TEACHERS' PAY.
 The average teacher's wages throughout the United States falls short of a dollar a day. No home-trainer who can hold his job is so poorly paid. No carpenter in steady employment earns so little. Slowly, very slowly, it is dawning upon the American people that the education of their children is the most important work they have in hand. If schools were what they ought to be, the world over, no armies would be needed and battleships might be used for codfishing.
