TRADE MARK

(Registry applied for)

Coos King and Coos Queen

TRADE MARK (Registry applied for)

SALUTATORY

That word should bring a flood of recollections to some of you grey-haired boys.

When we move into our own building, in April, we will launch our trade mark

Coos King and Coos Queen

Any article which carries this mark is guaranteed to be good—not by some mythical, indefinite person thousands of miles away—but by your townsman, the proprietor of the Marshfield Cyclery.

The Marshfield Cyclery guarantee is already a known quantity. We propose to keep it so.

We fully realize that the future success of our business depends, wholly, solely and alone on the quality of the service we give to our customers.

We shall endeavor to make COOS KING and COOS QUEEN mean quality in every article so labeled.

Respectfully,
E. BANDEL.

Mr. Bert Peterson of Gardiner is welcome to my check for $10.00 if he will call for it. Thank you, Mr. Peterson, for COOS KING AND COOS QUEEN.

made by the Coos County court to replank the Eastside bridge, leading to the ferry and strengthen the structure. Reports about the bridge being in a weakened condition have been current for some time and the county court has asked for bids for improving it. The contract will be awarded April 8.

Teal Refuses Place—Joseph N. Teal of Portland, who is known on the Bay through visits here with J. W. Bennett, has finally declined the offer of the position of assistant secretary of the interior. He was a candidate for secretary.

Injures Hand—George Snyder severely cut his right hand with a saw this morning while cutting wood at his home on Daniels Creek. He came to Marshfield at once and had the wound dressed by a physician. The injury is a painful one and will lay him up for some time.

Daughter Born—Word has been received here of the birth of a little daughter to Mr. and Mrs. Huron Smith, March 14 in Ingalls, Ind. Mr. and Mrs. Smith resided in Marshfield at one time and made many friends during their short residence here. Mr. Smith represented the Fields Museum and was securing exhibits of the wood grown in this section.

Buy Home Site—C. H. Curtis of the Union Meat Company has bought lots 1 and 2, block 3, First Addition to Marshfield, from the Reynolds Development Company. The tract is 81 feet by 150 feet in length and is located on the southwest corner of Lockhart avenue and South Tenth street. Mr. Curtis bought for the purpose of building his home there later.

Postpone Celebration—Owing to the illness of his wife, Captain T. D. Holland announced today that the big celebration of their thirtieth wedding anniversary, planned for this evening at the Eagle's hall, had been indefinitely postponed. He regretted it very much as he was anxious to have all old friends unite in an old fashioned good time, but owing to Mrs. Holland's illness, they were compelled to postpone it.

Olsen Returns—A clipping from a paper at Brownsville, Oregon, was received by The Times today. It announces the return of N. S. Olson, formerly of Coos Bay, and P. J. Laird and Grant Ballinger from their trip to Old Mexico. It will be remembered that Olson was in Mexico City when the Diaz-Madero trouble there was at its height. They went to inspect a mine at Guanajuato in which some Oregon people are interested. They made the trip without encountering serious trouble, despite the rebellion.

Back to Boat—Nightwatch Levi Smith expects to quit the police force soon and return to the command of the Alice H. The night work is very hard and he feels that he must give his attention to the boat.

Bring Car Trucks—The Breakwater will bring in a number of car trucks for the Smith-Powers Co. tomorrow.

Judge Hall Better—Judge Hall was reported resting easy today at Mercy hospital. Gases bothered him a little early today but later this trouble ceased.

Grange Dinner—Tomorrow the Coos Bay Grange will hold a big meeting at the Odd Fellows hall and will serve a fine dinner for the townspeople at the hall at noon.

Bunker Hill Trouble—Reports of a serious family jar at Bunker Hill reached Marshal Carter last night, but owing to that section being outside the city, he could not make any arrest. A man on a celebration got too boisterous. No damage or harm was done beyond severely frightening some women.

Recovers Wheel—H. H. Wilson has recovered the bicycle which was stolen from him recently. A Ferguson boy found the wheel in the possession of two Ferndale lads, who claimed to have found it hidden in the brush. It was somewhat damaged. A party named Olson informed the police yesterday that he had found a Peerless bicycle which he was holding for the owner. Numerous thefts of bicycles have been reported recently.
