ELKS TO GIVE MANY PARTIES

Arrange for Series of Monthly Socials for Wives and Families Members.

At a meeting of the Marshfield Lodge of Elks last evening, J. W. Hildenbrand, Eugene Crosthwait and George Goodrum were appointed a special committee to arrange for a series of monthly socials, card parties or dances, to be given by the lodge for the wives, families or sweethearts of the members.

In addition to these socials, plans were taken up for the annual ball of the lodge which will be given in June. Exalted Ruler W. H. Kennedy will probably appoint the committee to take charge of it at the next meeting.

There was a good turn-out at last evening's meeting. Thomas S. Harvey was initiated and properly fitted with the antlers of protection much to the gratification of H. A. Wells.

S. C. Small and possibly one or two others will be initiated at the next meeting.

CURRY COUNTY NEWS.

Events in and Around Gold Beach As Told by The Globe.

The County Court ordered a survey made of the proposed new road from the Fish Rock on the Chetco River by way of Brookings to the top of the hill near Wm. H. Moore's place, and one from Claude Walker's place, near Pistol River, to Ace Turner's letter box at Hunter's Creek keeping near the coast the entire distance. This change will put the road from here to Pistol River on practically a level grade and will make a two hours' shorter road for a team, than climbing over that useless Myers Creek mountain.

Will Lake came up from Chetco last Friday bringing up five panther skins, which he secured the bounty on. He says "three of those large cats killed twelve deer in two nights." With the woods full of such varmints, is it any wonder that Curry's hunting grounds are depleted of deer? The game department should raise the bounty on such varmints to at least thirty dollars, which would be an object for men to hunt them for the bounty.

Two gentlemen from Eel River, Cal., have been looking this territory over for a cannery site, with a view of permanently engaging in fishing in the Rogue.

Game Warden Baker was in town since our last issue. He says the game department now has such a corps of competent help and the hunting grounds so well in hand that the game law violators will have hard sledding this coming season practicing their chosen line of pastime.

Nelson MacDuff, Forest Supervisor, was one of the distinguished visitors in town since our last issue.

COOS COUNTY TIMBER.

K. R. Powder says there is offered for sale in Coos county something like two billions of feet at a price under $100 per thousand stumpage, some of which is located on or adjacent to drivable streams. The greater portions of this timber, however, is some distance from water. Tidewater timber is held at from $2 to $2.50, and is scarce at that price.—Coquille Sentinel.

LITTLE BAPTISTE.

I know where you came from, little Baptiste—

"Twas out of that big white star That winks and rocks in the opal east.

Where the little star-craddles are; And, oh, the time you have deftly swung

Tucked under your silvery covers, Over the world when the night was young.

Over the haunts of lovers, I know what you're made of, little Baptiste—

You're made of the angels' dreams, And your eyes are part of the sky—at least

They're spiked with its starry beams; And out of a cloud your hair was spun,

One night in your South, impassioned, And out of a thought of the coming sun

The red of your mouth was fashioned. I know how you came here, little Baptiste—

From the midst of the great star rock, For I have learned from the kind old priest

At the church of the good Saint Roch, That you were a prayer your mother prayed

(When she was so lonely, maybe,) And back from the portals of God you strayed—

Her dear little star-eyed baby! —Ella Bentley Arthur.

PET DEER FOR SHORE ACRES

Mrs. Frank Newkirk of Loon Lake Sends Tame One to L. J. Simpson.

A pet deer, about a year old, was brought here today from Loon Lake and will be taken to L. J. Simpson's summer home at "Shore Acres" as attraction for the place. The deer was bought by Mr. Simpson from Mrs. Frank Newkirk who had raised it.

The fawn was captured early last year and was very small, the mother having been killed. Mrs. Newkirk taught it to eat and drink and it became so tame that it would follow her around their Loon Lake ranch like a dog.

This morning when the Rainbow brought the animal in, Mrs. Newkirk was at the dock to meet her pet. Although crated, the deer gave indication of recognizing its mistress and responded promptly to its name "George."

Mrs. Newkirk is visiting her mother, Mrs. S. C. Gunderson, who recently moved here from near Belingham, Wash.

MILLS COAL CO. FACES TROUBLE

One of Backers of Project Writes Here for Information—May Start Suit.

That the Mills Coal company, which took an option-lease on the J. A. Ward Millicoma coal mine was operating on frenzied finance methods, is the declaration of Mr. Rogers, of Portland, in a letter to Mr. Ward today. Mr. Rogers was given as president of the company by Mills when he was here.

Mr. Rogers has written for detailed information about the Mills' operations here. He says that he advanced $1500 for preliminary development work with the understanding that it was to be all used in the mine. Instead of being so used, he figures that all except about $650 was used by Mills for his personal affairs. A. E. Hammond, a well known engineer who was long connected with Cello project, was to have become identified with the company. Mr. Rogers was formerly engaged in mining in Idaho.

Nothing has been heard from Mills recently and a bunch of suits are pending in Justice Pennoek's court for the collection of labor and merchandise claims against his company. J. A. Ward has terminated the lease-option of the company because they failed to comply with the terms of the contract and did not show any evidence of being able to do so. He is endeavoring to protect the laborers who worked in the mine, although he is not legally bound to do so.

Mr. Rogers in his letter threatens to institute suit against Mills for false misrepresentations.

SHROCK FAVORS 4-CLUB LEAGUE

North Bend Fan Wants North Bend, Marshfield, Myrtle Point and Coquille.

Will Shrock, of the North Bend baseball team, was in Marshfield today for a little while to confer with some of the baseball enthusiasts here about getting the Coos county league reorganized and arrangements made for starting baseball just as soon as the weather will permit. While nothing definite was accomplished, it is expected that another meeting will be called soon and a fresh start made.

Mr. Shrock is considerably irritated over recent developments. He says that while R. E. L. Bedillion of Bandon was in North Bend the other day, he intimated that Marshfield was sore at North Bend and then when he came down to Marshfield, he intimated that North Bend was sore at Marshfield, thus causing strife. Mr. Shrock says that North Bend is not sore at Marshfield and did not for a minute consider the idea of leaving Marshfield out of the league. He says North Bend wants baseball a good team and fast company, and wants it on the best conditions possible.

He says that R. E. L. Bedillion's proposal to have a six-team league with Bandon furnishing two teams is out of the question and that he favors a four team league to be composed of Coquille, Myrtle Point, Marshfield and North Bend.

However, he says that he does not want any feeling stirred up about the situation, but wants it worked out on the most practical grounds possible.
