years moved to Dora yesterday. He has bought the Bunch farm of sixty-five The land is improved, and асгев. next season he will engage in dairying exclusively.

BEDILLION IN IT.

Old Time Baseball Fan of Bandon Heads Club There. The Bandon World says:

At an enthusiastic meeting of Bandon business men and baseball enthusiasts held Tuesday evening in the Commercial Club rooms the organization for the 1913 schedule was perfected and the following officers elected:

- R. E. L. Bedillion, manager,
- Jack Sullivan, president, J. L. Kronenberg, vice president. C. A. Meade, secretary.
- W. A. LeGore, treasurer.

The business men have contri-buted liberally and Bandon is as-sured a quality of baseball this year that will make all Oregon take notice.

There will be another meeting of enthusiasts held in the club rooms next Tuesday evening.

A COLD, LA GRIPPE, THEN PNEUMONIA.

Is too often the fatal sequence. La grippe coughs hang on, weaken the system, and lower the vital resist-ence. R. G. Collins, Postmaster, Par-negat, N. J., says:- "I was troubled with a severe La Grippe cough which with a severe La Grippe cough which completely exhausted me. Foley's Honey and Tar Compound soon stop-ped the coughing spells entirely. It can't be beat." For sale by Lockhart & Parsons, The Busy Cor-

Use Electric Roof Signs

prisingly low.

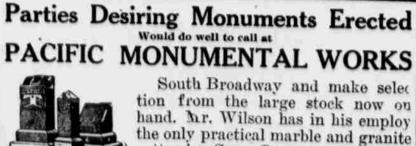

They will be seen for miles and afford the widest and most attractive advertising obtainable for little expense. New York's sky line is ablaze after night with electric roof signs, which are seen by millions of people-in the street-in the harbor-on the elevated-on incoming and outging trains.

That electric signs are profitable to the advertiser is evidenced by the number already installed in Marshfield. There is room for many more. We can help you secure the location and our experts will be glad to design an effective installation for you. The cost of operation is surprisingly little.

For particulars telephone 178 and ask for the New Business Department.

Oregon Power Co.

2nd and Central

the only practical marble and granite cutter in Coos County. And none but the best work is turned out.