adornment of linen, silver and glass with a floral center piece. Somewhere there was a birthday cake with many lighted candles—candles too numerous to mention.

The guests were Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Johnson and son Harold of Tacoma, Mr. and Mrs. Schjonborg, Mrs. Mary Bassett, Mrs. Rebecca Luse-Stump, Hilton Schjonborg and Catherine Stump.

SILVER TEA

Mrs. A. T. Haines was hostess to the Marshfield Presbyterian Ladies Aid Society Wednesday afternoon at a "Silver Tea." The home was prettily decorated for the occasion. While there was no formal program, several impromptu numbers were rendered. Among them were pleasing instrumental numbers by Mrs. J. Wright Wilson and a recitation by Miss Silverman. The affair was one of a series given by the Presbyterian ladies and was not an invitational one, all the ladies of the church being invited. It was decided to hold another on May 7 at the home of Mrs. L. W. Langdon on South Broadway. Mrs. Haines was assisted by Mrs. W. F. McEldowney and Mrs. H. J. Mohr.

Among those present were: Mesdames A. L. Barker, E. F. Morrissey, L. J. Schmidt, F. M. Flye, J. H. Cox, E. Gammill, Chas. McCulloch, A. E. Seaman, F. L. Davis, Sylvester Jones, P. W. Dodson, Mary McKnight, Paul Sterling, J. W. Motley, R. N. Fenton, F. A. Hazard, E. Falconer, Thos. Nicols, W. W. Button, J. A. Stadden, A. F. Reanier, Henry Bishop, G. W. Dungan, L. W. Langdon, H. K. Flom, R. H. Walters, R. S. Schmidt, Hugh Long, W. F. McEldowney, H. J. Mohr, C. F. McKnight, Q. O. Sutherland, W. F. Miller, W. B. Scott, Eugene Crothwait, W. E. Hoagland, F. A. Haines, Chas. La Chapelle, A. E. Dimment, J. Wright Wilson, and D. B. Keating, and Miss Esther Silverman and Miss McEldowney.

JUNIOR SOCIETY.

Such a rousing good time as the boys and girls of the Baptist Junior league had last evening at the Baptist church parlors, under the management of Miss Joan Fitzgerald, superintendent, who certainly deserves commendation for her good work! The children were very quiet and attentive while the different numbers of the program were being rendered, laughing heartily, only when there was real occasion for doing so. Indeed, some older people might take lessons from these little folk.

After the program, the children, with all the enthusiasm of youth, rushed through one game after another, never stopping for an occasion.

lional bump and hurt nose. The games most popular with the children were: Musical Chairs, Ruth and Jacob, Two Deep, Cross Questions and Crooked Answers.

At the close of the evening, refreshments consisting of ice cream, cake and wafers, were served.

PROGRESS CLUB.

The Progress club will meet next Monday with Mrs. Henry Sengstacken and the afternoon will be devoted to Mexico, its history and fine arts. Mrs. Sengstacken will contribute a paper on Impressions of Mexico, and the members of the club are requested to bring any articles of Mexican manufacture or any Mexican curios which they may have. In answer to roll call each member will contribute either a short sketch of some Mexican hero or a current event in Mexico.

PAST MATRONS.

The Past Worthy Matrons and Patrons' Association was entertained yesterday by Mrs. C. H. Marsh. The house and refreshment tables were tastily decorated in red and green. After the regular business was attended to, a social meeting was enjoyed when the hostess, assisted by Miss Isis Marsh, served dainty refreshments. Yesterday was the first time that any of the patrons have attended these delightful meetings and J. Albert Matson and E. S. Bargelt were present. After the meeting closed the ladies went in a body to visit Mrs. C. H. Dungan, one of the members who is confined to Mercy hospital by a broken leg. They carried flowers.

Those present were: Mrs. Fannie Hazard, Mrs. George Murch, Mrs. E. S. Bargelt, Mrs. F. E. Allen, Mrs. Ora McCarty, Mrs. F. M. Friedberg and Mrs. Mary McKnight as a guest.

A. N. W. CLUB.

The members of the A. N. W. club spent a very pleasant afternoon on Thursday with Mrs. M. C. Maloney. After the regular business and social meeting the hostess, assisted by Mrs. Mary McKnight and Mrs. Charles Stauff, served refreshments.

The club will meet next Thursday afternoon with Mrs. George Murch in South Marshfield.

Mrs. E. G. Flanagan tendered her resignation as a member of the club as she is unable to devote the requisite time to the club.

The guests present at this week's meeting were:

Mrs. D. E. Maloney and Mrs. Hugo Quist.

The members present were: Mrs. F. E. Allen, Mrs. Olivia Edman, Mrs. F. M. Friedberg, Mrs. J. T. Hall, Mrs. Fannie Hazard, Mrs. Chas. Kaiser, Mrs. Geo. F. Murch, Mrs. W. P. Murphy, Mrs. Mary McKnight, Mrs. Chas. McKnight, Mrs. H. Reed, Mrs. W. F. Squire and Mrs. Chas. Stauff.

SURPRISE PARTY

Miss Inez Johnson was the recipient of a most delightful surprise party last Tuesday evening at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Peter Johnson. The guests brought sewing and needle work. Sewing and other diversions made it a most pleasant event. Light refreshments were served.

Among those present were the Misses Manie Gulovson, Rose Myren, Clara Myren, May Myren, Edna Asplund, Mildred Coke, Alma Ekblad, Irene Preuss, Elsie Church, Esther Johnson and Margaret Stauff.

BENEFIT TEA.

Mrs. C. M. Byler entertained on Thursday afternoon at a silver tea, given as a benefit for St. Mary's Altar Guild. The rooms were prettily decorated in Japanese flowers and greens. The hostess was assisted in serving by Mrs. Bartle and Miss Lena Kruse. It is planned to give a series of similar teas. The next meeting of the Guild will be next Thursday with Mrs. Frank Frame.

Among those present Thursday were:

Mesdames Burmister, Dimmick, Lennon, Traver, Morten, Powell, Horn, Kennedy, Ingram, Reed, Vedder, Chapman, Huntley, Phillips, and Byler, and Misses Thea and Lena Kruse and Edith Horn.

LADIES' ART CLUB.

The Ladies' Art club met yesterday afternoon with Mrs. Wm. Hoagland on South Broadway.

There was a short business session followed by sewing, after which the hostess, assisted by Mrs. E. D. McArthur and Miss Ruth Hoagland, served refreshments.

During the afternoon Miss Hoagland rendered a number of piano selections. The club will meet next Friday with Mrs. F. A. Haines on South Fifth street. One new member was elected yesterday, Mrs. D. Vaughan.

The members present were: Mrs. J. A. Blatt, Mrs. A. L. Houseworth, Mrs. F. E. Storey, Mrs. Nels Rasmussen, Mrs. F. M. Flye, Mrs. F. A. Haines, Mrs. J. W. Hildenbrand, Mrs. J. G. Kinney, Mrs. Wm. Schroeder, Mrs. E. D. McArthur and Mrs. Ivy Condron.

THE Indian Motorcycle For 1913

Tremendous thought and energy have been expended on the great motorcycle problem of comfort for the rider. In the Patent Office there were recorded during the past few years over 3000 different motorcycle spring devices. The engineering department of the Hendee Manufacturing Company solved the problem of years at one decisive stroke. The motorcyclist now has his utmost demands for Comfort realized in the

Indian Cradle Spring Frame

The Cradle Spring Frame is simply the successful and practical application to the rear wheel of the machine of the Cradle Spring Fork as used in connection with the front wheel of all Indian models for the past 4 years with such conspicuous success. Vibration has been eliminated. An important saving in the life of the motorcycle.
