Home Progressing.—J. W. Mitchell's fine new home in Plat B is progressing nicely and will be ready for occupancy about May 15.
Railroad Supplies.—The launch Turtle, under Captain Getty, of North Inlet, is loading provisions and supplies for Porter Brothers' camp and will leave this afternoon.

Finds Indian Hammer.—Rev. R. O. Thorpe, while working in his garden in South Marshfield yesterday unearthed an old Indian stone hammer, longer than the ordinary stone hammer.
Fine Party.—About forty couples enjoyed the dance and card party given by the Marshfield Lodge of Elks at their hall last evening. It was delightfully informal. A full orchestra furnished music and light refreshments were served.

To Aid Son.—C. L. Reed and wife have arrived here from Medford to try and aid their son, Fred Reed, who is facing charges of involuntary manslaughter, as a result of the car which he was driving upsetting and killing L. K. Balingier.

Edmunds Was Employe.—George Smith, of Coos River, who was in Marshfield today on business, stated that William Edmunds, the forger, had been employed by him only about six weeks. He said that Edmunds worked for his board during that time and he did not know much about him.

Successful Fishing Party.—A party consisting of Robert Swanton, G. A. Bennett, Fred Bennett, Lyle Savage and Nels Rasmussen invaded the haunts of the trout yesterday and returned last night with a hundred and fifty in their creels—at least that's the number given out by the most voracious chronicler of the party.

Postpones Trip.—Rev. Father A. R. Munro has received word that Father Lane, who was expected to visit the Catholic parishes in this section, has postponed his trip until later in the summer. Father Munro will leave early in May for

Studebaker

"Rough hauling?"
"I don't mind. This is a Studebaker Wagon"

—that's why I bought it. I noticed that men were using the Studebaker wherever the work was hard—hauling steel girders in the city, logs in the woods, stone in the quarry.

"My work is hard and I know it. My wagon is on my payroll and must earn its salary. That's why I bought a Studebaker. I can't afford to buy a cheaper one."

"Get in touch with a Studebaker dealer, he's a good man to know."

Portland where he will confer with Archbishop Christie about the new church and parochial residence here.

No Clue.—Marshal Carter is unable to find any clue in the theft of $60, which Mr. Fisher, a local auto driver, reports was stolen from him at his room in the Lloyd hotel the night before last, his trousers being carried out and left in the hall after the money was taken.

Use Barge Here.—It is reported that Porter Brothers are planning to use their new barge, which they have ordered from Kruse and Banks, for a time in hauling supplies to and from Coos Bay, the Umpqua and Stuslaw and later use it for hauling lumber from their Stuslaw mill. The order for a second big barge will probably be placed soon.

Stosmeister Writes.—Secretary John Motley, of the Marshfield Chamber of Commerce, has received a lengthy letter from Prof. A. E. Stosmeister, who started the Coos Bay Business College here and who was called upon by the Chamber of Commerce to see that the contracts were fulfilled. Mr. Stosmeister explains in detail of his business troubles here but says that he will return from Astoria and see that matters are straightened out satisfactorily.
