

Shape Is Cut and Sewed to Stay in Clothcraft Clothes

YOU can depend upon it—the fresh-bought shapeliness of Clothcraft Clothes is there to stay. Many men have found that after a Clothcraft suit has been discarded, the coat can be worn for years for work or rough use without losing its original shape and fit.

Shape is built in Clothcraft Clothes—not pressed in. It's a part of the clothes themselves.—and it will keep long after the clothes are worn out.

There's no guesswork about this—Clothcraft Clothes are guaranteed to hold their shape.

The Clothcraft guarantee also insures all-wool cloth, first class trimmings and tailoring, satisfactory wear and service.

We back up this guarantee with our own because after careful investigation we find that Clothcraft Clothes make good on every point. They are $10 to $25 and we can prove to you that they are easily worth more.

Come in Today and try on the Clothcraft Blue Serge Special, No. 5130, at $15.

Leave Tomorrow.—Mrs. T. M. Dimmick, C. F. Moss and Mrs. W. F. Jewett will be passengers on the Drain stage tomorrow morning going north.

Buys Property.—George Ayre is reported to have bought a lot in what is known as the Merchant homestead tract, from John C. Merchant for $2,500.

Summer Contest.—Dr. Bird Clark of North Bend is making arrangements to give a gold and grand gold medal contest in Summer next Saturday evening.

Pipe Bursts.—An ammonia pipe at the Coos Bay Ice and Cold Storage plant burst this afternoon and caused more or less fright at the plant but did no damage.

Hold Social.—The Junior Baptist Union of which Miss Joan Fitzgerald is superintendent, will hold a social from 7 to 9:30 at the church parlors next Saturday evening.

Buys a Home.—Lloyd Cutlip, of South Coos River, has purchased a residence in West Marshfield from the Marshfield Investment Co. and expects to make his home there.

McClelland Abroad.—Alva Doll is in receipt of a letter from Andrew McClelland, written from Sidney, Australia. He stated that he expected to leave there for Palestine and continue his journey around the world and will probably be on Coos Bay next fall.

Starts New Home.—Architect Turpen has nearly completed the plans and specifications for the fine modern bungalow, which Ward M. Blake will erect on South Fifth street, between Nerdrum Brothers' homes. It will not be quite so large as the former Blake home, which Mr. Turpen also designed. The contract for it will be let soon.

Had Lively Time.—"Snowball," a South Slough character, was arrested and jailed in North Bend the day before yesterday on the charge of intoxication. It was the same day that Edna Hinch was being held there pending being taken to the county jail and it is said that the North Bend jail presented the liveliest scene it has in a long time.

Gets Contracts.—Contractor H. C. Shelly of Coquille was yesterday awarded the contract for the woodwork on Judge Watson's new country mansion at Coos City for $2615 and Willey & Schroeder got the plumbing and heating for $695. The other contracts on it have not been awarded yet by Architect Turpen. The house, when completed, will cost about $5,000.

Ten Mile Baseball.—Milo Pierson, the merchant prince of Lakeside, is in Marshfield on business. He reports that last Sunday, Lakeside had a real classy ball game, Lakeside defeating the Road Camp team 7 to 6 in an extra inning game. Wm. Wilkins was umpire. Mr. Pierson has the new warehouse, which he is building at the North Slough landing, almost completed.

Will Wed.—Mr. and Mrs. Harry Nasburg will leave soon for Oakland Calif., where they will visit relatives and friends for a month. While there, they will attend the marriage of Mrs. Nasburg's sister, Miss Edith McGraw, to Geo. Bigelow, a mining man, which will take place May 14. During Mr. Nasburg's absence, Mr. Wheeler, who came here recently from Portland to engage in the lumber business, will have charge of the store.

LOCAL WOMAN WANTS A MAN

Advertises in St. Louis Paper for Good-natured, Kind-hearted Stout Man.

According to an advertisement in a St. Louis paper, a Marshfield woman, good-looking and of good form, is very lonely and is awfully anxious to get a "kind-hearted jolly stout man." Just who she is you will have to guess. Here is the advertisement from a St. Louis paper, which tells the story:

"2219—Marshfield, Ore. — 'I am lonesome.' Want to hear from jolly, good natured, kind hearted men of stout build, weighing about 175 lbs. or more. I have traveled a great deal, am good, clean, neat, stylish and up-to-date in every respect, have been in the millinery business, can also sew and nurse, age 37, 5-5, 160 lbs, have dark brown hair and large black eyes, plump form, considered good looking, kind and tender hearted, American, Methodist, have some money and will inherit."

Along the Waterfront.

The Nann Smith sailed this morning for Bay Point.

The Fifield will sail from San Francisco for Bandon Thursday.

The Homer arrived in today from San Francisco and will take on a cargo of box shooks.

The Breakwater will be in Friday from Portland and will sail from here Saturday for Portland.

The Speedwell is scheduled to sail from San Francisco direct for Coos Bay next Saturday and will sail from here about April 24.

The Washington made a trip from San Francisco to Eureka this week. This led to a report that she had quit the Coos Bay run but F. S. Dow, the local agent, said this was not the case. On the last two trips the Washington did not have a deck load out owing to the Simpson mill being closed down on account of a shortage of logs and this led to her being sent to Eureka this trip.
