To Speak Here.—The Rev. Philip E. Bayer, superintendent of the Oregon Prisoner's Aid Society, will speak at the Marshfield Presbyterian church Sunday evening.
Good Fishing.—John Merchant and Warner Ogren made a record-breaking catch yesterday, when fishing a distance of 200 yards they caught thirty trout in three hours.

Buys Lot.—August Pederson, of North Bend, has bought a lot at the corner of Washington and Meade streets, Plat B, from W. R. Haines for $400.

Funeral Today.—The funeral of Mrs. Anne Vernon was held this morning from Wilson's chapel. The Rev. R. E. Browning officiated. There was a good attendance of the older residents.

Koontz Fined.—John L. Koontz today paid a fine of $15 for speeding on his motorcycle the other day. City Recorder Butler imposing it. The alleged violation of the ordinance occurred April 17.

Pays His Fine.—Murt Fitzpatrick, who started in yesterday to work out his fine for intoxication, decided that the labor was too much and today paid the $10 and was released from further services of the city.

Gets Keys.—Through a found ad, John TenBrook has recovered the key to his bicycle. Ned Patterson borrowed the wheel and lost the key in West Marshfield. The party who found it brought the key to The Times and the found ad, found the owner.

Open Revivals.—The Rev. John Lewtas, of Tacoma, Wash., will open a four weeks' revival meeting at the Marshfield Methodist church tomorrow, speaking both morning and evening. He will speak each evening during the week. He came here today from Bandon where he spoke last night.

Gets Quick Results.—"Stop that want ad. We are being bothered to death by answers to it and we have sold the cow, in fact we could have sold forty cows." This was the message that came from J. C. Doane today. He had advertised in The Times want ads a couple of days about a cow for sale.

Court Monday.—Judge J. S. Coke will go to Coquille Monday to open the adjourned term of circuit court and clear up the calendar for the regular session which will convene a week from Monday. He returned yesterday from Curry county where he held court. This was not the jury term and there were few cases for trial.

To Grand Jury.—C. H. Coddling will leave Monday for Coquille to serve on the grand jury. The old grand jury will serve for a week and a new one will be impaneled then to continue the work. Among the members of the old grand jury are Messrs. C. H. Coddling, J. D. Barkalow, Webb Mast, George Pike, D. P. Logan and Arthur Mattson, the latter being from Catching Inlet.

Asked to Make Good.—The Executive Committee of the Marshfield Chamber of Commerce yesterday sent a telegram to A. E. Stossmeister, who started the Coos Bay Business College here a few months ago, asking him to arrange to carry out his contracts with the students who have paid six months' tuition and got only about half of their instruction. Mr. Stossmeister is at Astoria. He recently left and gave notice that he had severed connections with the school. Mr. Sisk, who has been in charge claims that Mr. Stossmeister in severing his connections took considerable of the funds that had been collected, leaving the school in a crippled financial condition and unable to carry out its contracts.
