Corbus Is Dead—Coroner Fred Wilson says that the report in the Coquille Sentinel that J. C. Mr. Corbus left no word about his family and it was with difficulty that the widow was located at Astoria, Oregon. Mr. Wilson has not heard from Mrs. Corbus since he notified her.

Reduce Wireless Rates—Manager Drews of the Coos Bay Home Telephone company today received word that hereafter the Wireless Station at Cape Blanco will accept commercial messages for ships at sea. The Telephone company charges two cents per word between here and Cape Blanco so that the service will be quite reasonable now.

Kinney's Plan—Major L. D. Kinney has written to Sec. John Motley of the Marshfield Chamber of Commerce urging the opening of a publicity department for Southern Oregon in a room at the Multnomah, hotel, Portland. He says it should be for all Southern Oregon, the expense pro rated. He estimates it would cost $200 per month to maintain it.
