FEMININE CULTURE.

SAYS the New York World in commenting upon the fact that women outnumber men about ten to one at lectures on philosophy and art:
The women of the United States, indeed, in addition to arrogating to themselves new political rights, have made themselves the custodians of intellectual concerns. They are the stewardesses of our national culture and their supervision ranges from popular fiction to the more serious fields of mental productivity. It is the novels they read, the theories they endorse and the social, religious or philosophic movements they support that flourish and gain vogue.
The World's observation is corroborated by other conspicuous authorities. And while women have made so much headway in the arts and in general cultural and intellectual pursuits, it would seem that they are at least on the way to that stage of well-rounded information that will make them intelligent and consistent voters.

WITH THE TOAST AND THE TEA

GOOD EVENING

Good conversation is not to be expected in much company because few listen and there is continual interruption.—Swift.

Lucky for Him That They Met.
'I'm sorry that we ever met,' I heard ma tellin' pa last night.
And pa said he was sadder yet. I guess he said it just for spite.
Then ma she scolded pa some more and after that commenced to cry.
And threw her new hat on the floor and said she wished that she could die.

Pa said that he was just a slave and hadn't any right to live. The more he earned the more he gave, the more ma wanted him to give.

'I never get a chance to play. I'm just a drudge, that's what I am.'
Pa said, and then he went away and gave the door an awful slam.

When I was gettin' into bed and ma bent down to hear my prayers She cried some more and turned her head and said her life was full of cares.

I'm sorry for them both, and yet I'm glad they can't be free agen. Because if they had never met, why I would be a orphan then.

Some people on Coos Bay can stand everything pretty well except the prosperity of their neighbors.

Occasionally a man has the last word in an argument with his wife, but he has to say it under his breath.

One way to get rich is to lock your money in a vault and induce other people to give you theirs to invest.

The little a man wants here below is generally a little above the ordinary.

There was an old man of Nantucket. Who kept all the cash in a bucket; But his daughter named Nan, Ran away with a man— And as for the bucket, Nantucket.

With the first scratch on the parlor furniture the bride enters upon the tragedy of married life.

'What is your favorite illustrated paper?' Ray Kaufman asked Dorsey Kretzler.
'First national $20.00 note,' Dorsey replied.

A Girl's Thoughts.
'Does a girl ever think of anything in this world except marriage?
'Oh, yes.'
'Well, what?'
'How to get married.'

The Wise Mother.
The parcel post has its disappointments. A runaway boy in Oklahoma wrote home for money, but mother sent him sandwiches by mail instead.

STRANDED BARK MIMI MAY BE FLOATED.

ASTORIA, March 11.—The work of discharging ballast from the stranded German bark Mimi is under way, and it was reported that at high tide the vessel moved slightly, a sign, shipping men are confident, which means it is not hard and fast on the Nehalem beach by any means. Through getting rid of most of her ballast, it is estimated that she will float from four to four and one-half feet higher, and as by that time four anchors will be in deep water held by heavy steel hawsers, it is hoped that she can be saved.

Two powerful donkey engines of the type ordinarily used for logging purposes are being taken aboard on skids. It is planned to place them well aft, and the skids will be removed, so the engines can be fastened to the deck. One cable is on the ground that will be connected with two heavy anchors, and another is on the way from San Francisco. A derrick barge will be towed around with which to deposit the anchor in position.

TWENTY DAYS FOR ROBBERY

A. ANDERSON STEALS CHARLES ZOST'S ROLL OF CLOTHING WHEN LATTER IS ARRESTED FOR INTOXICATION—PLEADS GUILTY.

A. Anderson, until recently employed at Smith-Powers Camp No. 2, was sentenced to 20 days in the county jail today by Justice Pennock when he pleaded guilty to the charge of having stolen the outfit of Charles Zost. Zost had been celebrating a little and was taken to jail by Marshal Carter to sober up Saturday. Then Anderson happened along and picked up Zost's roll of blankets in the Shamrock saloon and took them to the Central Rooming house. There he took out the boots and sold them to W. K. Wiseman. He also sold a pair of gloves and all but the latter were recovered. Anderson said he wouldn't have stolen the articles only that he was drunk at the time he took them and did not know what he was doing. Anderson is about 45.

Loses Watch.

Ira Gerber of Smith-Powers Camp No. 2 today notified Marshal Carter that someone stole an open face watch from him at Coaledo Saturday. The watch was a screw-case, engraved with a stag and had a 17-jewel P. S. Bartlett-Waltham movement, No. 17,936,285. Marshal Carter is searching for it today.

After Forger.

County Attorney Liljeqvist is here today from Coquille to secure additional evidence in the Edmonds forgery case. Sheriff Gage is at Salem for the requisition and Gov. West is away, but he discovered the additional evidence was needed.

Mr. Liljeqvist is elated over his appointment as county attorney, and intimated that he would proceed to clean up the county so far as possible and that the law will be enforced to the very best of his ability.

LOCAL OVERFLOW.

Eastside Building.—C. F. Williams, who recently arrived here from Oklahoma, has purchased four lots, 100x100 feet, on Eastside, a block from the new school house, from J. D. Clinkinbeard of Sumner, for $1650. Mr. Williams has informed Wm. Leaton that he plans to erect a three-story brick building on the property, the first story for store purposes.

High Wind.—A squall struck Marshfield about 2 o'clock this morning and for an hour or two threatened to cause havoc. The wind blew in fitful gusts at a terrific speed. Although many were awakened and frightened, no damage was reported today.

Grow Shamrock Here.—There was no general observance of St. Patrick's Day here today although the "wearing of the green" was general. Many had the real shamrock to adorn their lapels with as the real shamrock grows here, S. B. Cathcart and others having it. Some years ago some of the shamrock was sent here from Ireland and it was found that it would flourish here almost as well as it did on the Emerald Isle.

DAN CAMPBELL will leave in a few days for an extended visit at Portland, Seattle and other northern points.

Kinney Case.—Nothing new has developed in the Kinney case, except that in letter to parties here, Major Kinney declares that he is absolutely opposed to the receivership proceedings. Fred Hollister and N. C. McLeod of North Bend were here today but Trustee Rust said that he had not been apprised of any changes in it.

Along the Waterfront.

The steam schooner Tramp returned from Port Orford last evening with eighteen hundred pounds of deep sea fish for local markets. The Tramp left Port Orford at noon yesterday and reports a good trip up.

Clarence Harris of Sumner has left orders with W. H. Cavanaugh of Eastside for the construction of a gasoline launch. A sixty horse-power engine will be installed and the craft will be used for charter work. The Hardy, which is loading at the C. A. Smith mill will sail tonight or tomorrow.

The Adeline Smith and Nann Smith are both due in tomorrow from Bay Point.

The Glendale is soon to load at the depot from the Coquille mill.

The Roscoe and the Robarts sailed yesterday for Florence.

HOPES FOR ANDERSON.

A Portland paper Friday printed the following: "For Anderson, victory may mean that the sensational youngster will draw a July 4 match with Willie Ritchie. Promoter McCarey will try to stage such a mill if Ritchie refuses to meet Joe Rivers at Vernon on Independence day. At the worst, it will assure Anderson of a crack at the Los Angeles Mexican in the near future."

The Medford Sun says: "Friday afternoon Tom Jones, manager of Ad Wolgast, bet $1600 to $2000 that Brown would win at the prevailing odds of 10 to 8. This money was covered by local followers of the 'Pride' in jig time. Jones picks Brown to win, while Wolgast favors Anderson."

ADDITIONAL SOCIETY NEWS

Mr. and Mrs. C. F. McKnight returned last week from a ten days' stay in Portland and nearby towns. Mrs. McKnight, while Mr. McKnight was attending to business affairs, visited with her sister, Mrs. L. L. Porter, at Oregon City. She also had a pleasant visit with Miss Cleve, who spent several weeks here last year as a guest at the McKnight home, at Oregon City.

Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Tower left Sunday on the Redondo for San Francisco on a business and pleasure trip, the latter including a visit with their daughter, Miss Nora, who will be enjoying her Easter vacation at the University of California at Berkeley.

The Thimble Club will hold its next meeting with Mrs. F. E. Glazier, Tuesday, March 25.

Mrs. Elizabeth Lawlor, who is here from Portland, will make an extended visit to her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Howard.

PLAN FOR BALL

Invitations for the initial grand ball and banquet of the El-Kab-Klub, the Marshfield branch of the Shriners, have just been issued. It will be given at the Masonic hall Tuesday evening, April 1, and promises to be a most elaborate affair, a vocal and instrumental program being arranged as well as a banquet of toasts to follow the dancing. The committees in charge are:

Invitation committee—George W. Welstead, Carl W. Evertsen, J. T. McGuire, C. F. McKnight and A. B. Gidley.

Program committee—Chas. I. Reigard, F. E. Allen and A. B. Gidley.

Refreshment committee—E. S. Bargett, Albert Seelig and A. T. Haines.

Decorating committee—E. K. Jones, E. L. Robinson and Irving Chandler.

Finance committee—Anson Rogers, J. Albert Matson and C. W. Bennett.

Reception committee—Members of El-Kab-Klub.

POET'S CLUB.

Capt. T. J. Macgenn is making plans to organize a "Favorite Poet's Club" in Marshfield. Plans for it have not been quite perfected. The idea is to meet occasionally and furnish selections from each member's favorite author. It is expected to enroll most of the lovers of poetic literature. Among those suggested for membership are:

Mrs. E. Mingus, Mrs. Henry Sengstacken, Mrs. J. W. Bennett, Mrs. I. S. Kaufman, Mrs. J. T. Harpman, Mrs. E. K. Jones, Mrs. J. Albert Matson, Mrs. D. Maloney, and Mrs. Herbert Lockhart.

NORTH BEND NOTES.

Mrs. Ed. Landenberg and little daughter are expected here soon to visit at the home of Mrs. Landenberg's parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Imhoff on Sherman avenue.

Clare Cavanaugh of old North Bend spent Saturday with relatives at Eastside.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Backman of Marshfield visited friends here yesterday.

Mr. and Mrs. W. U. Douglas and children of West Marshfield were North Bend visitors Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. E. G. Smith of South Coos River attended Presbyterian services at Marshfield yesterday.

The Hardy came in Saturday and is taking on a cargo of lumber at old North Bend.

Miss Olive Richards of Sumner, Misses Elna and Huldur Selander of Catching Inlet were over Sunday guests of Dr. Birl Clark.

Mrs. G. Bennett and Mrs. R. K. Booth of Marshfield visited friends here yesterday.

Miss Alpha Wicklund spent yesterday with relatives at Empire.

C. H. Farris, who has been employed at Bullard, Ore., returned home Saturday.

Wm. Simpson of Eastside was a visitor at the Chas Cavanaugh home yesterday.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Black and daughters, Selma and Lois, were guests Sunday at the Geo. Black home.

Mrs. F. G. Gamble left on the Speedwell yesterday for California points.

E. L. Wood of Bangor has taken the position of Lou Loomis at the Coos Bay Grocery.

A. L. Gubser is a business visitor at Marshfield today.

Richard Coke has been the guest of his daughter, Mrs. I. B. Bartle, for the last few days.

Mrs. Jennie M. Stewart of Bangor, marketed the first Coos Bay radishes of the season in North Bend today. The Stewarts have made a splendid record with their produce raising and expect to have a record breaking season this year.

The A. M. Simpson will sail today or tomorrow for the south with a big cargo. Capt. Bendergard estimates that the improvements she has just undergone have cost about $7000 and the loss of time has added another $3000 to the expenses of the Simpson Company as a result of the accident at San Pedro.

Al Brash is able to be up and around after a severe attack of la grippe.

COVER POINTS OF HATPINS

Massachusetts Law Makes It Compulsory.

BOSTON, March 14.—Those women of Massachusetts who do not cover the points of their hat pins with some device that will protect the public from injury hereafter will be liable to a fine of $100. An act to this effect has been signed by Governor Foss.

This Week's Program at Royal Theater Special Announcement

A big attraction is in store for the patrons of Mr. George Lemanski's Theater, opening March 17

The Team of Hickok & Otis Vaudevilles' Sweetest Singer

This act has been one of the Big Attractions on the Big Circuit and were on their way back to Chicago when a representative of Mr. Lemanski induced them to play a four weeks' engagement in Coos Bay at a very large salary.

MISS HICKOK is the niece of Ex-President Taft and known as the youngest prima donna on the American stage—age 17, weight 89, height 5 feet.

This is the young lady that the New York critics termed the Child Melba. Don't fail to hear this real singer while you have a chance.

Also on the extra Big Bill is MISS OWEN and MISS PINE, the youngest violinist on the Pacific Coast in a novelty singing and dancing act. These girls played to the Coos Bay Vaudeville Circuit packed houses. They are very pretty and petite girls, so boys get your glad rags out.

This will be the biggest and best show for the money that has been at the Royal this season. ADMISSION PRICES: BALCONY 10 CENTS LOWER FLOOR 15 CENTS
