TROUBLE AT COQUILLE.

Claim Illegal Votes Were Cast at Recent School Election.
The Coquille Sentinel says: "Having satisfied themselves that there were a number of illegal votes cast at the school meeting Wednesday night a petition for another meeting is out, and is being quite largely signed by those persons who are opposed to the site selected by that meeting."
At the election, the school board was given authority by a vote of 78 to 39 to purchase a school site and by a majority of five votes were instructed to purchase the Barrows and Strang site.

STILL IT GROWS.

The GOLDEN RULE continues to grow. It will continue to grow. It must be so. Some day it will cover the entire block and extend some ten or twenty stories in the air. Sooner or later the bank will be pushed from the corner. In the squeeze the Finnish Co-operative store will be pinched until it will give place. For the first time, The Coos Bay Times will be routed. Stafford and his sweets will seek cover. The Chamber of Commerce will be boosted to about the sixteenth floor. Sengstacken and his Title—oh, well, let it go at that. But the Golden Rule must grow. This is only a dream, but stranger things have happened.

"About five hours after the time of the injection I felt a strange sensation in the calf of my leg," he said. "It was like a violent pulsation or motion. It began to spread until a tingling sensation thrilled my entire body."
"Following the treatment my temperature went very high, but it dropped in a day or two, and this morning was normal. I feel in every way like a different man, wit ha steadily increasing appetite the night sweats gone and the feeling of exhaustion disappearing."

THE ROYAL.

The Big Four returned to the Royal for another limited engagement and the packed house that greeted them last night gave them more than a hearty welcome. This little company played another good comedy last night that was as good as any they played before and kept the audience in a good humor by the many uproarious laughs they had. Seldom has any company played here the second time within such a short time that was able to draw such a large house on their return engagement and keep up the same standard of playlets and change every night, such as the Big Four has been doing. They are deserving of the packed houses they have played to by their good comedy and their many friends will be sorry on their leaving and wish for their speedy return again. They have announced a complete change for tonight which will be high class vaudeville which they are well able to give and the patrons of this house may look forward to several first class acts tonight.
