You Cannot Be Lost on a Straight Road

You do not always stick to the straight road when buying. You wander off into the pleasant paths of buying on impulse, at strange stores, at odd times, and sometimes even needlessly.
Your pocketbook suffers when you leave the straight road. You are compelled to buy oftener by having unknowingly bought poor quality. You lose time in searching for the articles you need, and you receive too frequently poor service as a consequence of not sticking to the straight road.
Advertising is the straight road to satisfaction, quality, and price in buying. By it you gain known value of merchandise, good service, and the best quality for least cost. Advertisers in THE TIMES are making it easy for you to profit by following the straight road to successful buying. Read their advertisements closely and constantly.
