SATURDAY
 Dance in Sumner Hall.

to Gus Adelsperger, Carl Davis and Cornell Lagerstrom.—Myrtle Point Enterprise.

Men for Railway—Twenty-seven men arrived on the Redondo this morning for Willett & Barr, the contractors of the Smith-Powers road, beyond Myrtle Point.

Special Service—Rev. G. LeRoy Hall announces that he will conduct services Sunday afternoon at 2:30 at the home of W. J. Howard on North Inlet.

New Auto Line—Mr. Craig who recently purchased Ward M. Blake's old Cadillac, has started an auto service between Marshfield and Bunker Hill, giving hourly service. This makes the second auto line between here and Bunker Hill.

Bolt Chosen—Eric Bolt, son of Mr. and Mrs. Geo. N. Bolt of Marshfield, has been chosen as representative of the Willamette University at Salem in the Oregon Oratorical contest to be held at Pacific College this evening. The Willamette University College publication says that Willamette is confident that Bolt will carry off the honors.

Plans Completed—The plans have been completed for the three-story frame office building, candy factory and warehouse which the Bradley Candy company will erect on North Front street. The structure will be built especially for a candy factory, but will have room for the offices and also for a warehouse. It is hoped to get it started soon.

Reported Injured—It was reported around town today that a woman was quite seriously hurt when Foote's auto struck the railing on the North Front street elevated roadway last night with a party of joyriders. Mr. Foote denied it and said that no one was hurt. He would not give the names of the people in the party.

Lecture Tonight—There will be a free illustrated lecture by Archdeacon H. D. Chambers in the Episcopal church this evening at 7:30 on the subject of "The Church in Oregon." Archdeacon Chambers has gathered together for his lecture a number of very beautiful slides of scenery in Oregon and those who saw them at Bandon and Coquille were very favorably impressed. All Christian people of Marshfield are cordially invited to be present.

Notice of Taft—Jean Bell Hickok, a song, dance and monologue artist, arrived here yesterday on the Speedwell to open an engagement at the Lemanski theaters. She has just closed a six weeks' engagement at the Regal theater in Los Angeles. She is a niece of W. H. Taft, former president of the United States. She has a letter from Taft, written March 8, 1909, in which he says: "I am very glad to receive the congratulations and good wishes of all my relatives and thank you for writing."

Case Ended—With the settlement of N. C. McLeod's claim for $100 attorney fee, which he had secured by a mortgage on the lot which W. H. Burghagen had deeded to Mrs. Burghagen, the Burghagen divorce cases is ended. Mr. Burghagen made a cash settlement with his former wife's attorney for $50 and thereby eliminated the cloud that the mortgage might be on the property which reverts to him under the decree. It is stated that Mrs. Burghagen's former name was Ida M. Coney instead of Ida M. Downer.

Boy Injured—The six-year-old son of Walter Robertson, former marshal of Eastside, sustained the loss of a finger in an accident the other day. The father was sawing a big piece of wood and the lad was pushing the sawdust away and ac-identally got his finger in the saw. The top was cut off the first finger and two other fingers were injured.

New Auto Truck—C. H. Walter is learning the mysteries of operating an auto truck, having received a Reo truck for his transfer business.

Sailor Arrested—Pontius Sellenby, a sailor, was arrested this afternoon by Marshal Carter for causing a disturbance on the waterfront. The first time Sellenby broke and ran and got away but was located a few hours later. Then he showed fight and Marshal Carter brought forth his billy and took him to jail to sober up.

Redondo in Today—The Redondo arrived in today from San Francisco with a good cargo of merchandise and a big shipment of cement. She had a number of passengers, mostly workmen for the Smith-Powers railway. She will sail from here Sunday afternoon at 4:30 for San Francisco and San Pedro, her first trip to the latter port in a year.

Mrs. Weinstein at Empress—Mrs. Elfreda Heller Weinstein of Portland who appeared in a concert in Marshfield, under the direction of the Chamaine Club, is to be headliner this week at the new Empress theater in Portland. Mrs. Weinstein has recently returned from a European trip where she was offered an operatic engagement at the Vienna Opera House. However, she preferred to return home to Oregon to resume concert work and teaching.

Was Overlooked—The contest between W. J. Rust and Robert M. Smythington of the Southport Coal Company over a sixty-acre tract on Isthmus Inlet, about two miles above Millington, calls attention to the fact that the valuable land was overlooked by homesteaders until last September. It was marked on the plats as part of the old Coos Bay Wagon road grant but the company had never selected it. Rust entered on it as a homestead and Smythington as coal land. The contest will be heard May 1.

Firemen Arrested—Harry Nelson, a fireman on the Breakwater, was found guilty of assaulting Jas. Mitchell, a mess boy on the ship. Nelson pleaded not guilty, but Justice Penock decided otherwise after hearing the story of the fray and seeing Mitchell's badly battered face. Nelson having kicked him. Nelson was considerably larger than Mitchell. He refused to pay a $5 fine and was committed to the city jail where he will serve ten days if he doesn't pay.

Coquille Girl Dead—Miss Mamie Hawkins, the 11-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. M. O. Hawkins of Coquille, died at Mercy Hospital last night of a complication of diseases. She was brought to the hospital to undergo an operation three weeks ago, but an acute of Bright's disease prevented the operation and terminated fatally. Her father was formerly deputy assessor. The body was sent to Coquille by G. W. Dungan this morning and the funeral will be held there.

AN EXTRACT FROM EXTRACTS
 Our extracts are guaranteed to be pure and give good satisfaction. We carry a full line and our prices are right. Try a 1/2 oz. bottle of our vanilla extract, and compare this with other extracts that you pay more for. All our extracts are put in plain bottles, therefore you get full weight, so don't be deceived by the large paralleled bottles that are used by other firms. Our extracts contain no more, but appear twice as large. When you buy extracts from us we sell you extracts and when you want to call on the glass company. This is our policy. Try us and we will make good.
