

LUMBER TRADE IS INCREASING

Coos Bay Furnishes Bulk of Fir and Spruce for San Francisco Market.

Coos Bay continues to furnish the large bulk of the fir and spruce lumber for the San Francisco market and will probably show a marked increase from now on. The C. A. Smith Company's shipments will probably be double this year what they were a year ago. The company with its new system of yards and means of supplying the retail dealers around San Francisco Bay is getting the bulk of the trade there. The Pioneer Western Lumberman gives the following figures of the receipts at San Francisco from the various ports, from March 29 to April 14:

The upward movement of shingles is the most notable feature in the Seattle market situation the last two weeks, clears being especially strong, and showing an advance of 25 to 30 cents over the lowest mark since the beginning of the year.

Messrs. Robert, John and R. Graules of Placerville, Cal., have deeded 2,000 acres of timber land lying in Mountain and Georgetown townships, El Dorado county, to the C. A. Smith Lumber company.

The North Star Lumber company, of Minneapolis, has purchased a mill site at Reedsport, upon which they will build and have in operation about the time of the completion of the Willamette-Pacific Railroad into Reedsport a sawmill and manufacturing plant with a daily capacity of 125,000 feet. The company have extensive timber holdings on the Umpqua River watershed and own between 70 and 80 lumber yards in

ALEC. WILSON PASSES AWAY

Well Known Locomotive Engineer Succumbs to Attack of Paralysis.

Alec Wilson, for over twenty years a resident of Coos Bay, succumbed last night to a lingering illness of paralysis. He was a locomotive engineer and had been employed on the various logging roads and local line here. He returned here Sunday from San Francisco, where he went in a futile endeavor to gain relief.

Mr. Wilson was prominent in Masonic circles, being a Master Mason and a Royal Arch Mason and a member of Arago Chapter of Marshfield. He was also a member of Doric Chapter, Order of the Eastern Star and of Myrtle Lodge Knights of Pythias.

He has no relatives here. Alexander Wilson was born in Dumburton, Scotland, June 6, 1862. He was educated in Inverness, Scotland. He came to Oregon in 1882 and located in Portland, where he secured a position in the general machine shops of the O. R. and N. Co. Later he became a locomotive engineer and had a run out of here.

About twenty years ago he came to Coos Bay, where he first went to work for Graham on the local railway and later on the various logging railways. Alec Wilson was a good citizen and a loyal friend. He was respected and beloved by all who knew him and news of his death will be received with genuine regret.

The funeral will be held at 2 o'clock Thursday afternoon from Dungan's Undertaking parlors and will be under the auspices of the Masons and Knights of Pythias.

EASTERN STAR NOTICE.

Members of Doric Chapter, Order of Eastern Star, are requested to meet at the Masonic Temple at 1 o'clock Thursday to attend the funeral of Alec Wilson.

MRS. J. D. LOWE PASSES AWAY

Mother of Mrs. A. D. Wolcott and Frank Lowe, Dies After Long Illness.

Mrs. David J. Lowe, Sr. one of the oldest pioneers of the Coquille Valley and Coos county, died today noon at the home of her daughter, Mrs. A. D. Wolcott, after a lingering illness. She was 79 years and four months old and was a native of Montgomery county, Illinois.

Eurilla Ann Starback, who crossed the plains with an ox team in 1856, was married to David John Lowe at Folsom, California, in 1857 and came immediately to Oregon. She has lived ever since on the Coquille River, except she made her home with her daughter, Mrs. A. D. Wolcott in Marshfield. She had been an invalid for thirteen months and the past five months had been perfectly helpless. Her husband preceded her in death two years, and the youngest son, David J. Lowe, Jr., just two months ago passed to the great beyond. Of her six children, Mrs. A. D. Wolcott and Frank L. Lowe are the only survivors.

The funeral will be held at Coquille Friday, April 25, at 11 o'clock from the Ellingson Undertaking parlors and the services will be conducted by the Rev. A. F. Bassford of Marshfield. Friends and acquaintances of the family are respectfully invited to attend.

Give Yourself a Square Deal

Use your "grey matter" on this clothing proposition.

Ask yourself if a big part of your clothes money hasn't been going to pay bad accounts and other items that add not a "whit" to the quality or the style, or the tailoring of the clothes you wear.

You have been paying for all these bad debts for years, perhaps you couldn't help yourself in the old days, but why not break the habit right now and keep that money in your own pocket.

Dozens—Scores—Hundreds of men know that by buying clothes at Hub Stores saves them $6.00 to $10.00 on each suit.

You are just as wide awake, just as alert to get the most value for your money, as any of these patrons of ours. Then isn't it about time that you came here and bought your clothes the HUB way.

"MONEY TALKS"

Every Suit purchased from Hub Stores must give entire satisfaction, whether the cost be $15.00 or $40.00. We stand behind you.

WE SELL IT FOR LESS

FURNITURE and Housefurnishings

When you want values in complete housefurnishings, come to Going & Harvey's. We have everything for the home at prices lower than any other store in Coos County. It's easy to solve the problem why we can sell the highest grade furniture at a remarkably low price. There are many reasons, but we give just a few:

- 1st. Consider our rent—We leased our ground some years ago and erected our own building and thus pay only ground rent, making a good saving.
- 2nd. Our goods are not sold to people who can't pay or won't pay for them for we all know that a "dead beat" makes the good one pay for him.
- 3rd. We buy in large quantities and thus save on freight and extra discounts.
- 4th. We carry a large assortment in our warehouse, always ready to deliver the goods.
- 5th. We are independent; no one has any strings on us, telling us how to sell and for how much to sell.

The best of all reasons; we know that we must depend on you to help us grow, and in order to be worthy of your attention and patronage, we must make good with both quality and price.

As to our goods, there is no need of wasting space here; if you know furniture you will see at a glance what ours' is; if you don't know a thing about it the goods will talk for themselves.

MAGGENN WILL PUBLISH POEMS

Master of the Breakwater to Issue Book of Poems in the Near Future.

A Portland paper says: "The steamer Breakwater arrived with Captain MacGenn in the best of spirits, for he is about to publish his poems in book form, and as a poet will occupy the high place of esteem which Captain A. W. Nelson, ex-master of the Beaver and now on the Korea, held as an author in the minds of Portland citizens.

The Breakwater had 95 passengers and 40 tons of freight. Among the passengers was W. E. Miller, superintendent of the line, who brought his family to Portland from Marshfield on a visit. May 5 is the date when the vessel will start on its five-day schedule.

"Among Captain MacGenn's latest poems are 'Love,' 'Crossing the Bar' and 'Sunset.' These he composed following his trip to New York in January. Besides he has added to his verses on Mark Antony, and is composing a poem entitled 'Friendship.'

While in the East Captain MacGenn visited Colonel Roosevelt at Sagamore Hill, and the ex-President gave him the following autograph letter of introduction to the editor of the Outlook:

"Sagamore Hill, Jan. 17, 1913.—Captain MacGenn, of Oregon, is a fine fellow, an ardent progressive. He wishes certain information which you, perhaps, can give him. I commend him to your courtesy. Sincerely yours, Theodore Roosevelt."

"Colonel Roosevelt commented in a flattering manner, Captain MacGenn's poem 'Virtue,' which he admired both for its quality and the subject the captain had chosen to write about. The poem was published in 'The Oregonian' in 1910.

"Captain MacGenn will go to Scotland in 1915, and while there will arrange for the copyrighting of his new book of poems in the British Isles.

ing traveled through Turkey, Syria, Greece, the Holy Land and Egypt makes his addresses exceedingly fascinating and instructive. He is a scholar and gentleman. No one should fail to hear him in the Methodist church each afternoon at 2:30 and evening at 7:45.
