REBEL FORCES NEARLY SURROUND GENERAL OJEDA IN SONORA TODAY

Federal Force's Only Chance of Flight Is Apparently Into U. S.

FOUR AMERICANS HIT DURING NOGALES FIGHT

Insurrectos Promise to Try and Avoid International Complications Now.

[By Associated Press to Coos Bay Times.]
DOUGLAS, Ariz., March 14.—Batting against an overwhelming force of rebels, unconditional surrender or flight over the line into Arizona, were the alternatives presented today to General Ojeda, the federal commander who evacuated Agua Prieta two days ago with the avowed intention of marching to Nogales and reinforcing the garrison there. He reached Naco during the night, only to learn that Nogales had been captured by the constitutionalists. Thus Ojeda with 500 federal regulars are bottled up in Naco, with strong bodies of rebels closing in from the east, west and south. A force of 400 constitutionalists under Elias Calles left Agua Prieta before daybreak to pursue the federal and later Bracamonte departed on the same mission. All were freshly mounted, well armed and well provisioned. South of Naco are more state troops under Obregon, while a force from Obregon's column, which yesterday took Nogales, is closing in from the west. The constitutionalists in their eagerness to pursue Ojeda's force left a force of only 200 to guard Agua Prieta.

FEARS KINNEY WILL COLLAPSE

Worry Over Wilsey Deal Said to Be Cause of Possible Nervous Breakdown.

Major L. D. Kinney is reported to be on the verge of a nervous breakdown, according to a telegram from A. S. Hammond, who is in Portland. Mr. Hammond is a wire to Fred Hollister and others in North Bend, stated yesterday that it was feared that Major Kinney would suffer another breakdown similar to the one that caused him to enter a sanitarium in San Francisco a year or so ago.

Worry over the details of the Kinsey-Wilsey deal and the troubles he is having with some of his creditors are said to be the cause of possible collapse.

Hammond is also said to have stated that Mr. Wilsey had stated that the deal could not be settled except through a receiver. It was also intimated that Kinney might consent soon to the receivership.

EXPLAINS HIGHER PRICE OF MEAT

President Leonard of Union Stockyards of Chicago Says No Reduction in Less Than Seven Years.

[By Associated Press to Coos Bay Times.]
CHICAGO, March 14.—Arthur G. Leonard, president of the Union Stock Yards Company sent the following reply to a telegram of inquiry from Mrs. Julian Heath, president of the National Housewives League, as to the cause for the increase in the price of meats throughout the country.

"for the period since January 1, as compared with the same period of 1912, the total decrease in receipts in Chicago was 646,600 meat animals of every type and the amount will aggregate two hundred million pounds." Leonard said the higher prices were due to shortage, the shortage due to the wiping out of a large amount of range country and its division into smaller farms. He said that the shortage had been increasing in the last seven years and that it will take a similar period to build up the cattle raising industry so that any material reduction in prices will be possible.

SAN QUENTIN, Cal., March 14.—Poolos Prantikos was hanged in the San Quentin penitentiary today for having killed two policemen, Charles Caste and Thomas Finnely in San Francisco, Nov. 26, 1911. Three days ago Prantikos broke from his guards while crossing the prison yard clambered up a street tower calling to the guards to shoot. "Kill me now," he shouted, "Don't let me suffer this suspense; I can't wait till Friday, it's too long."

PORTERS PLAN BIG INCREASE

Will Soon Have 3000 Men Hastening Construction of Line to Coos Bay.

EUGENE, Ore., March 14.—Within a month, Porter Bros. will have 3000 men at work on the grading for the Willamette Pacific line to the Stuslaw. All of the clearing has been completed from the Notl tunnel, where the Porter Bros. contract begins, to Acme and the camps have already been established. The company has been busy all winter accumulating supplies at Mapleton and at the camp a mile and a half above Mapleton and now has on hand all of the equipment and supplies necessary. Of the 450 feet to be cut in the Wildcat tunnel, 320 feet have been completed and this will be finished in 40 days.

TWOHY BROS. PLANS.

Put Additional Men to Work on Coos Bay Line.
A Portland paper says: Work on the Willamette Pacific, the Southern Pacific line between Eugene and Marshfield, is being prosecuted with more vigor now that the weather is more favorable. Quite a number of crews have been put to work recently and Twohy Bros., who have the sub-contract for a stretch of road out of Eugene, have opened their offices in Eugene near the depot.

There are 16 miles of grade now ready for the steel and tracklaying will probably begin on April 15. The first sixteen miles out of Eugene will bring the tracks to Elmira. The big tunnel at Notl will be finished in about three months. (Continued on Page Six.)

STOLEN CHITTIM BARK LOCATED

Eddie Stice and Cavour Helming Convicted of Serious Offense.

Eddie Stice and Cavour Helming, two young boys, were arrested last evening for stealing chittum bark from a warehouse of Henry Sengstacken and selling it to F. S. Dow. The boys had been doing a rushing business in the past two weeks and had sold to Mr. Dow $76.36 worth of Sengstacken's chittum bark.

The thefts had not been noticed by Mr. Sengstacken until yesterday morning when he discovered the door of his warehouse open. He went inside and discovered that a large number of sacks of chittum bark had disappeared and also that a new truck had been taken.

A little search with the aid of Marshal Carter soon fixed the identity of the offenders. The Stice boy is 15 years old and his folks had been conducting the Lattin hotel. The Helming boy is 16 years old.

When confronted with the theft the lads admitted the offense. It seems that they had been taking the sacks of chittum bark from the warehouse through a window but yesterday morning they opened the door from the inside and instead of packing the sacks on their shoulders took a truck that was lying there and wheeled it down the street to Dow's office where employees took it and paid for it.

The boys were taken before Judge Hall in Juvenile Court. After lecturing them severely, he agreed that they should be allowed to go on probation if they would refund Mr. Dow the money they had secured from him for the stolen chittum which was returned to Sengstacken by Dow.
